CALLED TO SPREAD HOPE: WORLD MISSION SUNDAY 2025

World Mission Sunday is a sacred occasion, an International Day of Prayer and solidarity with the Church's missionary efforts worldwide. It is a celebration that unites Catholics everywhere into one universal community of faith. On this day, we renew our baptismal call to be missionary disciples through fervent prayer, active participation in the Eucharist, and generous support of the annual collection for the Society for the Propagation of the Faith.

The theme for World Mission Sunday 2025, "Missionaries of Hope Among All Peoples," invites each of us, individually and collectively, to walk in the footsteps of Christ. We are called to be messengers of hope, bearers of love, and instruments of peace in a world longing for healing and grace.

A Brief History

The origins of World Mission Sunday can be traced back to Blessed Pauline Jaricot, a visionary laywoman of 19th-century France, who mobilized prayer and financial support for the Church's missionary outreach. In 1822, she founded a model of mission support that would eventually be embraced by the universal Church.

In 1926, Pope Pius XI formally established World Mission Sunday and designated the Society for the Propagation of the Faith as one of the Pontifical Mission Societies. Today, this annual celebration stands as a powerful sign of Catholic communion and global solidarity, coordinated by the very society Pauline inspired.

What Happens on World Mission Sunday?

On this special day, we join our Holy Father in supporting his missionary efforts around the world. It is the only global collection mandated by Canon Law (Canon 791.4), underscoring its importance in the life of the Church.

Through prayer and financial support, we extend the mercy of the Lord to vulnerable communities served by the Pope's missions. World Mission Sunday is a joyful affirmation of our shared identity as missionaries by virtue of our baptism. It offers each of us a chance to sustain the Church's life-giving presence among the poor, the forgotten, and the marginalized.

How Can You Help?

Give generously to the World Mission Sunday collection. Share the message on social media to raise awareness. Speak with friends and family about the impact of their generosity. Pray for missionaries and those they serve, that they may be strengthened in faith and hope. Your support brings God's love, mercy, and peace to those most in need.

More Than a Collection

World Mission Sunday is not merely a second collection; it is the Church's annual invitation to place mission and evangelization at the heart of our lives and parish communities. It reminds us that every Catholic, by baptism, is a missionary disciple. Indeed, our own nation was once a mission territory, sustained by the very generosity we are now privileged to offer.

Through the Society for the Propagation of the Faith, your contributions support pastoral and catechetical programs, church construction, healthcare, and education in mission territories. Let us respond together with one heart and one spirit as missionaries of hope among all peoples.

A Universal Call

As members of the Catholic Church, which is universal by its very nature, we are invited to participate actively in this sacred mission. Our prayers and offerings on World Mission Sunday empower the Church's vital work of evangelization and proclaim the Gospel to every corner of the earth.

Let us unite in prayer for the success of missionary efforts and for all those who dedicate their lives to spreading the Good News. Your generosity is a radiant witness to the love and compassion that lie at the heart of our faith.

St. Joseph Catholic School

Our Christ in the Classroom Retreat last month allowed a beautiful opportunity to reflect on the true mission of our school.

Our faculty retreat, centered on The Sacramental Nature of Catholic Schools, invited teachers and staff to rediscover the sacred dimension of their daily work and relationships. Rooted in the second task of catechesis, Initiating into the Celebration of the Mystery, the retreat guided us to see our classrooms, community, and routines as living expressions of God's grace. Through reflection on sacraments, community, symbols, and prayer, we deepened our understanding that Catholic education is not only about teaching faith but embodying it in every encounter and action. Our goal of becoming truly sacramental means striving to make God's presence visible in the ordinary rhythms of school life through joy, gratitude, service, and genuine love for one another.

PARTNERS
IN THE GOSPEL

The listening sessions are a way to hear from us, the people of God, as a way of listening to the Holy Spirit. What challenges in our community and our parish and what opportunities does he want us to see? Together, we can hear Him. Every session is directly after either a Mass or a time of adoration. We highly encourage you to come early and spend time listening in front of the Eucharist, or to spend time at home listening to the Holy Spirit as you prepare your input. Thank you.

Here are the questions that will be discussed at the listening sessions, if you would like to think about them ahead of time:

Round One: What challenges do you see that exist in the wider community? An example could be having a large homeless or undocumented immigrant population with specific needs.

Round Two: What challenges do you see that exist in the parish? An example could be having several families with teenagers but not being able to hire a youth minister.

Round Three: Having heard information from the community demographics report, what opportunities do you see (in our parish and in the wider community) to more effectively serve and accompany others? Is there anybody that we can do a better job of reaching?

“What Are Our Gifts and Viability Synthesis Report”!

We are happy to release the “What Are Our Gifts and Viability Synthesis Report”! Thank you to everyone who participated in our parish family survey. This Synthesis Report reflects the results of the survey. The Parish Family Advisory Council received the comments and feedback that were included with the surveys but were outside of the scope of the survey questions. We truly appreciate your input! To read the synthesis of the survey responses as well as other viability data about our parish family please visit our parish family website! Physical copies are also available at each church location.

Special Collection for World Mission Sunday

This weekend every parish across the globe joins together for the only worldwide collection mandated by Canon Law—World Mission Sunday! Your generosity next weekend supports the Pope's missions in more than 1,124 territories where the Church is young or struggling.

This year's theme—"Missionaries of Hope Among the Peoples"—is a call to embody the love of God, poured into our hearts by the Holy Spirit (cf. Rom 5:5). Your offering provides hope where despair too often dominates—through the building of churches, formation of seminarians and religious sisters, healthcare clinics, and Catholic schools.

Thank you for responding with faith, love, and generosity. As Pope Francis told us, "Each of us is a mission on this earth" (Evangelii Gaudium, 273). Together, we share in that mission by ensuring that no one is excluded from the invitation to encounter Christ.

To learn more please visit pontificalmissions.org/wms.
