Procedures for Scheduling Baptisms

1. Parents should either be registered and contributing members of Corpus Christi Parish or have permission from their home parish to have their child baptized at Corpus Christi.
2. Since welcoming new Christians into the Church through baptism, is a community event, we do not schedule private baptisms.
3. Documents needed:
 - Baptismal Data Register Form (completed)
 - Birth Certificate for the child to be baptized
 - Church Marriage Certificate of parents
 - If parents are not married through the Catholic church, they are required to set up a meeting with one of the Deacons. Their contact information can be found on our parish website.
 - Godparents Affirmation Form - Provide declaration of each godparent that they fulfill the requirements of Canon Law (CC.874 & 893) to be a godparent (two forms attached).
 - i. If they are married, they should be married in the Catholic Church
 - ii. If they are single, they should have received the Sacrament of Confirmation
 - iii. Godparents should be in good standing with and active members of the Catholic church.
4. Parents and godparents must take a MANDATORY Baptismal Preparation Seminar. This Seminar is in person and is offered in English and in Spanish from 7pm-8pm at the church. To register, please email the coordinator.

The second Tuesday of every month is offered in English.
The third Wednesday of every month is offered in Spanish.
5. Please take the documents to the Parish Office or email them to the coordinator.

BAPTISMS WILL ONLY BE SCHEDULED ONCE ALL PROCEDURES HAVE BEEN COMPLETED.
6. The requested donation to the church is $100 for registered parishioners and $150 for those who are not registered. This should be given to the parish office when the date of the baptism has been set. Payments will NOT be accepted prior the completion of the packet. We will only accept payments once all of the required documents and the packet is complete and present.
7. Baptisms are scheduled on Sundays at 2:30 p.m.
 - First and second Sundays of each month in ENGLISH
 - Third Sunday in SPANISH
