JANUARY 23, 2022

THIRD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

GOD'S LAW

Scripture has always held God's law to be the path to human happiness. In today's first reading, Ezra the priest reads the scroll of the law to the people returned from exile. They weep—then are joyful. Israel's relationship with God had always been defined by how they kept and lived God's law. The author of Psalm 96 likewise praises the law of God as the source of wisdom, joy and enlightenment, purity and justice.

In his advice to the bickering Corinthians, Paul points out that, just as God has made all parts of a human body essential for the health of the whole, living as "Christ's body" requires that each member be recognized as necessary for the good of all. Finally, in Luke's Gospel Jesus claims that the Spirit is sending him to relieve human suffering. Like Ezra, he is reading from a scroll, proclaiming God's "law" of mercy to those in need.

Letting Go of Old Hurts

Holding people's faults against them often creates an impenetrable wall. But listen to Paul: "For anyone who is in Christ, there is a new creation: the old order is gone and a new being is there to see. It is all God's work" (2 Corinthians 5:17-18).

Indeed, we cannot let go of old hurts, but God can. Paul says: "God was in Christ reconciling the world to himself, not holding anyone's fault against them" (2 Corinthians 5:19). It is God's work, but we are God's ministers, because the God who reconciled the world to God entrusted to us "the message of reconciliation" (2 Corinthians 5:19). This message calls us to let go of old hurts in the Name of God. It is the message our world most needs to hear.

Henri Nouwen

“Stewardship is the grateful response of a Christian disciple who recognizes and receives God's gifts and shares these gifts in love of God and neighbor.”

FOLLOWING JESUS

We follow all sorts of people and organizations on social media. Friends. Celebrities. A favorite author, athlete, charity, or business. At times, we may think before following: do we want the additional postings or emails? Typically, following a business or celebrity does not require much of a commitment. We may or may not read every post that comes through on our feed. We might respond, or we may not. Even when we do, our response is often as simple as hitting the “like” button. Following Jesus is a very different sort of thing.

To follow Jesus means to enter into a relationship with him and to exercise good stewardship over that relationship. When Jesus asks us to follow him, we know that doing so is to have an impact in our lives. As with any friendship, if our relationship with Jesus is to grow, we will have to spend time with and pay attention to him. At first, this might mean taking a few moments at the beginning or end of each day for prayer.

We may be more attentive during Mass; we may pause during our day's activities to notice the beauty of creation, the blessing of family and friends, the gift of kindness and patience shared among co-workers. The best of friends also influences each other, for the better. Growing in relationship with Jesus will change us, leading us to think of others as well as ourselves, often putting the needs of others first. We learn to be mindful of those who need to know God's love through our actions, serving them, sharing forgiveness, mercy, compassion, and faith.

Following Jesus is the work of a lifetime. At every step forward, one is challenged to go further in accepting and loving God's will. Being a disciple is not just something else to do, alongside many other things suitable for Christians; it is a total way of life and requires continuing conversion (Stewardship: A Disciple's Response, p. 15).

How will you follow Jesus now and into the future? How will you learn from and invite him to have an impact in your life? How will your stewardship of this relationship impact the way you live? Take some time in the next week to reflect on these questions and how you will answer them.

SIGUIENDO A JESÚS

Seguimos a todo tipo de personas y organizaciones en las redes sociales. Amigos. Famosos. Un autor favorito, atleta, organización benéfica o negocio. A veces, podemos pensar antes de seguir: ¿queremos las publicaciones o correos electrónicos adicionales? Por lo general, seguir a un negocio o una celebridad no requiere mucho compromiso. Podemos o no leer cada publicación que aparece en nuestro feed. Podemos responder, o puede que no. Incluso cuando lo hacemos, nuestra respuesta suele ser tan simple como presionar el botón “Me gusta”. Seguir a Jesús es algo muy diferente.

Seguir a Jesús significa entrar en una relación con él y ejercer una buena mayordomía sobre esa relación. Cuando Jesús nos pide que lo sigamos, sabemos que hacerlo tendrá un impacto en nuestras vidas. Como con cualquier amistad, si queremos que nuestra relación con Jesús crezca, tendremos que pasar tiempo con él y prestarle atención. Al principio, esto podría significar dedicar unos momentos al comienzo o al final de cada día para orar.

Podemos estar más atentos durante la Misa; podemos hacer una pausa durante las actividades de nuestro día para notar la belleza de la creación, la bendición de la familia y los amigos, el regalo de la bondad y la paciencia compartida entre los compañeros de trabajo. Los mejores amigos también se influyen mutuamente, para mejor. Crecer en una relación con Jesús nos cambiará, llevándonos a pensar tanto en los demás como en nosotros mismos, a menudo anteponiendo las necesidades de los demás. Aprendemos a tener en cuenta a aquellos que necesitan conocer el amor de Dios a través de nuestras acciones, sirviéndoles, compartiendo el perdón, la misericordia, la compasión y la fe.

Seguir a Jesús es el trabajo de toda una vida. En cada paso adelante, uno es desafiado a ir más allá en aceptar y amar la voluntad de Dios. Ser discípulo no es simplemente otra cosa que hacer, junto con muchas otras cosas propias de los cristianos; es una forma de vida total y requiere una conversión continua (Stewardship: A Disciple's Response, p. 15).

¿Cómo seguirás a Jesús ahora y en el futuro? ¿Cómo aprenderás de él y lo invitarás a tener un impacto en tu vida? ¿Cómo afectará su mayordomía de esta relación la forma en que vive? Tómese un tiempo en la próxima semana para reflexionar sobre estas preguntas y cómo las responderá.—Reflexiones sobre la corresponsabilidad de los consultores católicos de administración.
