"Who do you say that I am?" Jesus asks his apostles. Peter is the first to answer. He knows who Jesus is. Do we? In everything we do and everything we are, let us say together with Peter: "You are the Christ, the Son of the Living God."

FR. DON'S MUSINGS

I was away the last 5 days at a family reunion. I'm exhausted, extraverted out, and happy! I am blessed with a great family. The family consists of my sister, 3 brothers, spouses, children and grandchildren. My 99 year old dad (who helped build the cabin when he was a teenager) wasn't able to join us but we still had 15 of us sitting around the picnic table. It's especially fun to play with the children (ages 3-8); with no electricity or cell coverage, they play the same ways that I did when I was their age at the cabin (pinecone wars, treks through the woods, swimming, Tonka trucks...). Good times!

This week our teachers will return to get ready for all the students next week. John and Malcolm (our dedicated maintenance crew) have been busy all summer giving the school and preschool a deep cleaning. They've painted the walls, waxed the floors, scrubbed everything, plus we've installed new carpet in the library and music room. It's sparkling clean over there! This week our preschool and school teachers will all be receiving their in-service training. The preschool enrollment is full and the school has the highest enrollment in years. We are gearing up for another great year.

Enjoy these last days of summer, and let's keep praying for one another.

REFLECT AND RESPOND TO TODAY'S SCRIPTURE

For disobeying the Lord, Shebna, the master of King Hezekiah's palace, is stripped of his authority and honor, and it is given to Eliakim. Are there people in your life or family that you honor and revere?

2nd Reading

Reflecting on the unimaginable depth of God's wisdom and knowledge, Paul asks, "Who has known the mind of the Lord or who has been his counselor?" What question do you have for the Lord?

THIS AND THAT FROM DEACON BILL

A HEAVENLY CORONATION: MARY, QUEEN OF HEAVEN AND EARTH

This Saturday, August 22, Catholics celebrate the Memorial of the Queenship of Mary. This special day honors Mary with the foundational signifier: Mother of God.

Following are some thoughts from the "Liturgy of the Hours," authored by French Cistercian monk and Bishop St. Amadeus of Lausanne (1110-1159). Amadeus is noted for his great Christian empathy, and his writings on the Virgin Mary.

"Observe how fitting it was that even before her assumption the name of Mary shone wondrously throughout the world. Her fame spread everywhere, even before she was raised above the heavens in her magnificence. Because of the honor of her Son, it was fitting for the Virgin Mother to have first ruled upon earth then be raised up to heaven in glory.

"Fitting that her fame spread in the world below, so that she might enter the heights of heaven in overwhelming blessedness. Just as she was born from virtue to virtue by the Spirit of the Lord, she was transported from earthly renown to heavenly brightness. So it was that she began to taste the fruits of her future reign while still in the flesh.

"At one moment she withdrew to God in ecstasy; at the next she would bend down to her neighbors with indescribable love. In heaven, angels served her. Gabriel and the angels waited upon her. On earth she was venerated by the service of man.

John the Apostle, rejoicing that Mary was entrusted to him on the day of Christ's crucifixion, "cared for her with the other apostles" at the foot of the cross on Mount Golgotha.

That day, a day that would change the course of human history, "the angels rejoiced to see their queen; the apostles rejoiced to see their lady. Both obeyed her with loving devotion.

"Dwelling in the loftiest citadel of virtue, like a sea of divine grace or unfathomable source of love that has overflowed its banks, Mary poured forth her beautiful waters on trusting and thirsting souls. Able to preserve both flesh and spirit from death, she bestowed health-giving salve on bodies and souls. Has anyone ever come away from her troubled, or saddened, or ignorant of heavenly mysteries? Who has not returned to everyday life gladdened and joyful because his or her request had been granted by the Mother of God?

"She is a bride, so gentle and affectionate, and the mother of the only true bridegroom. In her abundant goodness she has channeled the spring of reason's garden, the well of living and life-giving waters that pour forth in a rushing stream from the divine Lebanon, and flow down from Mount Zion until they surround the shores of every far-flung nation. With divine assistance she has redirected these waters, transforming them into streams of peace and pools of grace."

Amadeus's conclusion rings with the awesome power of Mary's divine queenship:

"When the Virgin of virgins was led forth by God and her Son, the King of Kings, amidst the company of exulting angels and rejoicing archangels, the heavens ringing with praise, {the poetic prophecy of Psalm 45-9} was fulfilled."

At your right hand stands the queen, clothed in the gold of Ophir. --
