THE MOST HOLY TRINITY

BIBLICAL ROOTS OF THE TRINITY

Today's readings show some biblical roots of what Christians would later call the Trinity. Proverbs showcases the role of Wisdom in the work of creation, portrayed as a reality outside of God but integrated into God's work of forming the heavens and the earth. We join the psalmist in sharing Wisdom's delight in God's handiwork: "O Lord, our God, how wonderful your name in all the earth" (Psalm 8:2). In his letter to the Romans, Paul writes of peace with God through Jesus, and the love of God received through the Holy Spirit, distinguishing God, Jesus, and the Holy Spirit while also displaying their abiding unity. Finally, in the farewell discourse from John's Gospel, Jesus—who had earlier spoken of himself as Son of the Father—promises his friends that they will receive the Spirit of truth that will teach and guide them after his departure.

Hear the Voice that Calls You the Beloved

Solitude is listening to the voice that calls you the Beloved. It is being alone with the One who says, "You are my Beloved, I want to be with you. Don't go running around, don't start to prove to everybody that you're beloved. You are already beloved." That is what God says to us. Solitude is the place where we go in order to hear the truth about ourselves. It asks us to let go of the other ways of proving, which are a lot more satisfying. The voice that calls us the beloved is not the voice that satisfies the senses. That's what the whole mystical life is about; it is beyond feelings and beyond thoughts.

Henri Nouwen

“Stewardship is the grateful response of a Christian disciple who recognizes and receives God’s gifts and shares these gifts in love of God and neighbor.”

THE TRINITY

When we speak about the Blessed Trinity we are not only speaking about “the central mystery of Christian faith” and “the source of all the other mysteries of faith” but about “one of the mysteries that are hidden in God” (Catechism of the Catholic Church 237).

The Catechism acknowledges that the Blessed Trinity is a “mystery that is inaccessible to reason alone” but explains that “God has left traces of his Trinitarian being in his work of creation and in his Revelation throughout the Old Testament). The New Testament gives us a more complete portrait of the Holy Trinity when we are introduced to Jesus, the Eternal Word of God made flesh; the Second Person of the Trinity. We hear Jesus say such things as, “the Father and I are One” (Jn 10:30). The third person of the Holy Trinity, the Holy Spirit, is described as the “wind” or “breath” of God. Most familiar to us are the terms “Advocate” or “Paraclete” given in the Gospel of St. John (see 14:16; 14:26; 15:26; 16:7).

Throughout the New Testament it is apparent that some passages refer to the three persons of the Holy Trinity together while others treat them separately. What remains crystal clear in the Scriptures is the truth that there is only One God (Deuteronomy 4:35; Isaiah 45:5; 46:9) and that this “One God” reveals himself as a Trinity of distinct persons: God the Father (Galatians 1:1), God the Son — Jesus Christ (John 1:1; 20:28) and God the Holy Spirit (Acts 5:3-4).

The classic example of the Holy Trinity being revealed in the Sacred Scriptures is the account of the baptism of Jesus where a definite distinction among the three persons of the Holy Trinity is made by their different names as well as the operations which they accomplish. In the account of the Baptism of Jesus, God the Father speaks: “a voice came from the heavens, saying, ‘This is my beloved Son, with whom I am well pleased’” (Mt 3:17). Then, “after Jesus was baptized, he came up from the water and behold, the heavens were opened” (Mt 3:16). Finally, the Holy Spirit descends upon Jesus: “and he saw the Spirit of God descending [upon him in bodily form] like a dove” (Mt 3:16). The “three” are not one person, but three distinct persons! The Father is someone other than the Son and the Holy Spirit. The Son is someone other than the Father and the Holy Spirit. Similarly, the Holy Spirit is someone distinguishable from the Father and the Son. At the same time, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit are united by one and the same nature and enjoy the distinction of being One God.

LA TRINIDAD

Cuando hablamos de la Santísima Trinidad no estamos hablando sólo del “misterio central de la fe cristiana” y “la fuente de todos los demás misterios de la fe”, sino de “uno de los misterios que están escondidos en Dios” (Catecismo de los Iglesia Católica 237).

El Catecismo reconoce que la Santísima Trinidad es un “misterio inaccesible a la sola razón”, pero explica que “Dios ha dejado huellas de su ser trinitario en su obra de creación y en su Revelación a lo largo del Antiguo Testamento). El Nuevo Testamento nos ofrece un retrato más completo de la Santísima Trinidad cuando se nos presenta a Jesús, el Verbo eterno de Dios hecho carne; la Segunda Persona de la Trinidad. Escuchamos a Jesús decir cosas como, “el Padre y yo somos Uno” (Jn 10:30). La tercera persona de la Santísima Trinidad, el Espíritu Santo, se describe como el “viento” o “aliento” de Dios. Los más familiares para nosotros son los términos “Abogado” o “Paráclito” dados en el Evangelio de San Juan (ver 14:16; 14:26; 15:26; 16:7).

A lo largo del Nuevo Testamento, es evidente que algunos pasajes se refieren a las tres personas de la Santísima Trinidad juntas, mientras que otros las tratan por separado. Lo que queda meridianamente claro en las Escrituras es la verdad de que hay un solo Dios (Deuteronomio 4:35; Isaías 45:5; 46:9) y que este “Un Dios” se revela como una Trinidad de distintas personas: Dios Padre. (Gálatas 1:1), Dios el Hijo — Jesucristo (Juan 1:1; 20:28) y Dios el Espíritu Santo (Hechos 5:3-4).

El ejemplo clásico de la Santísima Trinidad revelada en las Sagradas Escrituras es el relato del bautismo de Jesús, donde se hace una distinción definitiva entre las tres personas de la Santísima Trinidad por sus diferentes nombres, así como por las operaciones que realizan. En el relato del bautismo de Jesús, Dios Padre habla: “Desde los cielos vino una voz que decía: Este es mi Hijo amado, en quien tengo complacencia” (Mt 3, 17). Entonces, “después que Jesús fue bautizado, subió del agua y he aquí, los cielos se abrieron” (Mt 3,16). Finalmente, el Espíritu Santo desciende sobre Jesús: “y vio al Espíritu de Dios que descendía [sobre él en forma corporal] como paloma” (Mt 3,16). ¡Los “tres” no son una sola persona, sino tres personas distintas! El Padre es otro que el Hijo y el Espíritu Santo. El Hijo es otro que el Padre y el Espíritu Santo. De manera similar, el Espíritu Santo es alguien que se distingue del Padre y del Hijo. Al mismo tiempo, el Padre, el Hijo y el Espíritu Santo están unidos por una y la misma naturaleza y disfrutan de la distinción de ser Un Dios.

THE MOST HOLY BODY AND BLOOD OF CHRIST

JUNE 19, 2022 | PROCESSION AFTER 9:00 A.M. MASS

The feast of Corpus Christi (which in Latin means the Body of Christ) will be celebrated next weekend. Please join us in this custom which goes back centuries, after the 9:00 a.m. Mass next Sunday. During this procession we will celebrate the real presence of the body and blood of Jesus Christ, the Son of God, in the Eucharist.

As we walk along this procession, Our Lord is placed in the monstrance. The priest then carries Him to four different altars representing the four corners of the earth. While processing, the congregation follows and sings. As we walk, we are professing our faith. At each altar there are readings and prayers. Listen, pray, and allow the Gospel readings to reaffirm our belief that Our Lord is really and truly present in the bread and wine. This procession is a joyful celebration which honors the Holy Eucharist, contrasting the solemn feast of Holy Thursday.

Following the procession there will be Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament.
