Vision of the Seas

June 3-12, 2027

10 DAYS * ALL MEALS ONBOARD SHIP Join Shenandoah Tours for a world of enjoyment aboard Royal Caribbean's Vision of the Seas! This nine-night cruise departs Baltimore, Maryland, bound for the island of Bermuda located 600 miles off of North Carolina's coast. Our ship docks at Royal Naval Dockyard, Bermuda, then continues to Nassau and Bimini, Bahamas.

BERMUDA

Bermuda is a string of islands 21 miles long and 2 miles wide. The mainland is a graceful chain of seven islands joined by roads and bridges. We're sure to fall in love with the courteous, British-accented people whose smiles are as warm as the Bermuda sun. The surrounding sea is a perfect deep blue-green and the sands are a delicate shell-pink. Bermuda's Capital, Hamilton, is a latticework of pastel homes surrounded by tropical flowers, old world carriages and clusters of shops filled with fine bone china, Irish linens and Scottish tweeds.

NASSAU, BAHAMAS

Welcome...stretches of beaches and swaying coconut palms offer an oasis of shade, and warm, crystal clear waters reveal the secrets of incredible marine life. Whether shopping for duty-free gifts and mementos or relaxing by blue waters on pink sand beaches, chances are we'll leave this happy place with many beautiful memories.

BIMINI, BAHAMAS

Bimini is primarily a beach destination. If you want to explore independently, rent a golf cart or set out with food (and plenty of water to stay hydrated) and explore the island. The complimentary tram service runs from the pier to a private resort, the casino and a shopping and dining area.

In Brandywine Valley we'll view holiday displays at Nemours, the country Estate of Alfred duPont; experience the beauty of winter at spectacular Longwood Gardens; and visit Winterthur Museum and Gardens. A wonderful time is in store for us on this Yuletide Tour.

Day 1 - Tuesday - December 7
Travel to Pennsylvania
American Music Theatre Show

Good Morning! Winter is in the air as we travel north to enjoy delightful Christmas treasures. Our first stop will be in Lancaster for lunch at the Bird-in-Hand Family Restaurant. On to American Music Theatre - prepare to be swept away by the wonderful stage production, Home for the Holidays. This show features vocalists, dancers, musicians, stunning costumes, and elaborate sets all celebrating the spirit of the season. Later we'll travel to the heart of Brandywine Valley where accommodations await at the excellent Mendenhall Inn. Enjoy a free evening for individual interests. (L)

Day 2 - Wednesday - December 8
Nemours / Buckley's Tavern
Longwood Gardens

Enjoy a morning visit to Nemours, the country estate of Alfred duPont, built to resemble a French Chateau. At Christmastime this magnificent 77-room mansion is transformed into a holiday wonderland adorned with exquisite decorations, festive trees, and twinkling lights. It's a Christmas extravaganza! An included lunch will be enjoyed at nearby Buckley's Tavern, a favorite local restaurant. Bundle up this evening - we're headed for Longwood Gardens where a half million lights come aglow. Stroll through pathways adorned with trees, and view the conservatories with over four acres of seasonal decorations and displays. The sights and smells will fill us with delight as we enjoy this amazing evening. (B,L)

Day 3 - Thursday - December 9
Winterthur / Travel Home

This morning we step into Winterthur, the magnificent Henry Francis duPont estate with its 175-room home adorned with holiday finery, illuminated trees, and breathtaking decorations all reminiscent of the holiday traditions of centuries past. After lunch on our own we'll board the coach for the trip home. (B)
