QUAD PARISH INFORMATION

On Sunday, May 10, Lexi Lain and Lydia Hollinden were award the Christus Vivit award. The words Christus Vivit mean “Christ is Alive,” and these two seniors have reflected that truth in the way they live their faith each and every day. Through their dedication to teaching religious education, their involvement in their parishes, and their leadership within our IMPACT youth group, they have become beautiful examples of missionary discipleship. Congratulations Lexi and Lydia!

Start planning your trip today!
Visit versoministries.com/stpaul-tellcity-wyd

Our Totus Tuus program is quickly approaching, and we are preparing to welcome many children and teens for a week of faith, fun, and formation centered on the Ten Commandments and the Luminous Mysteries. Throughout the week, we will provide daily lunches and snacks for over 100 participants.

To help make this possible, we have created a donation board at St. Paul Catholic Church located in the Narthex, with specific items needed. Simply take a tab, purchase the item, and return it to the parish.

If you are unable to visit St. Paul but would still like to help, please contact the parish office or stop in during office hours. Your generosity helps make this ministry possible—thank you!

Dear Parishioners,

From May 14-30, I will be in Bolivia to prepare for climbing Mount Everest in 2030. The height of these mountains in Bolivia (20,000ft+) require a long process of acclimatization to the altitude, hence the longer duration of this trip. We hope to climb several mountains, I will spend the whole time with a team of mountain guides and experienced climbers, so I expect our safe return. Visiting priests will cover the weekend masses, and Fr. Steve will take on some extra weekday masses. I am grateful for their help, and I look forward to being back with you all soon!
