THE ASCENSION OF THE LORD

SENT FORTH

Today we celebrate Jesus' return to heaven. If we struggle to know how to feel about this event, we take our cue from Jesus' disciples. These disciples are first-hand witnesses to the Ascension, returning afterward to Jerusalem, where "they were continually in the temple praising God." Long-time companions of the Lord, they surely feel the pain of physical separation from Jesus. Yet they praise God continually. They accept God's plan, looking forward to the day when Christ will come again. As our reading from Hebrews affirms, Christ will return to "bring salvation to those who eagerly await him." This Good News is almost too much to take in; the Acts of the Apostles explains that an angel has to wake the disciples from their stupor, reminding them to start the Lord's work. Today's readings are our own angel, sending us forth in joyful hope.

Imagining Christ

Contemplative prayer can be described as an imagining of God's Son, Jesus, a letting him enter fully into our consciousness so that he becomes the icon always present in the inner room of our hearts. By gazing at Jesus, walking on the earth, we give him loving attention and we "see" with our minds and hearts how he is the way to the Father. Jesus' life and work is an uninterrupted union with and contemplation of his Father. We, as followers of Jesus, try to enter into the same disposition. We welcome the discipline of contemplation, taking time regularly to enter into the life of Jesus to contemplate the incredible bond between Jesus and the Father. And we trust that in, through, and with Jesus, we, too, may live and bask in God's unconditional love.

Henri Nouwen

“Stewardship is the grateful response of a Christian disciple who recognizes and receives God’s gifts and shares these gifts in love of God and neighbor.”

THE ASCENSION OF JESUS CHRIST

The ascension of Jesus Christ into heaven is one of the most important events recorded in the New Testament. But though it occupies a vital place in Scripture, it doesn’t get a lot of attention today, even among Christians. My guess is that you probably haven’t read any books about it or heard many sermons on it. Usually we focus on the crucifixion and the resurrection. But the ascension is pivotal, especially in the writings of Luke.

For one thing, the ascension accounts for why the appearances of Jesus during the forty days following his resurrection ceased. The ascension also foreshadowed the final event in salvation history: Jesus’ personal, physical, glorious return.

“Men of Galilee, why do you stand looking into heaven? This Jesus, who was taken up from you into heaven, will come in the same way as you saw him go into heaven” (Acts 1:11).

But there’s more to it than that. For the ascension of Jesus was also the climatic, crowning event of his exaltation, and the necessary precursor to his continuing work through the Spirit and the church.

If the resurrection be denied, then of course there is no room for ascension. If, on the other hand, it be established that Jesus of Nazareth did indeed rise from the dead, then it is equally certain that He ascended into heaven.

–Christian Today

LA ASCENSIÓN DE JESUCRISTO

La ascensión de Jesucristo al cielo es uno de los eventos más importantes registrados en el Nuevo Testamento. Pero, aunque ocupa un lugar vital en las Escrituras, hoy en día no recibe mucha atención, incluso entre los cristianos. Mi conjetura es que probablemente no haya leído ningún libro al respecto ni haya escuchado muchos sermones al respecto. Usualmente nos enfocamos en la crucifixión y la resurrección. Pero la ascensión es fundamental, especialmente en los escritos de Lucas.

Por un lado, la ascensión explica por qué cesaron las apariciones de Jesús durante los cuarenta días que siguieron a su resurrección. La ascensión también prefiguró el evento final en la historia de la salvación: el regreso personal, físico y glorioso de Jesús.

“Hombres de Galilea, ¿por qué estáis mirando al cielo? Este Jesús, que ha sido tomado de vosotros arriba en el cielo, así vendrá como le habéis visto ir al cielo” (Hechos 1:11).

Pero hay más que eso. Por la ascensión de Jesús fue también el evento culminante y la coronación de su exaltación, y el precursor necesario de su obra continua a través del Espíritu y la iglesia.

Si se niega la resurrección, entonces, por supuesto, no hay lugar para la ascensión. Si, por el contrario, se establece que Jesús de Nazaret resucitó de entre los muertos, entonces es igualmente cierto que ascendió al cielo.

RETURN

HOW TO DRAW YOUR CHILD BACK TO THE CHURCH

By Brandon Vogt, Foreword by Bishop R. Barron

WORD on FIRE

The statistics are troubling: an average of 6.5 people leave the Catholic Church for every one that joins, and 50% of young people who were raised Catholic are no longer Catholic today. The Catholic Church is hemorrhaging young people.

Behind these statistics are countless stories of wounded families. Millions of mothers and fathers are longing for their prodigal children to come home to the Church, crying: "Where did we go wrong?"

The passive wait-and-see approach is no longer an option. We need a different strategy. We need to understand the real reasons why our young people drift away, and we need a game plan to bring them home. We need Return.
