JULY 17, 2022

SIXTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

PRAYER AND SERVICE

How do we bring balance and joy to our lives of prayer and service to our loving God?

In the Gospel today, Jesus tells Martha that her concern about doing the right thing as dictated by Jewish tradition might not be the best use of her energies. Her sister, Mary, who sits in rapt attention at Jesus' feet, should not be rebuked. Is Jesus trying to show Martha that she needs to make time for her spiritual nourishment?

Abraham and Sarah in the first reading seem to be just like Martha. And yet Abraham's eager welcome and joyful serving of his "visitors" seems almost spiritual. How like Paul, in the second reading, rejoicing in his service to the gospel!

We hear in the psalm that those who do justice will live in the Lord's presence. Prayer and service—what greater joy could there be?

Fun Fact to help the Environment

Aluminum can be recycled forever! Unlike paper which has a limit as to the times, it can be recycled, aluminum can be recycled forever. Recycling a can made of aluminum produces energy enough to run a television for three hours. How many hours and televisions can be run given that we use 80 trillion cans per year? Be sure to recycle your aluminum cans!

GOSPEL REFLECTION FOR NEXT SUNDAY
 The Seventeenth Sunday in Ordinary Time
Luke 11: 1-13

Our fifth week in this Jerusalem Journey is coming up. It would be easy in the coming weekend to think that the next characteristic of a disciple is prayerfulness, but that's silly. Of course, they are prayerful. There is another quality behind this story. It is "perseverance" or "persistence." What is revealed here is the secret to affective prayer. It's not the use of the right words, the right formula, or the right sequence of dates (novenas). It is perseverance in the relationship no matter how things are going. Our culture makes this look foolish. It throws away anything that fails to make us feel good or anything that is slow or a pleasure that is not instant. This makes a disciple of Jesus look oddly out of place. So, that's just the way it is for those who have set their face on Jerusalem and choose to be formed by Jesus Christ along the way. Those who say: "Teach us to pray" are not seeking the right words, but a breakthrough to the one thing necessary to keep them on their journey. That breakthrough is the Holy Spirit. It is the Spirit that can and will sustain us through all temptations, trials and fear. This is what Jesus has ultimately come to give.

PRAY FOR PEACE AND SAFETY:

If you have a family member serving overseas, please let us know. We will publish their names in the bulletin to remind everyone to ask God's blessings on them, that they may return safely to their families. Let us join our prayers for peace and safety with yours. Also, please let us know when they return home safely so that we may rejoice with you.

The Preciousness of Life

It is not so difficult to understand why, through all the ages, people searching for the meaning of life tried to live as close to nature as possible. Not only St. Benedict, St. Francis, and St. Bruno in the olden days, but also Thomas Merton, who lived in the woods of Kentucky, and the Benedictine monks who built their monastery in an isolated canyon in New Mexico. It is not so strange that many young people are leaving the cities and going out into the country to find peace by listening to the voices of nature. And nature indeed speaks: the birds to St. Francis, the trees to the Native Americans, the river to Siddhartha. And the closer we come to nature, the closer we touch the core of life when we celebrate. Nature makes us aware of the preciousness of life. Nature tells us that life is precious not only because it is, but also because it does not have to be.

Henri Nouwen

“Stewardship is the grateful response of a Christian disciple who recognizes and receives God’s gifts and shares these gifts in love of God and neighbor.”

BE A GOOD STEWARD OF YOUR LEISURE TIME

The air in July seems to be filled with the music of birds and the hum of insects. We hear the happy sounds of picnickers, boaters, golfers, fireworks, kids splashing in the pool, and concerts in the park. It is a celebratory time, a time when people take vacation or welcome visitors from afar or young adults’ home from college. We think of July as a fun time, a time for rest and relaxation, a time for leisure. It is important to be a good steward of the wonders of summer, a good steward of our time of rest and renewal, a good steward of leisure. A time to recharge our batteries is all part of leading a healthy, balanced life. We recall that Jesus advised his disciples to “. . .go off to a secluded place and rest” (Mark 6:31). Stewardship calls us to nurture and care for God’s gifts which include taking care of the gift that is ourselves. So, make leisure a priority this July. Simplify your activities and focus on relationships, resting, recreating, and enjoying the beauty of God’s world. Ease up on planning the perfect party or barbecue and instead focus on the fun of everyone chipping in to spend time together. Give yourself space to be alone amid summer’s fun. Be healthy in eating and drinking. Long walks at dawn or dusk and plenty of exercise will aid both your body and your spirit, as will enjoying the wealth of summer’s bounty and the produce of our gardens and farmers’ markets. Consider activities that add variety to our lives and relationships. Make time for those books piling up on the bookshelf. Do something out of the ordinary. Plan a long lunch with an old friend, or enjoy jazz “on the green.” But do not add heavy burdens of preparation and commitment. Scale down. Relax. Let go. Be spontaneous. Be a good steward of your leisure time. Bask in the glory of summer’s long days. This will not only prove restorative but will reveal more acutely the blessings of God’s creation and help us discover in new ways the wonder of our loved ones and ourselves.

SEA UN BUEN MAYORDOMO DE SU TIEMPO LIBRE

El aire en julio parece estar lleno de la música de los pájaros y el zumbido de los insectos. Escuchamos los sonidos felices de los excursionistas, navegantes, golfistas, fuegos artificiales, niños chapoteando en la piscina y conciertos en el parque. Es un momento de celebración, un momento en el que las personas toman vacaciones o dan la bienvenida a visitantes de lugares lejanos o a jóvenes adultos que regresan de la universidad. Pensamos en julio como un tiempo de diversión, un tiempo de descanso y relajación, un tiempo de ocio. Es importante ser un buen mayordomo de las maravillas del verano, un buen mayordomo de nuestro tiempo de descanso y renovación, un buen mayordomo del ocio. Un momento para recargar nuestras baterías es parte de llevar una vida sana y equilibrada. Recordamos que Jesús aconsejó a sus discípulos “. . .vete a un lugar apartado y descansa” (Marcos 6:31). La mayordomía nos llama a nutrir y cuidar los dones de Dios, lo que incluye cuidar el don que somos nosotros mismos. Así que, haz del ocio una prioridad este mes de julio. Simplifique sus actividades y concéntrese en las relaciones, el descanso, la recreación y el disfrute de la belleza del mundo de Dios. Relájese en la planificación de la fiesta o parrillada perfecta y, en su lugar, concéntrese en la diversión de que todos participen para pasar tiempo juntos. Date espacio para estar solo en medio de la diversión del verano. Sea saludable en el comer y el beber. Largos caminatas al amanecer o al anochecer y mucho ejercicio ayudarán tanto a su cuerpo como a su espíritu, al igual que disfrutar de la riqueza de la generosidad del verano y los productos de nuestros jardines y mercados de agricultores. Considere actividades que agreguen variedad a nuestras vidas y relaciones. Haz tiempo para esos libros que se acumulan en la estantería. Haz algo fuera de lo común. Planee un largo almuerzo con un viejo amigo o disfrute del jazz “en el jardín”. Pero no añadas pesadas cargas de preparación y compromiso. Reduce la intensidad proporcionalmente. Relájate. Deja pasar lo que te estrese. Sé espontáneo. Sea un buen mayordomo de su tiempo libre. Disfruta de la gloria de los largos días de verano. Esto no solo resultará restaurador, sino que revelará más agudamente las bendiciones de la creación de Dios y nos ayudará a descubrir de nuevas maneras la maravilla de nuestros seres queridos y de nosotros mismos.
