HELP NEEDED FOR BACKPACK DELIVERY

Dear Parishioners of St. Paul, St. Mark, St. Michael and St. Pius V. :

The Ministry of Charity delivers bags of food once a month to all three school systems in Perry County. The food goes to kids from food insecure homes so they have nourishment over the weekends during the school year. About 100 kids depend on this food each weekend.

We are looking for volunteers that can help with this ministry. Tri State Food Bank has a semi deliver to William Tell Elementary on the third Tuesday of each month around 8:00 a.m. Volunteers unload pallets and reload crates of bags into individual trucks and/or trailers. Each truck is then sent to separate schools. Current volunteers have been: Danny Tapley, Bruce Chinn and Jim Tyler. But due to injuries, illness, vacations, and grandparenting, we are in need of a few more hands.

Please call Louann Oberhausen at 812-547-7563 or the church office at 812-547-7994 if you have questions or are willing to be a monthly or a substitute volunteer. Of course, we thank all of you who have donated to the Backpack Program or who have prayed for the children who need our help.
