JANUARY 16, 2022

SECOND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

REVELATION OF GOD'S PRESENCE

Today's first reading from Isaiah arises out of the ordeal of the people of Jerusalem and Judea as they anticipate the end of seventy years of exile in Babylon. Their sufferings and their oppression will end, and they are promised joy like that of a great wedding upon returning to their homeland. Although this passage is probably set in the early sixth century B.C., it is free of historical particulars. Accordingly, the Church has understood its imagery universally, as it proclaims God's promise of healing, hope, and happiness for all peoples, in this world and in the next. When read against this background, the story of Jesus' turning water into wine at the wedding at Cana becomes a revelation of God's presence in the person of Jesus, making these promises real for us in the here and now, in the transformation of our own lives.

Our Greatest Gift

As I grow older, I discover more and more that the greatest gift I have to offer is my own joy of living, my own inner peace, my own silence and solitude, my own sense of well-being. When I ask myself, "Who helps me the most?" I must answer, "The one who is willing to share his or her life with me."

Henri Nouwen

“Stewardship is the grateful response of a Christian disciple who recognizes and receives God’s gifts and shares these gifts in love of God and neighbor.”

WEDDING FEAST

Today’s Gospel reading from John recounts the familiar story of the wedding feast at Cana when Jesus launched His public ministry by performing His first miracle at his mother’s request.

In the midst of the feast, the Blessed Mother noticed that the wine had run out and pointed out the problem to Jesus. Then, she gave the servants instructions that are equally applicable to us modern-day stewards, saying, “Do whatever He tells you.” Jesus gives the servants a simple and mundane task, telling them to fill some stone jars with water. They did what He told them to do. And Jesus used their obedience in the accomplishment of that simple task to perform His first miracle, turning the water into the choicest wine.

Our Lord did not have to include those servants to perform this miracle — He chose to. And today, 2,000 plus years later, He still chooses to include us in the performance of His miracles through our cooperation with Him in using the gifts and talents He has given us. What a privilege! Let us take care to listen to our Blessed Mother: let us examine our lives this week to see if we really are “doing whatever He tells us,” cooperating with God to make the best use of the gifts He has given us for the benefit of those around us. If we all take this call seriously, He will perform miracles in our families and our parish.

Let us take care to listen to our Blessed Mother. Let us examine our lives this week to see if we really are doing whatever He tells us and cooperating with God to make the best use of the gifts He has given us for the benefit of those around us. If we all take this call seriously, He will perform miracles in our families and our parish.

FESTÍN DE BODAS

La lectura del Evangelio de hoy de Juan relata la conocida historia de la fiesta de bodas en Caná cuando Jesús lanzó Su ministerio público al realizar Su primer milagro a pedido de su madre.

En medio de la fiesta, la Santísima Virgen advirtió que se había acabado el vino y señaló el problema a Jesús. Luego, les dio a los sirvientes instrucciones que son igualmente aplicables a nosotros, los mayordomos de hoy en día, diciendo: “Hagan lo que Él les diga”. Jesús les da a los sirvientes una tarea simple y mundana, diciéndoles que llenen unas tinajas de piedra con agua. Hicieron lo que les dijo que hicieran. Y Jesús usó su obediencia en el cumplimiento de esa sencilla tarea para realizar Su primer milagro, convirtiendo el agua en el vino más selecto.

Nuestro Señor no tuvo que incluir a esos sirvientes para realizar este milagro; Él eligió hacerlo. Y hoy, más de 2000 años después, todavía elige incluirnos en la realización de sus milagros a través de nuestra cooperación con él en el uso de los dones y talentos que nos ha dado. ¡Qué privilegio! Cuidemos de escuchar a nuestra Santísima Madre: examinemos nuestras vidas esta semana para ver si realmente estamos “haciendo lo que Él nos dice”, cooperando con Dios para hacer el mejor uso de los dones que Él nos ha dado para el beneficio de los que nos rodean. Si todos tomamos este llamado en serio, Él realizará milagros en nuestras familias y nuestra parroquia.
