JANUARY 30, 2022

FOURTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

TO BE A PROPHET

Today's readings show us what it is like to be a prophet. As Jeremiah recounts his call, God warns him that he will need strength and perseverance to withstand the hostility he will face from "Judah's kings and princes" and "its priests and people" (Jeremiah 1:18b). God also assures him that they "will not prevail over you, for I am with you" (1:19). The psalm reflects both of these struggles as well as deliverance from them ("salvation").

This is exactly what Jesus experiences in today's Gospel. After he claims that his own mission is the same as what Isaiah proclaimed, at first the people marvel at his "gracious words" (Luke 4:22). Soon, however, they become suspicious, skeptical, and hostile, even threatening to kill him. But just as God promised to deliver Jeremiah, so Jesus "passed through the midst of them and went away" (4:30).

My Jesus, I believe that You are truly present in the Holy Eucharist. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul.

Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen.

Let God Be the Master of Your House

It strikes me increasingly just how hard-pressed people are nowadays. It's as though they're tearing about from one emergency to another. Never solitary, never still, never really free but always busy about something that just can't wait. You get the impression that, amid this frantic hurly-burly, we lose touch with life itself. We have the experience of being busy while nothing real seems to happen. The more agitated we are, and the more compacted our lives become, the more difficult it is to keep a space where God can let something truly new really take place.

Henri Nouwen

“Stewardship is the grateful response of a Christian disciple who recognizes and receives God's gifts and shares these gifts in love of God and neighbor.”

JESUS PREACHING IN HIS HOMETOWN

Sharing the Gospel with your family is not always as easy as sharing it with a stranger. Conversely, listening to the Gospel message from a family member is not always as easy as hearing it from someone else. Why is that?

It may be that familiarity with another, such as the familiarity we have with family members, can tempt us to lack a certain confidence in their convictions and in their Christian witness. Though this is certainly not true of every relationship we have but can. Children, at times, will not put as much confidence in the words of a parent as they may another. Siblings may not be as open to advice from each other as they are from other people.

One of the reasons for this experience is that we are often far more critical of those we know well than those we do not know. It is easy to allow our long history of personal experience to hinder our openness toward family members. This is especially the case with the negative experiences we have had over the years. So often, we hold onto negative experiences and hurts from year to year, and we allow those experiences to become a filter for anything that a family member says or does.

This statement from Jesus, that “no prophet is accepted in his own native place,” should challenge us to make sure we do not fall into this tendency. We should do what we can to make sure that we do accept the prophetic witness shared with us from our own family members.

The best way to do this is to make sure that we regularly strive to purge any “baggage” we carry in those relationships. Very often, we carry the baggage of hurt, anger and resentment without even realizing it. We also easily focus in on the weaknesses of family members since we easily witness their weaknesses because of being close to them.

Reflect, today, upon your family. Reflect, especially, upon whether you allow yourself to look beyond their weaknesses and sins to see the goodness of God at work in their lives. There is much that God wants to say to you through them. Make sure you have not closed that door and are willing to accept them as a messenger of the Gospel.

JESÚS PREDICANDO EN SU CIUDAD NATAL

Compartir el Evangelio con tu familia no siempre es tan fácil como compartirlo con un extraño. Por el contrario, escuchar el mensaje del Evangelio de un miembro de la familia no siempre es tan fácil como escucharlo de otra persona. ¿Por qué es eso?

Puede ser que la familiaridad con el otro, como la que tenemos con los miembros de la familia, pueda tentarnos a perder cierta confianza en sus convicciones y en su testimonio cristiano. Aunque esto ciertamente no es cierto para todas las relaciones que tenemos, pero puede serlo. Los niños, a veces, no pondrán tanta confianza en las palabras de un padre como en las de otro. Es posible que los hermanos no estén tan abiertos a recibir consejos entre ellos como lo están con otras personas.

Una de las razones de esta experiencia es que a menudo somos mucho más críticos con los que conocemos bien que con los que no conocemos. Es fácil permitir que nuestra larga historia de experiencia personal obstaculice nuestra apertura hacia los miembros de la familia. Este es especialmente el caso con las experiencias negativas que hemos tenido a lo largo de los años. Muy a menudo, nos aferramos a experiencias negativas que nos hieren año tras año y permitimos que esas experiencias se conviertan en un filtro para cualquier cosa que diga o haga algún miembro de la familia.

Esta declaración de Jesús, que “ningún profeta es aceptado en su propia tierra”, debería desafiarnos a asegurarnos de no caer en esta tendencia. Debemos hacer lo que podamos para asegurarnos de que aceptamos el testimonio profético compartido con nosotros por parte de nuestros propios miembros de la familia.

La mejor manera de hacer esto es asegurarnos de que nos esforzamos regularmente por deshacernos de cualquier “equipaje” que llevemos en esas relaciones. Muy a menudo, llevamos el equipaje del dolor, la ira y el resentimiento sin siquiera darnos cuenta. También nos enfocamos fácilmente en las debilidades de los miembros de la familia, ya que somos fácilmente testigos de sus debilidades debido a que estamos cerca de ellos.

Reflexiona, hoy, sobre tu familia. Reflexiona, especialmente, sobre si te permites mirar más allá de sus debilidades y pecados para ver la bondad de Dios obrando en sus vidas. Hay mucho que Dios quiere decirte a través de ellos. Asegúrate de no haber cerrado esa puerta y de estar dispuesto a aceptarlos como mensajeros del Evangelio.
