

Every family can benefit from some extra support and community connection, and Parents as Teachers is here for you!

“We love the Parents as Teachers program! As brand-new parents, we have learned so much! Whether it’s getting new ideas for an activity to do or talking about navigating their big emotions. This program has helped us through it all!” - Current Client

“I now know what to look for with my child’s development and where she needs help. I now understand her cues and needs. I’ve gained confidence in myself and my parenting skills.” - Current Client

“It gives you access to a ton of resources and a safe space for your family [...] It gave me confidence to support my daughter in a way that I didn’t know how to before.” - Current Client

“I love the monthly events that allow me and the kids to socialize with other families. The visits help me find developmentally corresponding ways to play and teach my children [...]” - Former Client
