McGowan Secures Major Political Endorsement

House Majority Leader Steve Scalise Backs McGowan for Iowa's 4th District

SIOUX CITY, IA — Support continues to grow for Chris McGowan's America First, Iowa Always campaign as national Republican leaders line up behind his bid for Congress.

House Majority Leader Steve Scalise (R-La.), the second-highest ranking Republican in the U.S. House of Representatives, announced his endorsement of Chris McGowan for Iowa's 4th Congressional District today, underscoring McGowan's momentum in the race for the open seat.

“Chris McGowan has spent decades advocating for his community,” said House Majority Leader Steve Scalise. “He’s a veteran and a business leader who understands what Iowa’s farmers, job creators, and working families need. Chris will be an effective advocate for Iowa’s 4th District, our veterans, and our farmers — and a strong supporter of the America First agenda in Congress.”

McGowan thanked Leader Scalise for his endorsement and emphasized the importance of conservative leadership that delivers results.

“I’m honored to have the support of Leader Scalise,” McGowan said. “He’s a proven conservative leader, and I look forward to working with him to advance an America First agenda that strengthens our economy, supports our farmers, and puts Iowa values first in Washington.”

A military veteran and longtime business advocate, McGowan has built one of the strongest grassroots and fundraising operations in the country, demonstrating broad support across Iowa’s 4th District.

McGowan is also endorsed by House Majority Whip Tom Emmer, House Judiciary Committee Chairman Jim Jordan, Navy SEAL and American hero Robert O’Neill, and legendary Iowa coach and Olympic gold medalist Dan Gable.
