THE BAPTISM OF THE LORD

BAPTISMAL DEATH AND RESSURECTION

As we celebrate the Baptism of the Lord, we also honor our own baptism as our initiation into the Christian life and community. In the Gospel, the baptism of Jesus, with his immersion and then emergence from the water, points to his later submission to God at his death, and his emergence from the grave at his resurrection. This pattern of death and resurrection is our path too, as followers of Jesus. Throughout life, often in small ways, we learn to surrender our limited and self-centered agendas. This surrender often feels like death. The sacrament of Baptism ritually enacts this pattern to remind us of Jesus' death and resurrection, so that we too might embrace the deaths and resurrections of our own lives. As Jesus emerged from the water, he encountered his Father and the Holy Spirit. Like Jesus, we can know we are God's beloved, empowered by the Spirit.

Become Like a Child

The great temptation is to use our obvious failures and disappointments in our lives to convince ourselves that we are really not worth being loved. Because what do we have to show for ourselves? But for a person of faith the opposite is true. The many failures may open that place in us where we have nothing to brag about but everything to be loved for. It is becoming a child again, a child who is loved simply for being, simply for smiling, simply for reaching out.

This is the way to spiritual maturity: to receive love as a pure, free gift.

Henri Nouwen

“Stewardship is the grateful response of a Christian disciple who recognizes and receives God’s gifts and shares these gifts in love of God and neighbor.”

THE BAPTISM OF THE LORD

Why did Jesus, the Sinless One, submit himself to John’s baptism of repentance? At his baptism, Jesus accepted his mission as God’s suffering servant on behalf of all sinful men and women.

By submitting humbly to John’s baptism, Jesus gave us a foreshadowing of the “baptism” of his bloody death on the cross, where out of love he gave his life for the remission of our sins (Mark 10:38, 45).

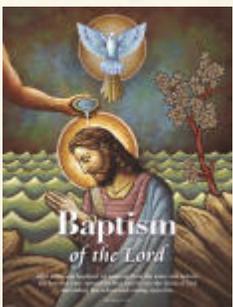

Because Jesus humbled himself so completely, his Father proclaimed how delighted he was in him (Mark 1:11). The Holy Spirit, too, was present, anointing Jesus for the work he was about to begin. At his baptism, Jesus became the source of the Spirit for all who would believe in him. The heavens opened, the Spirit fell, and a new creation was inaugurated.

If we want to experience the power and grace of this new creation in our lives, we must follow Jesus’ example. St. Gregory of Nazianzus, a fourth-century church Father, gives us this advice: “Let us be buried with Christ by baptism, to rise with him. Let us go down with him to be raised with him. Let us rise with him to be glorified with him.” If we want to experience the transformation Gregory wrote about, we need to ask the Holy Spirit to forge the same humility in our hearts that Jesus showed at his baptism.

Jesus is ever ready to renew us in his Spirit and to anoint us for our mission. He wants to make us “light” and “salt” to those around us (Matthew 5:13, 14). He wants his love and truth to shine through us so that others will be touched by his goodness. Ask the Lord to fill you with his Holy Spirit so that you may radiate the joy of the gospel to those around you. As you do, heaven will open for you as well.

EL BAUTISMO DEL SEÑOR

¿Por qué Jesús, el Libre de pecado, se sometió al bautismo de arrepentimiento de Juan? En su bautismo, Jesús aceptó su misión como siervo sufriente de Dios en nombre de todos los hombres y mujeres pecadores.

Al someterse humildemente al bautismo de Juan, Jesús nos dio un presagio del “bautismo” de su muerte sangrienta en la cruz, donde por amor dio su vida para la remisión de nuestros pecados (Marcos 10:38, 45).

Debido a que Jesús se humilló tan completamente, su Padre proclamó lo deleitado que estaba en él (Marcos 1:11). El Espíritu Santo también estaba presente, ungiendo a Jesús para la obra que estaba a punto de comenzar. En su bautismo, Jesús se convirtió en la fuente del Espíritu para todos los que creyeran en él. Se abrieron los cielos, bajó el Espíritu y se inauguró una nueva creación.

Si queremos experimentar el poder y la gracia de esta nueva creación en nuestras vidas, debemos seguir el ejemplo de Jesús. San Gregorio de Nacienceno, un Padre de la iglesia del siglo IV, nos da este consejo: “Seamos sepultados con Cristo por el bautismo, para resucitar con él. Bajemos con él para resucitar con él. Levátemonos con él para ser glorificados con él”. Si queremos experimentar la transformación sobre la que escribió Gregorio, debemos pedirle al Espíritu Santo que forje la misma humildad en nuestros corazones que Jesús mostró en su bautismo.

Jesús está siempre dispuesto a renovarnos en su Espíritu y ungirnos para nuestra misión. Quiere hacernos “luz” y “sal” para los que nos rodean (Mateo 5:13, 14). Quiere que su amor y su verdad brillen a través de nosotros para que otros sean tocados por su bondad. Pídale al Señor que te llene con su Espíritu Santo para que puedas irradiar el gozo del evangelio a quienes te rodean. Mientras lo haces, el cielo también se abrirá para ti.
