15th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Our hearts are fertile ground for the Word of God, but we must be careful gardeners. Be conscious of what damages and depletes the soil of your heart. Pay attention to what nourishes it, so that the goodness of the Word can bloom forth into the world. ©LPi

Fr. Don's Musings . . .

I hope you all had good 4th of July celebrations last week. We have a lot to be thankful for as Americans.

Unfortunately our USA soccer team didn't advance in the World Cup this week. I have never seen Americans so excited about soccer as we have been the past few weeks.

As I'm writing this I am getting ready to go the St. Clare Campout. This is another event that sets St. Clare apart from other churches. Our Junque and Jewels sale is the biggest Catholic Church rummage sale in Oregon and our St. Clare Campout is the biggest Catholic Church campout in Oregon.

We have 79 campsites at Ft. Stevens State Park (by Astoria). We always have some families double up in campsites so there are more than 79 St. Clare families attending, plus some families come out just for the day. Always lots of children and lots of bikes. It is a super fun time! There will be a beach party at the lake, pictures at the shipwreck on the ocean beach, nerf battle at the old battery and of course the outdoor Mass. There's always LOTS of good food and good conversations. The outdoor Mass is one of my favorite Masses of the year: after a day of fun with fellow parishioners we gather at 4pm on Saturday in the amphitheater to worship our awesome God. It's a very casual but uplifting Mass as we praise God for all the beauty and blessings around us.

Let's keep praying for one another.

~Fr. Don

Heavenly Father,
As many of our parishioners enjoy camping and time
in the beauty of Your creation this week,
keep them safe in their travels.
May the mountains, forests, river, and skies remind them of Your greatness and love.
Grant them restful days, joyful moments with family and friends, and hearts that draw closer to You.
Bring them home refreshed, renewed, and grateful for the gift of Your creation.
We ask this through Christ our Lord,
AMEN

Leo XIV Letters 2026

LETTER OF HIS HOLINESS POPE LEO XIV
ON THE 250th ANNIVERSARY OF THE FOUNDING OF
THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

I extend my heartfelt congratulations to all Americans on the occasion of the 250th anniversary of the signing of the Declaration of Independence. This semiquincentennial marks that defining moment in the history of the United States of America, July 4, 1776, that gave enduring voice to the ideals of liberty, equality, the pursuit of happiness, justice and democratic self-government.

For two and a half centuries, generations of Americans have worked together to carry these principles forward — through sacrifice, service, innovation and civic participation. This anniversary stands as an invitation not only to celebrate the nation's remarkable journey, but also to reflect upon the responsibilities that the sons and daughters of this country bear to one another, and to the generations who will inherit the nation that is being shaped today.

Among the most cherished of these principles is religious freedom—the right of every person to worship according to conscience and to practice their faith openly, without coercion or fear. In marking this anniversary, it is important to recognize that freedom of religion has long been central to the American promise, protecting both individual dignity and the peaceful coexistence of a diverse people.

This same freedom has permitted the Catholic Church to take root and flourish within the United States, to the advantage not only of her own members, but of the entire nation. As faithful sons and daughters of the Church, Catholics are called to imbue every dimension of their existence with the charity of Christ (cf. 2 Cor 5:14), living out the Gospel in the circumstances of daily life. Such a way of living has given rise to the many benefits that the Church has provided over the years to the development of this nation. In particular, I bring to mind her service in areas of education, the preferential care of the poor, healthcare and basic social services, to name a few.

In the Encyclical Sapientiae-Chrjstjanae4 my predecessor Pope-Leo-XJII wrote that "no better citizen is there... than the Christian who is mindful of his duty" (no. 7). In fact, faith — far from standing in opposition to the responsibilities of citizenship — lends new vigor to the pursuit of justice, peace and the common good, bringing to perfection every natural gift bestowed by the Creator. Saint Paul himself encouraged the early Christians to pray for those in positions of authority in order to live a peaceful life in accord with the will of God (cf. 1 Tim 2:2). In this regard, it is in the faithful fulfilment of duty — to God and country — that Catholics are called to continue to serve the nation, as leaven for the growth of a civilization of love (cf. Mt 13:33).

Also among the principles that have guided the development of this country is the God-given dignity of every human life, each person being endowed with an inherent worth that calls for reverence, protection and care. In this spirit, a full understanding of this dignity leads to recognizing the importance of safeguarding human life from its beginning at conception until natural death, and of building a society in which the vulnerable, the suffering and the forgotten are always met with compassion, solidarity and love.

