OCTOBER QUILT SOCIAL IS CANCELLED

The October quilt social will be cancelled. We will have two quilt drawings at our next quilt social, which will be held Sunday, Nov. 22nd, and hosted by the D of I.

We are in need of hosts for quilt socials in the months of February and March 2027. If your group would be interested in hosting, or if you have a small group that would like to combine with another small group to host, please contact Tammy at the Catholic Ministry Center at 812-547-7994.

UNITED WAY Perry County | UNITED we CAN FOOD DRIVE

United Way of Perry County is gearing up for their 3rd Annual United We Can, a community-wide food drive hosted by United Way of Perry County benefiting the Perry County Food Coalition!
Our local food pantries are currently seeing record numbers of families in need, and historically, that need increases dramatically as we head into the holiday season. United We Can is our way of bringing the community together to help stock the shelves before the holidays.

How you can help:

Donate canned goods by dropping them off by November 1st in the designated box in the St. Paul Narthex. All canned goods will be donated to local families in need. Together, we CAN help!
