SUMMER CONCERT GOD BLESS OUR CONTRY

Celebrate faith, freedom, and community at our God Bless America Concert on Monday, June 29, at 7 p.m. in our lower garden. We are honored to welcome acclaimed Diné jazz trumpeter, composer, and educator Delbert Anderson for an inspiring evening of music. Blending Navajo "spinning songs" with jazz and funk, Anderson creates a powerful and uniquely Native American sound that reflects Diné culture, history, and the beauty of the Southwest. Chamber Music America, the First Peoples Fund, The New York Times, and NPR have featured his nationally recognized work. Bring your family and friends as we celebrate our country with an unforgettable evening of music and fellowship!