Defending human life also includes welcoming, protecting and assisting immigrants, whose hopes, sacrifices and contribution have formed part of the history of this country from its very beginning. In every generation, those who have arrived seeking freedom, opportunity and a place to belong have helped to shape the nation's character. To receive them with compassion and generosity is not only an act of charity, but also a recognition of the dignity that belongs to every human person.

In my recent Encyclical Letter, Magnifica Humanitas I wrote about working together for the common good. "Building a world in which everyone can flourish requires shared responsibility and courage. No one can single-handedly bear the weight of the challenges the world is facing" (no. 13). We need one another, and we need to work together in unity to confront the challenges that the world is facing today.

May this milestone renew the shared commitment to the promise of freedom, justice, opportunity and democracy. May Americans honor the courage and vision of those who came before them by strengthening their communities, respecting their differences and working together toward a more perfect union.

Congratulations on this extraordinary national anniversary. May the spirit of 1776 continue to inspire hope and unity as the United States of America moves into the future. In assuring all of you of my prayers in your renewed efforts to strengthen the nation in the principles that guided its Founding Fathers, I entrust you to the intercession of the Immaculate Conception, patroness of this country, that she will continue to watch over America and protect all who dwell therein.

“This and That ”from Deacon Bill . . . “Put God Before Everything...”

On Saturday, July 11, Catholics celebrate the feast of St. Benedict of Nursia (480-547) an Abbot and founder of the Order of St. Benedict, wrote a rule that the Benedictine monks follow to this day. Here’s an excerpt from the full text of the rule:

“Put Christ before everything. Whenever you begin any good work, first make a most pressing appeal to Christ our Lord to bring it to perfection. [Ask] that he, who has honored us by counting us among his children, may never be grieved by our evil deeds. For we must always serve him with the good things he has given us in such a way that he may never grow impatient with our sins and consign us to everlasting punishment, like the wicked servants who would not follow him to glory.

Source: The Southern Cross

“So, we should at long last, rouse ourselves from sleep, prompted by the words of Scripture: Now is the time for us to rise from sleep. Our eyes should be open to God-given light, and we should listen in wonderment to the message of his divine voice as it daily cries out. Today, if you hear his voice, harden not your hearts. If anyone has ears to hear, let him listen to what the Spirit is saying to the churches. What does the Spirit say? Come my sons and listen to me; I will teach you the fear of the Lord. Hurry, while you have the light of life, so that death’s darkness may not overtake you.

“The Lord, as he seeks the one who does his work among the throng of people to whom he makes that appeal, says again: Which of you wants to live to the full? Who loves long life and enjoyment or prosperity? If when you hear this, you say, I do. God says to you: if you desire true and everlasting life, keep your tongue from evil and your lips from deceit. Turn from evil and do good; seek peace and pursue it. When you do these things, my eyes will be upon you and my ears will be attentive to your prayers. Before you call upon my name, I shall say to you: Behold, I am here. What could be more delightful, dearest brothers, than the voice of our Lord’s invitation to us? In his loving kindness He reveals to us the way of life.

“There exists an evil fervor, a bitter spirit, which divides us from God and leads us to hell. There is a good fervor, which sets us apart from evil inclinations and leads us toward God and eternal life. Monks should put this good fervor into practice with an overflowing love. They should surpass each other in mutual esteem, accept their weakness, either of body or behavior, with the utmost patience; and vie with each other in according to requests. No one should follow what he considers to be good for himself, but rather what seems good for another. They should display brotherly love in a chaste manner. Fear God in a spirit of love; respect their brother abbots with genuine and submissive affection.

“Put Christ before all else. May he lead us all to everlasting life.

As we pause to reflect on the life and works of the great St. Benedict, recall that there are over four hundred Benedictine monasteries around the world. They shelter about eight thousand monks and sixteen thousand nuns. Our own Mount Angels Abbey, founded in 1882, is such a monastery. The monks assigned to Mount Angel gather six times each day for prayer. The abbey—about an hour from Portland in the town of Mount Angel— welcomes visitors, and is well worth the trip.

Broken Pieces

A vessel once broken is mended
The Spirit has lifted me up
Don't let me take over and sink, Lord
When its me I always mess up
I'm one of your difficult children
And yet still you hold out your hand.

Your grace has saved me so often
You'd think I would now understand
Please help me to open my mind Lord
To hear all Your Holy words.

With your Love my vessel is mended
The Spirit has shown me the Way
I will grow from your Wisdom and Caring
Striving ever towards you everyday.

The vessel once broken, is mended
The Spirit has lifted me up
Don't let me take over and sink Lord
You are always there holding my hand.

Thank you for not giving up, Lord
What's broken is once again whole
Again I resist, and YOU save me
I'm thankful for all that you do
For your Patience and all of your Blessings
Your Gift always brings to you
