

St Gerard's Catholic Primary School

Newsletter Week 4

26th September 2025

Message from Mrs Baxter

The children are really enjoying getting to grips with their History topic. When I visit the classrooms the children are so excited and engaged with their learning. Please visit our school Facebook page where we share the exciting things that are happening in school!

The next teacher training day will be on Friday 3rd October 2025. School will be closed on this day

Monday Morning Prayer

Every Monday morning we invite children and parents to begin the week in prayer and join staff over in church from 8.15-8.30. Please do join us if you can!

September at 10.00am

Student Leaders

A big thank you to all who joined us for our special Student leaders assembly. The children were so proud of the roles they have been given and I know they are going to really make a difference to our wonderful school!

Key stage 2 Parent workshop

Thanks to all who attended the meeting on Wednesday and Thursday. If you were unable to attend and would like more information please speak to your child's teacher. As always thank you for your support.

Friends of St. Gerard's

We are so blessed to have a wonderful group of parents, grandparents, carers, aunties, uncles and friends who support our school family in so many ways! Our first meeting will be held on Monday 6th October at 2.00pm in the school hall. We are always looking for new members so please come along to our first meeting.

Black History Month

On the 22nd October there will be a special assembly celebrating Black History Month. Each class will be given an opportunity to enter a special writing competition. Some of the winning entries will be shared during the assembly. More information to follow.

Read Write Inc Workshop .

On Thursday 2nd October FS2 parents are invited to join us in school for a phonics workshop. Please remember that books being sent home are due back into school in good condition every Thursday.

This weeks special mentions
