Things to Do Out & About

Cullen Bay Beach Across the road from the Marina is one of the most beautiful locations in Darwin. The manicured lawns (popular for weddings!) and beach are the best place to relax and watch the sunset. Take a rug or chairs and some takeaway from one of the local restaurants and enjoy the evening breeze and view. In dry season, May – September, we run Sunset Sounds, live music every Sunday evening.

Mindil Beach Casino Located only 1.6km away on Gilruth Avenue, a 3-minute drive or 20-minute walk. Enjoy an ice-cold beverage, some entertainment, or a tasty meal at one of the restaurants. The Infinity Pool, open Thu – Sun afternoons is the perfect place to sip on cocktails whilst lazing by the pool.

George Brown Botanic Gardens Located only 4km away (7minute drive). The gardens cover 42 hectares and are noted for their collections of north Australian and other tropical plant species. Why not check it out, its free of charge! It also has a great little café for your coffee or cold drink fix.

Mindil Beach Sunset Markets Literally a 10-minute walk from Cullen Bay. Hel on Thursday & Sundays in the dry season, April – October. Experience the taste of five different continents, purchase handmade craft, art, and jewellery, enjoy live entertainment, and pop down to the beach for another stunning sunset.

Museum & Art Gallery of Northern Territory The biggest museum in Darwin, it displays items of Aboriginal history, more recent history and modern development. Featuring a realistic exhibition of the effects of cyclone Tracy and all free of charge, this makes for a fascinating visit, The Museum is only 3km away (5minute drive). If you are after breakfast or lunch, check out the garden café and its view.

Nightcliff Pool 11.5km away situated right on the waterfront has a 50m pool and a kiddies pool and a great café next door. The pools run aquatic classes as well.
