JULY 3, 2022

FOURTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

GOOD NEWS IS ON THE WAY

This week, in the midst of summer, the scriptures greet us with joy, peace, mercy, and more peace! Sounds a little like Advent, doesn't it? We often associate the prophet Isaiah with that preparatory season, and our first reading rings with such words as exult, comfort, and rejoice. The Israelites had reason to rejoice, for they had returned, come home, to a rebuilt Jerusalem from their exile in Babylon.

In the Gospel, the seventy-two disciples who were sent out have their own "homecoming," returning to Jesus from spreading the Good News of the Kingdom and preparing people for the "advent" of Jesus into their cities and towns on his long road to Jerusalem.

Like the exiles in Isaiah, the disciples return rejoicing.

The Good News, the Kingdom of God, is coming, even in summer. As today's psalm reminds us, "Shout joyfully to God, all the earth!"

GOSPEL REFLECTION FOR NEXT SUNDAY
 The Fifteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time
Luke 10: 25-37

Next week the formation program Jesus has for disciples presents us with the third human quality: Mercy or Love of Neighbor. This is a quality of generosity and compassion not just at exceptional moments or a response to a disaster, but a quality that is consistent and present all the time. The disciple of Jesus does not just show up when a hurricane blows through or an earthquake destroys or when a neighbor's house burns down. Disciples of Jesus Christ are always aware of human need, and they never measure out limits to their compassion, concern, and assistance. "Take care of him. If there is more cost, I will repay you."

It is never a matter of whether or not those in need deserve assistance. The disciple of Jesus is not a social worker concerned with solutions to problems. The disciple of Jesus knows Mercy, and can see the face of God in another human being, and they will not pass by. Mercy is that quality of love and compassion when there is every reason for there to be none. Mercy is indiscriminate, or it isn't Mercy at all.
 -Fr. Tom Boyer

Eternal God, grant that we may usher in a new era when GOOD WILL shall live in the hearts of a free people, justice shall be the light to guide their feet, and peace shall be the goal of all humankind.

PRAY FOR PEACE AND SAFETY:

If you have a family member serving overseas, please let us know. We will publish their names in the bulletin to remind everyone to ask God's blessings on them, that they may return safely to their families. Let us join our prayers for peace and safety with yours. Also, please let us know when they return home safely so that we may rejoice with you.

Creating the New World to Come

People of prayer are, in the final analysis, people who are able to recognize in others the face of the Messiah. They are people who make visible what was hidden, who make touchable what was unreachable. People of prayer are leaders because precisely through their articulation of God's work within themselves they can lead others away from confusion and toward clarification; through their compassion they can guide others out of the closed circuits of in-groups and toward the wider world of humanity; and through their critical contemplation they can convert convulsive destructiveness into creative work for the new world to come.

Henri Nouwen

“ Stewardship is the grateful response of a Christian disciple who recognizes and receives God’s gifts and shares these gifts in love of God and neighbor. ”

-DIOCESE OF WICHITA

A PRAYER BY GEORGE WASHINGTON

George Washington, our first president wrote many prayers, yes that is correct, so on this Fourth of July weekend, I would like to share one of his prayers.

Almighty God:

We make our earnest prayer that Thou wilt keep the United States in Thy holy protection; that thou wilt incline the hearts of the citizens to cultivate a spirit of subordination and obedience to government and entertain a brotherly affection and love for one another and for their fellow-citizens of the United States at large. And finally, that Thou wilt most graciously be pleased to dispose us all to do justice, to love mercy and to demean ourselves with that charity, humility and pacific temper of mind which were the characteristics of the Divine Author of our blessed religion without a humble imitation of whose example in these things we can never hope to be a happy nation. Grant our supplication, we beseech Thee, through Jesus Christ, our Lord. Amen.

George Washington; April 30th, 1789

This prayer is used regularly at “The President’s Chapel” of the George Washington University and voices the aspirations of the University for the fulfillment of civic duties and the promotion of national welfare.*

UNA ORACIÓN DE GEORGE WASHINGTON

George Washington, nuestro primer presidente, escribió muchas oraciones, sí, eso es correcto, así que, en este fin de semana del 4 de julio, me gustaría compartir una de sus oraciones.

Dios Todopoderoso:

Hacemos nuestra ferviente oración para que mantengas a los Estados Unidos en tu santa protección; que inclinarás los corazones de los ciudadanos a cultivar un espíritu de subordinación y obediencia al gobierno y albergar un afecto fraternal y amor mutuo y por sus conciudadanos de los Estados Unidos en general. Y finalmente, que te dignes muy graciosamente disponernos a todos a hacer justicia, a amar la misericordia y a rebajarnos con esa caridad, humildad y talante pacífico que fueron las características del Divino Autor de nuestra bendita religión sin humilde imitación de cuyo ejemplo en estas cosas nunca podemos esperar ser una nación feliz. Concede nuestra súplica, te suplicamos, por Jesucristo, nuestro Señor. Amén.

Jorge Washington; 30 de abril de 1789

Esta oración se usa regularmente en “La Capilla del Presidente” de la Universidad George Washington y expresa las aspiraciones de la Universidad para el cumplimiento de los deberes cívicos y la promoción del bienestar nacional.*
