

RACHEL LETTRE

nominated by Rob Lamar

Rachel as the ATC Mid-Atlantic regional director demonstrated excellent initiative and leadership steering several long lingering projects to completion this year, including a much needed trail assessment contract for the AT section between Snickers Gap and Raven Rock and the plans for an ADA compliant moldering privy for use throughout trail lands in Virginia and, hopefully the entire PATC footprint.

Rachel's management of these projects was timely and much appreciated.

