WEEKLY INSPIRATION

When Jesus multiplied the loaves and fishes, he didn't create only what was needed — there were leftovers that could be saved and shared again. God is lavish in bestowing His grace upon us. He always gives enough to share.

FR. DON'S MUSINGS

I am writing a book report today. I feel like I am back in middle school! I read a book recently that has had a big impact on my life and I want to tell you about it. It's by Matthew Kelly, we've used several of his books here at St. Clare: Rediscovering Jesus, Holy Moments, The Biggest Lie in the History of Christianity... He is my favorite Catholic author because he is so down-to-earth and practical. Last year he wrote Slow Down to the Speed of Joy. I have already read it 3 times cover to cover and am currently reading it again. This book has changed my life more than almost any other book.

The book jacket says, "It is a deeply personal book. It provides a rare and intimate look at the author's own struggles with busy and urgent. By revealing his own vulnerabilities, Kelly provides us with the practical insights and timeless wisdom necessary to banish busy and urgent from our own lives." My life has been very busy as a pastor as I oversee the church, school & preschool. I try to meet the needs of the 600+ registered families plus all the non-registered Catholics in the area that want a priest's help. My life has had a lot of "busy and urgent". I was often feeling overwhelmed by the workload.

A lot of our families feel overwhelmed. Lots of busy and urgent. This book has helped me to move toward slowing down to the speed of joy and it can help you to do the same. I highly recommend it if you are feeling overwhelmed with the busyness of life/work/family. Our lives can get rushed into a frantic pace that isn't healthy or life-giving. Matthew Kelly gives practical and Godly advice on how to live life at the speed of joy. I highly recommend his book Slowing Down to the Speed of Joy.

Let's keep praying for one another.

~ Fr. Don

SCRIPTURE READINGS

REFLECT AND RESPOND TO TODAY'S SCRIPTURE

1st Reading

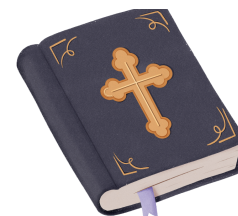

Isaiah speaks of the Lord's invitation to all to join in His feast of rich food and drink without cost. To whom can you show generosity to this week?

2nd Reading

Paul is convinced that nothing in this life can separate us from the love of God in Christ Jesus our Lord. When do you feel closest to God?

Gospel Reading

Moved with pity for the crowds, Jesus healed the sick among them and fed thousands with only five loaves and two fish. Can you think of a time when someone showed compassion toward you?

THIS AND THAT FROM DEACON BILL

THE TRANSFIGURATION FEAST: THEN AND NOW

This Thursday, August 6, Catholics celebrate the Feast of the Transfiguration of the Lord. Apostles Matthew, Mark, and Luke all give accounts in their respective gospels of the Transfiguration of Jesus.

Mark's account of this significant biblical event gives us the facts, and just the facts. Luke's account illuminates for us why Jesus, Peter, James, and John are on a high mountain: Jesus took his three closest friends up the mountain to pray. Before Jesus did anything he would take time to talk to His Heavenly Father to make sure He was doing God's will. Prayer -- the connection with the Father -- was very important to Jesus. In the transfiguration, as a result of prayer, Jesus' inner being changed His outward appearance. His growing awareness of Himself and His role in bringing God's Word of love for the world was becoming even more evident in Him.

Jesus relied completely on His Father, and gradually grew to the full realization of His purpose in humankind's earthly realm. Something of that complete reliance showed forth on that day on the mountain. His relationship with His father strengthened Him.

This is a goal of all Catholics, indeed all Christians, need to strive for -- a relationship with God which enables us to feel the strength called grace that God gives us in our lives. Prayer is the answer!

Matthew's account focuses on the fear that a transforming event can inspire. At the moment of transfiguration, the disciples fell to the ground and were very much afraid. Sudden and dramatic changes can make us anxious and fearful.

Jesus continues to tell us today, through the Gospels and from the very foundations of our Catholic faith "Do not be afraid."

As followers of Christ, we need to find God in those fearful times. We can surmise today that the miraculous mountaintop experience of Peter, James, and John helped our Lord's earliest followers endure the hardest, and most painful time of their lives, the Passion and death of Jesus because they had witnessed Jesus as the resurrected Christ before these events took place.

Transformation in our own lives occurs when we encounter God more completely, more intentionally, and more deeply. When we become aware of the who, the what, and the where of God. Transformation takes place in all of us every day as we grow in our faith in God. In most cases, transformation takes place gradually through changes within us -- in our thoughts, attitudes, and actions. This comes about through our prayer life and by opening up our minds to what is truly important in life. Sometimes there is a catalyst -- anxiety, fear, sorrow, love or need-- that shakes our whole being. It is in that "mountaintop" revelation, the "aha" moment, and even the "oh no" moment that we, too, can experience transformation in our lives.

Let us pray that we may become more aware of the grace already within us. Strive to see Jesus in the fearful, sorrowful, and joyful moments of our lives. Let us respond to this inward change with outward actions that manifest the presence of God flowing through us.

Prayer, and prayers answered, will change us, just as the Transfiguration changed the visage of Jesus

~ Deacon Bill
