These prices are effective as of November 11, 2026, and may be subject to change without notice.

The Federal Trade Commission (FTC) and the New York State Department of Health both require that certain disclosures be made by the funeral providers on the General Price List. Although these disclosures are similar, they are not exactly the same. This General Price List contains both sets of the required disclosures. The disclosures required by the FTC, when different from those required by the Department of Health, are preceded by the letters "FTC"

The goods and services shown below are those we can provide our families. You may choose only the items you desire. However, any funeral arrangements you select will include a charge for our services. If legal or other requirements mean you must buy any items you did not specifically ask for, we will explain the reason in writing on the statement we provide describing the funeral services and merchandise you selected.

This list may not include prices for certain items that you selected, such as cemetery, crematory, flowers, or newspaper charges. The estimated or final prices for these items will be shown on the itemized statement describing the funeral services and merchandise you selected. We charge you for our services in buying certain items.

Alternative Charges:

The following charges for direct burial and direct cremation do not include additional items or services, merchandise, facility use and livery that the family may wish to select.

Direct Cremation:

Prices Range From: $ 1,590

Which includes the local transfer of remains to the funeral home, staff services, which include securing of the necessary authorizations, basic local transportation to the crematory, an alternative container for cremation (unlined minimum cardboard container), and the return of cremains to the funeral home.

To: $ 1,390

Which includes the services as described above, but with the cremation container furnished by the family.

If you want to arrange for a direct cremation, you may use an unfinished wooden box, or an alternative container. Alternative containers may be made of heavy cardboard, pressed wood or composition materials (with or without side coverings), or may be pouches of canvas or other materials.

The direct cremation charge does not include the crematory charge.

(FTC) "If you want to arrange for a direct cremation, you can use an unfinished wood box, or an alternative container. Alternative containers can be made of materials like heavy cardboard or composition materials (with of without side covering), or pouches of canvas."

In New York State embalming is not required by law. If you do not want embalming, you have the right to choose an arrangement which does not require you to pay for embalming, such as direct cremation or direct burial. If you select funeral arrangements, such as viewing or open casket funeral, embalming may be required by the funeral firm.

(FTC) "Except in special cases, embalming is not required by law. Embalming may be necessary, however, if you select certain funeral arrangements, such as a funeral with viewing. If you do not choose an arrangement which does not require you pay for it, such as direct cremation or direct burial."

Other Preparation (Excluding Embalming)

Preparation of remains, unless selected, is not required for direct cremation or direct burial.
