JULY 10, 2022

FIFTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

RIGHT RELATIONSHIPS

Our God is about relationships. In the first reading, Moses reminds the Israelites that the laws, which are already in their hearts, keep them in right relationship with the God who loves them so much that they always find forgiveness. Centuries later, along comes Jesus, whom Paul describes to the Colossians as “the image of the invisible God,” the very embodiment of this God of love. In his parable about the good Samaritan, Jesus explains how the law of love overrules the letter of the law. Instead of answering the question “Who is my neighbor?” Jesus demonstrates that it is not about who is worthy of being loved, but rather loving as God loves—about being neighbor, about being the good Samaritan. Jesus wants us to continue his work as images of this God of love by loving all people, even those who seem to be our enemies.

GOSPEL REFLECTION FOR NEXT SUNDAY

The Sixteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time
Luke 10: 38-42

Disciples of Jesus are poor, joyful, merciful, and now Jesus tells us that they are hospitable gracious hosts in the style of Jesus, while never forgetting that they are also perpetual guests of a loving and divine host. “Feed them yourselves” he says to us. We might learn how to be hospitable by being gracious guests which is what we are on this earth to which a gracious God has invited and called us. As guests, our possessiveness toward this world’s goods and resources are kept in check. In some ways, Martha and Mary might be seen as one person: the person who received Jesus Christ keeping a balance between doing and being. Disciples know the difference. A call to integrate work and play or action and prayer is what disciples of Jesus hear in next week’s Gospel walking to Jerusalem. Having just told the story of Mercy in the Good Samaritan parable, he quickly reminds us that this discipleship is not all about doing something. It is also about being someone. In this case, being hospitable, being good guests, and gracious hosts.

If you have a family member serving overseas, please let us know. We will publish their names in the bulletin to remind everyone to ask God’s blessings on them, that they may return safely to their families. Let us join our prayers for peace and safety with yours. Also, please let us know when they return home safely so that we may rejoice with you.

The Friend Who Cares

When we honestly ask ourselves which persons in our lives mean the most to us, we often find that it is those who, instead of giving much advice, solutions, or cures, have chosen rather to share our pain and touch our wounds with a gentle and tender hand. The friend who can be silent with us in a moment of despair or confusion, who can stay with us in an hour of grief and bereavement, who can tolerate not-knowing, not-curing, not-healing, and face with us the reality of our powerlessness, that is the friend who cares.

Henri Nouwen

“ Stewardship is the grateful response of a Christian disciple who recognizes and receives God's gifts and shares these gifts in love of God and neighbor. ”

HOSPITALITY AT MASS: A KEY TO GOOD STEWARDSHIP

For many individuals and families alike, summer means travel. And summer travel may mean new visitors to our parish for weekend liturgies. How we greet and provide hospitality for our guests says a lot about our practice of good stewardship. Providing hospitality to strangers is a hallmark of Christian stewardship. In the Gospel of Matthew good stewards were commended for their hospitality: “I was a stranger and you welcomed me” (Matt. 25:35). Saint Benedict directed his followers to receive guests and travelers as if they were Christ. Extending hospitality is especially important when it comes to welcoming visitors who may be attending Mass at our parish for the first time. There is a lot of anecdotal evidence suggesting that the ability of a first-time visitor to have a meaningful experience of Christ in the liturgy is directly impacted by the warmth of the welcome extended by the local worshipping community. When people say hello, the worship experience is enhanced. A warm welcome is part of evangelization, work necessary in a church's mission to help people discover or renew their faith in Christ. How do we treat the unknown person who walks by us in church, or who sits next to us at Mass? Do we ignore them? Talk around them? Look at them and say nothing? Do we take the initiative to greet them, smile, extend a warm handshake? Remember, we are Christ's ambassadors (2 Corinthians 5:20). Our actions and reactions toward visitors at Mass communicate who we are and who we represent. Let us take time to welcome visitors to our parish this summer.

HOSPITALIDAD EN LA MISA: UNA CLAVE PARA UNA BUENA MAYORDOMÍA

Para muchas personas y familias, el verano significa viajar. Y los viajes de verano pueden significar nuevos visitantes a nuestra parroquia para las liturgias de fin de semana. La forma en que recibimos y brindamos hospitalidad a nuestros invitados dice mucho sobre nuestra práctica de buena mayordomía. Brindar hospitalidad a los extraños es un sello distintivo de la mayordomía cristiana. En el Evangelio de Mateo se elogió a los buenos mayordomos por su hospitalidad: “Fui forastero y me acogisteis” (Mt 25,35). San Benito ordenó a sus seguidores que recibieran invitados y viajeros como si fueran Cristo. Brindar hospitalidad es especialmente importante cuando se trata de dar la bienvenida a los visitantes que pueden asistir a Misa en nuestra parroquia por primera vez. Hay mucha evidencia anecdótica que sugiere que la capacidad de un visitante primerizo de tener una experiencia significativa de Cristo en la liturgia se ve directamente afectada por la calidez de la bienvenida brindada por la comunidad local de adoradores. Cuando la gente dice hola, se mejora la experiencia de adoración. Una cálida acogida es parte de la evangelización, trabajo necesario en la misión de una iglesia para ayudar a las personas a descubrir o renovar su fe en Cristo. ¿Cómo tratamos a la persona desconocida que pasa junto a nosotros en la iglesia o que se sienta a nuestro lado en la misa? ¿Los ignoramos? ¿Hablamos alrededor de ellos? ¿Los miramos y no le decimos nada? ¿Tomamos la iniciativa de saludarlos, sonreírles, extender un cálido apretón de manos? Recuerde, somos embajadores de Cristo (2 Corintios 5:20). Nuestras acciones y reacciones hacia los visitantes de la misa comunican quiénes somos y a quién representamos. Tomemos tiempo para dar la bienvenida a los visitantes a nuestra parroquia este verano.

To Those Who Bring Small Children to Church

There you are at church. Your baby or toddler is restless. Perhaps even a little boisterous. You try to silence them, and nothing. You try to pacify them with food or toys, and nothing. Eventually, you resort to the last thing you wanted to do: you pick them up, and before a watching audience, you make the march out of the church. All the while you're a little embarrassed, maybe a little frustrated too. You might even think to yourself, "There's no point in coming to church. I get nothing out of it because I have to constantly care for my kid."

We want you – mothers and/or fathers – to know just how encouraging you are to so many. The elderly woman who often feels alone beams with a smile at the sight of you wrestling with your little one. She's been there before. She knows how hard it can be, but she smiles because to hear that brings back precious memories. Seeing young parents and their small children brighten her day; she may have just received bad news about her health but seeing the vitality of young ones removes – if but for a moment – her fears. The older man who always seems to be grouchy notices you too. He's always talking about how children in this day have no respect or sense of goodness. But he sees you – a young family – in church every week. Like clockwork, he can depend on the sight of you and your young family. You give him hope that maybe the Church isn't doomed after all, because there are still young parents who love God enough to bring their restless children to church.

Bring your children to church! If we don't hear crying, the church is dying. As hard as it might be for you as a parent who'd half-asleep, keep on doing what you're doing. You are an encouragement, and you're starting off your children's lives as you should.
