JBERD (Jug Bay Education Research and Discovery) Field Station
Paddle-In Campground Rules and Regulations

Jug Bay Wetlands Sanctuary Rules and Regulations

All users will follow the general rules and regulations established for the Sanctuary, and the Anne Arundel County Department of Recreation and Parks found here. The Department of Recreation and Parks does not assume any responsibility for any lost or stolen property.

Jug Bay Wetlands Sanctuary Rules and Regulations

- Smoking, alcoholic beverages, weapons and firearms, hunting and fishing, swimming, horseback riding, fireworks, metal detecting, party accessories (confetti, pinatas, balloons), and littering are prohibited.
- Off road vehicles, dirt bikes, bicycles and similar types of vehicles are prohibited.
- Interfering, removing, or disturbing wildlife and natural resources is prohibited.
- Manipulation or removal of wildlife and plants is strictly prohibited unless with a scientific permit.
- Pets are not permitted.
- Please remain on marked and designated trails.
- Only registered cabin and campground users are allowed to remain in Park property after regular public hours.
- A speed limit of 15 mph shall be adhered to while driving on all Sanctuary roads.
- Vehicles are allowed in designated parking areas only.
- Storage of commercial vehicles/equipment is prohibited.

Paddle-In Campground Rules and Regulations

- Fires must be contained to the provided metal fire ring.
- Users must pack out all trash.
- Campground users must use the portable toilet Cat-holing is not acceptable.