LIVE THE LITURGY – INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

Salt without flavor is no longer salt. Light that illuminates nothing is no longer light. As Christians, we must be what we have been made to be.

So think about it, carefully: what stands between you and being who you were made to be?

VIVIR LA LITURGIA – INSPIRACIÓN DE LA SEMANA

La sal sin sabor ya no es sal. La luz que no ilumina nada ya no es luz. Como cristianos, debemos ser lo que hemos sido hechos para ser. Así que piénsalo, cuidadosamente: ¿qué se interpone entre tú y ser quien fuiste hecho para ser?

PRAYER – FOR EVERYDAY AND EVERYBODY

Blessing of Mission

Bless us on our way, O Lord.

Share with us as we share with others. Heal us as we help others to heal. Provide for us as we open our hands in charity. Every gift comes from You. You are at the heart of all that is good. Share that goodness with us today, abundantly.

Amen.

ORACIÓN – PARA TODOS LOS DÍAS Y PARA TODOS

Bendición de la Misión

Bendícenos en nuestro camino, oh, Señor.

Comparte con nosotros como nosotros compartimos con los demás. Sánanos mientras ayudamos a otros a sanar. Provéenos mientras abrimos nuestras manos en caridad. Todo don viene de Ti. Estás en el corazón de todo lo que es bueno. Comparte esa bondad con nosotros hoy, abundantemente.

Amén.

VIRTUDES, ¡EXPLICADO!

Ser Bueno

Al principio, ser bueno era todo lo que había. Y al final, solo quedará lo bueno.

La palabra "bueno" se repite con tanta frecuencia en los primeros versículos del Génesis que se ha convertido casi en un cliché. Dios ve lo que ha hecho, y lo llama a todo "bueno" (Génesis 1:31). Del mismo modo, en la primera página del Catecismo de la Iglesia Católica, leemos que Dios creó al hombre "en un plan de pura bondad ... para hacerle partícipe de su propia vida bendita". (CIC 1). Cuando vemos lo bueno, no podemos evitar pensar en Dios (Sabiduría 13:1).

En el bautismo, el Espíritu Santo nos da la gracia santificante de la justificación, que es, entre otras cosas, la capacidad de crecer en ser bueno a través de un aumento en la virtud moral (CIC 1266). El bautismo, por lo tanto, nos dispone hacia lo bueno, y cuanto más pidamos ser buenos al Espíritu Santo, más nos será posible.

RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

By Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman

Be Salty

I want you to close your eyes. Are they closed? (I'm serious.) Okay. Now think of the greatest saint in history.

I don't care who you're thinking of. It's going to be different for everyone. Just think of that person. Think of his or her life. And answer the question: Why is he or she a great saint?

You're all thinking of different people, but the answer is the same for everyone. And it's not "Because he did great things for God" or "Because she sacrificed everything she had for the poor." Those answers show evidence of the reason. But the reason is something more.

The greatest saints in history were not great at holiness. God brought holiness about within them because (ding ding ding! Here's the answer!) the greatest saints in history were great at being who they were meant to be.

Not who they wanted to be. Not who they thought they should be. Who they were meant to be.

Simply put, they gave themselves to God. All of themselves. Flaws and all. And God took them, in their totality, and said: "Now watch this."

Just imagine if salt was ashamed of being salty. Imagine if it looked at the sodium content on its nutrition label and thought, "That's embarrassing," and decided it was going to stop being salt. Well, great. Now it's just a box of tiny rocks.

Wouldn't it have been better for the salt to trust the baker using it?

There is a plan for each of us. There is a path to holiness for each of us. This path doesn't bypass our flaws or our weaknesses; it incorporates them. It transforms them. It fulfills them.

So be salty. Be who you were meant to be.
