FR. DON'S MUSINGS

I love summer time! Unlike a lot of native Oregonians, I love HOT weather. I also enjoy fresh produce and my garden is producing more than I can eat now. And I enjoy the wild blackberries too: I have blackberry cobbler with chocolate peanutbutter cup ice cream for dessert most nights. Good stuff!

The church schedule has slowed down some so I'm down to 40 hour weeks for a while, that feels good too. My morning prayer time at the river is especially nice, often the sun is shining on me, and I always finish with a swim in the river, the water is up to 75 degrees, very comfortable.

I hope your summer is going well. We often have very busy lives and it is important to take a break and enjoy some leisure time. I hope you are finding some leisure time this summer. It is easy to fill our lives full of activities but sometimes we just need to relax. Enjoy the "good ol' summertime"!

Let's keep praying for one another.

~ Fr. Don

THIS AND THAT FROM DEACON BILL

MARTHA, MARY, AND A MIRACLE

On Wednesday, July 29, Catholics celebrate a feast that was initially focused on Martha, sister of one of the most significant personages in the New Testament and in all of biblical theology, Lazarus, he who was restored to life in one of the great miracles of Jesus. In 2021, Pope Francis expanded the feast day to include Lazarus himself, and his other sister, Mary. The three siblings were Jesus' good friends. They lived in Bethany, less than two miles from Jerusalem, the sacred site of Jesus' ministry, crucifixion, and resurrection. There are two passages in the Bible that document occasions where Jesus visited them, but I am sure there were many more times that he enjoyed their hospitality.

Here are some thoughts from St Augustine on this feast day.

"Our Lord's words teach us that though we labor among many distractions of this world, we should have but on goal. For we are travelers on a journey without as yet a fixed abode, we are on our way, not yet in our native land; we are in the state of longing, not yet of enjoyment. But let us continue on our way and continue without sloth and respite so that we may ultimately arrive at our destination."

Martha and Mary were sisters, related not only by blood, but also by religious faith and aspirations. They stayed close to Jesus, and served him harmoniously when he was among them.

St. Augustine reflects on Martha's hospitality: "Martha welcomed him as travelers are welcomed, saying, 'For the Lord willed to put on the form of a slave, and under this form to be fed by his servants, out of condescension and not out of need'. Since Jesus was in the flesh, he would in fact be hungry and thirsty."

St. Augustine continues: "But you, Martha, if I may say so, are blessed for your good service, and for your labors you seek the reward of peace. Now you are much occupied in nourishing the body, admittedly a holy one (Jesus). But when you come to the heavenly homeland will you find a traveler to welcome, someone hungry to feed, or thirsty to whom you may give drink, someone ill you could visit, or quarreling whom you could console, or dead whom you could bury? No, there will be none of these tasks there. What you will find there is what Mary chose. There we shall not feed others, we ourselves will be fed.

Thus, what Mary chose in this life will be realized there in its fullness; she was gathering fragments from that rich banquet, the Word of God. Do you wish to know what we will have there? The Lord himself tells us when he says of his servants, Amen, I say to you, he will make them recline and passing he will serve them."

Let us look back now, as we celebrate the feast of these important biblical figures, to the dramatic moment in John 11 where Lazarus has died. "When Jesus arrived, he found that Lazarus had already been in the tomb for four days...When Martha heard that Jesus was coming, she went out to meet him; but Mary sat at home. Martha said to Jesus, 'Lord if you had been here, my brother would not have died.'... Jesus said to her, 'Your brother will rise.' Martha said to him, 'I know he will rise, in the resurrection on the last day.'

What follows in the Gospel are two verses that I personally believe are key to our commitment to the path of Christianity: Jesus tells Martha, "I am the resurrection and the life; whoever believe in me, even if he dies will live, and everyone who lives and believes in me will never die. Do you believe this?" Yes Lord, I have come to believe" Martha replied. Soon thereafter, her brother was risen from the dead.

What if Jesus asked this question to us today? Would we be able to answer as Martha did? Our gift of faith helps us to do so.

As we reflect on the feast dedicated to these storied siblings, think back to when it was, where you were, and, importantly, who might have first inspired you to find the words of belief and faith.

Say a prayer for that person.

~ Deacon Bill

Stories, memories,
and a few laughs
from fellow car enthusiasts

And don't worry—this isn't a competition.
No judges. No pressure. Just good people, great stories, and plenty of horsepower.

As Catholics, we believe God can use ordinary things to bring people together.
Sometimes that happens through prayer.
Sometimes through friendship. And sometimes through a beautifully restored '63 Galaxie.

So invite a friend, a neighbor, a family member, or that guy down the street who spends every Saturday polishing his car.

We can't wait to welcome you!
