Nyala Farms Corporate Park

Nyala Farms:

Nyala Farms Corporate Park is a five building, 327,000 square foot, corporate complex set on 53 acres in Westport, CT. It is home to hedge fund Bridgewater, as well as Terex, Morgan Stanley and other major tenants.

Nature of Firm's Responsibilities:

Landmark Facilities Group, Inc. was provided services to the facility over the years including:

- Comprehensive documentation of the complex electric systems that were originally installed and later modified by tenants requiring emergency power for their trading floors.
- Evaluation and repairs to electrical distribution in the parking garage and design of new high voltage distribution passing through the garage.
