

Chattanooga Red Wolves Academy Player Expectations & Standards Agreement

At the Chattanooga Red Wolves Academy, we are committed to creating an environment that is competitive, challenging, supportive, and enjoyable for every player. Our goal is to develop players not only as athletes, but also as teammates, leaders, and representatives of our club and community.

All players are expected to uphold the standards established by the Club, leagues, and governing bodies for the 2026/27 Seasonal year. These expectations apply to all Chattanooga Red Wolves Academy teams and players.

Failure to consistently meet these standards may impact playing time, team responsibilities, and/or membership within the organization.

As a Chattanooga Red Wolves Academy player, I will:

Commitment & Accountability

- Attend all trainings, games, team meetings, and club events unless I have communicated in advance with my coach and team manager.
- Continue supporting and engaging with the team when injured.
- Take responsibility for my own development through effort, focus, preparation, and a willingness to improve.
- Arrive on time and prepared to train and compete.
- Wear appropriate Chattanooga Red Wolves Academy gear at trainings, games, and designated club functions.

Attitude & Team Culture

- Encourage, support, and positively impact my teammates and coaches.
- Compete with intensity while maintaining respect for everyone involved in the game.
- Demonstrate a positive attitude in training, games, travel, and all team environments.
- Help create a culture where teammates feel valued, challenged, and respected.

Respect & Sportsmanship

- Respect officials, coaches, teammates, opponents, and spectators at all times.
- Accept decisions made by referees and coaches in a professional manner.
- Follow the rules, policies, and procedures of the team, club, league, and governing bodies.
- Learn and respect the Laws of the Game.

Club Commitment

- Prioritize commitments to Chattanooga Red Wolves Academy when conflicts arise with outside soccer activities, including but not limited to ODP, ID Camps, guest playing, or other club/team events, unless otherwise approved by club leadership.

Furthermore, I will never:

- Engage in bullying, harassment, discrimination, or intimidation of any kind.
- Use abusive, disrespectful, or inappropriate language toward officials, coaches, teammates, opponents, or spectators.
- Display unsportsmanlike conduct on or off the field.
- Act in a manner that negatively represents or harms the Chattanooga Red Wolves Academy, my teammates, or the game.

The Chattanooga Red Wolves Academy maintains a zero-tolerance policy regarding bullying and harassment.

CRWA Core Values & Standards

Excellence

- Pursue high standards in training, competition, and personal growth.
- Stay focused on the task at hand and give maximum effort consistently.

Integrity

- Be honest, accountable, and trustworthy.
- Communicate openly and respectfully with coaches and teammates.

Responsibility

- Represent yourself, your family, your teammates, and the club with character both on and off the field.
- Understand that your actions reflect the standards of the Academy.

Professionalism

- Carry yourself with maturity, discipline, and respect.
- Understand that CRWA is a competitive developmental environment, not a recreational program.
