Stop. Check. Report: Beat the Scammers at Their Game

Toll scams are where the scammer sends you a text/email acting as toll companies for unpaid tolls. If you are being pressured into clicking a link it's probably a scam.

Social media based are the "get rich quick" scams where the scammers may send you a link via social media that would contain malware that allows them to get enough info to access accounts or even open accounts under your name.

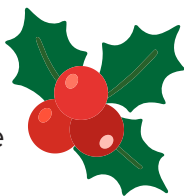

Real Estate/ Vehicle scams are when scammers may misrepresent a large purchase such as a house, property, or vehicle. They often copy listings online and replace the sellers or agents name with their own. They will ask you to send money in uncommon ways such as wire transfers, gift cards or even bitcoin.
