

brings more than a decade of dance instruction and leadership experience to West Main Studios. She is passionate about helping dancers grow in both technique and confidence while creating a positive, encouraging classroom environment.

Tiffany specializes in acrobatics, pre-ballet, lyrical, contemporary, and jazz, with extensive experience teaching dancers of all ages and skill levels. As a former studio director, she developed successful dance programs, built a competitive dance team from the ground up, and choreographed award-winning routines recognized at regional competitions.

Known for her creativity, organization, and dedication to her students, Tiffany is committed to inspiring each dancer to reach their full potential while fostering a lifelong love of dance. She holds a Bachelor's degree in Business Administration from the University of Texas at El Paso and is honored to share her passion and experience with the West Main Studios family.
