MARCH 13, 2022

SECOND SUNDAY OF LENT

A GLIMPSE OF GOD

Have you ever had a glimpse of God? Perhaps you perceived God's presence in a quiet moment of prayer, a tender conversation with a loved one, or a difficult situation that was resolved unexpectedly. Peter, James, and John in today's Gospel were given a glimpse of Christ's glory on the mountain, as Jesus was transfigured before them. Abram put his faith in God and saw God's power in a wondrous sign of covenant love. We have the promise of eternal life with God in heaven. This promise brings with it responsibility, as people who are called to live as Christ's very own in the world. Lent is the perfect time to resolve to listen more attentively to the Lord and follow God's ways, assured that in doing so, we put our faith in the one, true, and faithful God.

Children are our Guests

It belongs to the center of the Christian message that children are not properties to own and rule over, but gifts to cherish and care for. Our children are our most important guests, who enter into our home, ask for careful attention, stay for a while, and then leave to follow their own way. Children are strangers whom we have to get to know.

Henri Nouwen

“Stewardship is the grateful response of a Christian disciple who recognizes and receives God’s gifts and shares these gifts in love of God and neighbor.”

TRANSFIGURATION OF JESUS

The transfiguration is a highly symbolic story. Jesus took his inner circle of apostles—Peter, James, and John—up a mountain, which in the Bible is a place of revelation, so it was clear something important was about to happen.

These three apostles then saw Jesus as part of another important trio, completed with Moses and Elijah, symbols of Israelite tradition. As if that were not spectacular enough, the voice of God itself made an appearance, uttering two thundering phrases: “This is my Son” and “Listen to him.”

Unfortunately, none of the apostles’ reactions showed that they understood what had just happened. First, they were half-asleep when the whole thing started—not the last time that would happen at a key moment. They were terrified to the point of talking nonsense about building shelters for the holy figures. Then on the way down they started an off-topic debate about the resurrection and Elijah.

The apostles did not grasp significance of Jesus having a sacred conversation with Moses and Elijah. It identified Jesus with the law and the prophets. Jesus had the same authority as these two pillars of Israel’s tradition. and how that authority came from the same God. To leave no doubt, God’s voice drove home the point with words heard at an earlier affirmation of Jesus’ status, his baptism: “This is my son, the beloved” (Matt. 3:17).

It is wonderful to find inspiration in a shining vision of Jesus, but the message to the church then and now is that witnessing glory is one thing, following is another. After the vision is over, you look up and see, as the apostles did, “Jesus only,” and you realize that, to get to the further glory of eternal life, you must follow him to the cross.

Joel Shoren, U.S. Catholic (edited by G. Carter)

TRANSFIGURACIÓN DE JESUS

La transfiguración es una historia altamente simbólica. Jesús llevó a su círculo íntimo de apóstoles (Pedro, Santiago y Juan) a una montaña, que en la Biblia es un lugar de revelación, por lo que estaba claro que algo importante estaba por suceder.

Estos tres apóstoles vieron entonces a Jesús como parte de otro trío importante, completado con Moisés y Elías, símbolos de la tradición israelita. Como si eso no fuera lo suficientemente espectacular, la voz de Dios mismo hizo acto de presencia, pronunciando dos frases atronadoras: “Este es mi Hijo” y “Escúchenlo”.

Desafortunadamente, ninguna de las reacciones de los apóstoles mostró que entendieron lo que acababa de suceder. Primero, estaban medio dormidos cuando todo comenzó, no sería la última vez que sucedería en un momento clave. Estaban aterrizados hasta el punto de decir tonterías sobre la construcción de refugios para las figuras sagradas. Luego, en el camino hacia abajo, comenzaron un debate fuera de tema sobre la resurrección y Elías.

Los apóstoles no entendieron el significado de que Jesús tuviera una conversación sagrada con Moisés y Elías. Identificaba a Jesús con la ley y los profetas. Jesús tenía la misma autoridad que estos dos pilares de la tradición de Israel. y cómo esa autoridad venía del mismo Dios. Para no dejar dudas, la voz de Dios resaltó el punto con palabras escuchadas en una afirmación anterior del estado de Jesús, su bautismo: “Este es mi hijo, el amado” (Mateo 3:17).

Es maravilloso encontrar inspiración en una brillante visión de Jesús, pero el mensaje para la iglesia de entonces y ahora es que presenciar la gloria es una cosa, seguirla es otra. Después de que termina la visión, miras hacia arriba y ves, como lo hicieron los apóstoles, “sólo a Jesús”, y te das cuenta de que, para llegar a la mayor gloria de la vida eterna, debes seguirlo hasta la cruz.

Travel to Munich and to Oberammergau for you to experience a play like no other in the world. What made Oberammergau town famous, was its performance of the Passion of Christ every decade. It is believed that the Passion Play has been held every ten years since 1634. A play of life and death, promised in a moment of mortal threat, and so began the history of the Oberammergau Passion Play in 1633. During that time, the Black Plague was sweeping through Europe. The villagers of Oberammergau vowed that if their town was spared, they would perform the Passion of Christ every ten years. The town was spared, and it is amazing that they have been honoring this pledge from generation to generation. The Passion Play performance follows Christ from His triumphant entry into Jerusalem through His Trial, Crucifixion, Resurrection, and Ascension.

Then, as a Grand Finale, your tour will take you on a cruise along one of Europe's most romantic rivers, you will sail through history into a world filled with a variety of amazing architecture and breathtaking scenery. Our Oberammergau Passion Play & Passau to Budapest cruise takes you on a journey of discovery into "Old Europe," uncovering ancient abbeys, beautiful palaces, historic landmarks and stunning vistas. From the villages of Melk & Passau, to the vibrant and cosmopolitan cities of Vienna, & Budapest. Your trip will highlight iconic sights and bustling city streets.
