Our Conductor & Musical Director

Barry Fletcher
B.Ed(Mus), A.Mus.A

Barry Fletcher was born in New Jersey USA and migrated to Australia in 1972. Although he majored in Clarinet, his other instruments include Recorder, Flute, Saxophone and French horn, Barry has also taught music for over 40 years.

Now retired from music education, he has worked in Government secondary schools, Catholic and Independent schools and has been Director of Music and Faculty Head of Performing Arts at St Leonard's College in Brighton. He has taught both VCE and IB Music.

Barry has been a soloist with the South Melbourne Symphony; played professionally with the Australian Dance Theatre Company; conducted the Monash University Symphony Orchestra as well as the Southern Peninsula Concert Band and has been a guest conductor and adjudicator for various schools and festivals.

Barry continues his work with the VCAA (VCE assessment platform) where he is an external assessor for all current Music Studies. These include Music Repertoire Performance, Music Contemporary Performance, VET Music Performance, Music Composition and Music Inquiry.

Recently Barry has been appointed as a senior external examiner in music for the IBO (International Baccalaureate Organisation) and through technology assesses students work from around the world.

He is involved in community activities that include ANZAC Day, Australia Day and Carols by Candlelight in Rosebud.

NEW MEMBERS WELCOME

A not-for-profit community band with a long, proud history of service to the Mornington Peninsula.

We strive to provide public service through musical entertainment for the residents of the Mornington Peninsula and surrounding areas.

Southern Peninsula Concert Band

The band has been performing for 60 years bringing joy and entertainment to the residents of the southern towns of the Mornington Peninsula.

Previously known as the Shire of Flinders Youth and Citizens Band and Shire of Flinders Concert Band, it has continued to be a place of practice and social gathering for many musicians of all ages, from many walks of life.

The band performs at community events throughout the year including our regular performances at ANZAC Day Parades, Christmas Carol Concerts, our own annual Heritage Concert, Cranbourne Band Festival and many Retirement Village appearances.
