01 / Discover Washington County

Southern Utah offers a range of lifestyles—from a lively regional hub to small-town neighborhoods, mountain communities and rural open space. Explore the places below, then compare them in person at different times of day.

COMMUNITY	GET TO KNOW IT
St. George	Regional center for shopping, healthcare, dining, entertainment and established neighborhoods.
Washington	Growing residential areas, parks and access to the St. George–Hurricane corridor.
Hurricane	Outdoor recreation, golf and access to Sand Hollow and nearby reservoirs.
Ivins	Red-rock setting, arts and access to Snow Canyon and Tuacahn.
Santa Clara	Scenic residential areas and community amenities near western St. George.
La Verkin & Toquerville	Smaller-town feel with access to regional outdoor recreation.
Springdale & Rockville	Gateway communities near Zion National Park.
Pine Valley & Dammeron Valley	Higher-elevation scenery, cooler seasons and a quieter pace.
Enterprise & Veyo	Rural lifestyle, open space and a more small-community setting.

Start with these local orientation resources

02 / Neighborhood & Community Guide

Each community has its own character. These brief descriptions are starting points—not guarantees about price, availability, amenities or HOA rules. Verify details for the specific property and association.

A quick neighborhood comparison

AREA	GENERAL LIFESTYLE	GOOD QUESTIONS TO ASK
Little Valley	Residential, parks and family-oriented amenities.	Which parks, schools and commute routes serve this address?
Desert Color	Planned community with resort-style features and a lagoon.	What amenities are included, and what are the HOA fees and rules?
SunRiver	Active-adult community and lifestyle amenities.	What age, occupancy and community rules apply?
Entrada	Luxury homes, golf and scenic surroundings.	What are the club, gate, golf and association costs?
Coral Canyon	Golf, residential amenities and regional access.	Which amenities are public, private or fee-based?
Kayenta	Arts, distinctive architecture and desert landscapes.	Are there design guidelines, lot restrictions or special maintenance needs?
Bloomington / Washington Fields	Established neighborhoods and growing residential areas.	How do utilities, schools, traffic and future development affect this location?

03 / Things to Do & Local Attractions

One of the region's biggest lifestyle draws is the ability to pair everyday conveniences with outdoor adventure, arts and live entertainment.

- Snow Canyon State Park — Hiking, biking, photography, scenic drives and striking sandstone and lava landscapes.
- Sand Hollow State Park — Boating, swimming, fishing, paddling, camping and off-highway vehicle recreation.
- Zion National Park — Iconic canyon scenery, hiking, wildlife viewing and scenic drives. Check alerts, shuttle information and permits before visiting.
- Tuacahn Amphitheatre — Outdoor musicals, concerts and live entertainment in a dramatic red-rock setting.
- Red Hills Desert Garden — A landscaped desert garden with native plants and interpretive features.
- Thunder Junction All Abilities Park — Inclusive play and recreation in St. George.

05 / Home Search Tools

A thoughtful home search starts with lifestyle, budget and the total cost of ownership—not just the list price. Compare properties and neighborhoods side by side.

Home search resources

- St. George real estate and community search
- Southern Utah community and buyer resources
- Realtor.com — St. George homes
- Greater St. George Chamber Area Guide

Personalized homebuyer checklist

- Get mortgage preapproval
- Determine purchase budget and cash-to-close
- Choose preferred communities
- Compare property taxes and HOA fees
- Research school boundaries
- Review insurance costs and availability
- Check utilities, water and internet services
- Arrange inspections and review disclosures
- Review rental restrictions and local rules
- Complete final walkthrough

Before you write an offer: Ask about roof age, HVAC, water heater, sewer or septic, irrigation, solar agreements, insurance claims, special assessments, HOA reserves, rental restrictions, property boundaries and any planned nearby development. Have qualified professionals review matters outside your real estate agent's expertise.
