JULY 24, 2022

SEVENTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

CONVERSATION WITH GOD

Prayer is our focus this weekend. In the Gospel, Jesus gives his disciples, and us, the Lord's Prayer, which we have cherished through the centuries. The first two words encompass much about our faith—unity among all Christians (Our), and a sense that we are in a deeply bonded relationship with God (Father).

In Genesis, we see Abraham in conversational prayer, in his creaturely humility before his Creator, seeking mercy and compassion for the innocent. The psalm is a lyrical prayer of thanksgiving and praise for the God who answered the sincere prayers of a people who had called out for help, showing them mercy. In Luke's Gospel, the disciples want to pray like Jesus, with the same intimacy—to experience God as Abba in the depths of their being.

Do we try to talk to God? Do we listen for answers?

St. Agnes Altar Server Training

Saturday, August 20

Captains and Co-captains meet from 10-11 a.m. All current servers, and those wishing to become servers, (incoming 4th graders and older), will meet from 11 a.m.-1 p.m. Lunch for all will be served at 1 p.m.

Opportunities to serve at both St. Agnes and the Palmetto Ridge High School Masses.

Being an Altar Server is a call to prayer and mission

—Pope Francis

In the Hospital?

Please ask the nurse to contact the parish that serves the Hospital you are in for the Sacrament of Anointing of the Sick, and/or Communion.

This is the most efficient way to be sure you or your loved one will receive the sacrament. Be aware that because of HIPAA Privacy regulations, hospitals do not necessarily notify the parish regarding your hospitalization unless requested by the patient.

GOSPEL REFLECTION FOR NEXT SUNDAY

The Eighteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Luke 12: 13-21

A fool will teach us the next quality of disciple in the coming week. The life of the man we hear about is vain. It is empty. In spite of the wealth he accumulates, his biggest concern is how to hang on to it and get more. Foolish! So, a disciple of Jesus learns from the master that setting worthy priorities is an essential quality. In the end it is the greatest challenge to greed and the kind of emptiness that drives so many into desperate lives of loneliness and sadness. The disciple cultivates a way of relating to the things of this life that is independent and free. What we carry into the next life is what we have done with what we have been given. This is a quality of Wisdom that gives purpose, direction, meaning, and fulness to life. It is a way of using what we have not to get more, but to be more; more faithful, more generous, more like God, concerned, and responsible for one another's needs. Wise stewards is what we become as we move along toward Jerusalem. Rich in wisdom, purpose, and usefulness, disciples ask: "What shall I do with what I have?" The answer is NOT "Build bigger barns."

—Fr. Tom Boyer

World Day of Prayer for Grandparents and the Elderly

Grandparents and the elderly are cherished members of our family. They bring gifts of wisdom, experience, and love and share with us their life of faith. We thank God for their example and ask that he bless them with happiness and good health.

PRAY FOR PEACE AND SAFETY:

If you have a family member serving overseas, please let us know. We will publish their names in the bulletin to remind everyone to ask God's blessings on them, that they may return safely to their families. Let us join our prayers for peace and safety with yours. Also, please let us know when they return home safely so that we may rejoice with you.

The Most Universal is the Most Personal

When only our minds and hands work together we quickly become dependent on the results of our actions and tend to give up when they do not materialize. In the solitude of the heart we can truly listen to the pains of the world because there we can recognize them not as strange and unfamiliar pains, but as pains that are indeed our own. There we can see that what is most universal is most personal and that indeed nothing human is strange to us. There we can feel that the cruel reality of history is indeed the reality of the human heart, our own included, and that to protest asks, first of all, for a confession of our own participation in the human condition. There we can indeed respond.

Henri Nouwen

“Stewardship is the grateful response of a Christian disciple who recognizes and receives God’s gifts and shares these gifts in love of God and neighbor.”

HOW DO WE PRAY?

Many years ago, a group of seminarians were gathered, and their Novice Master instructed them, “Now remember, you are not allowed to chew gum while you are praying.” One of the seminarians asked, “But, Father, is it okay to pray while we’re chewing gum?” “Of course,” the Novice Master replied, leaving them wondering just how to follow these contradictory instructions.

This story illustrates that prayer is both an activity on its own as well as a way of living out one’s entire life. Prayer can be formal or informal, verbal, or nonverbal, active, or contemplative. Prayer is communicating with God. Just as we talk and share with our best friends what is happening in our lives, so we talk and share with God. Just as we listen to our friends, so we listen to God.

As in human communication, our communication with God can be expressed in a variety of ways. We communicate with God using words and songs, in imagination and silence, and ritually or spontaneously. We can pray in church, our gardens, our cars, or while in the shower. We can also pray lying in bed, as the first thing we do when we awake, and as the last thing we do as we drift off to sleep. One of the characteristics of prayer we as Catholics believe is that with the right intention every moment of the day—all our hopes, works, joys, and sufferings—can become our prayer.

–Loyola Press

Now that we know how to pray, please consider if God is calling you to use your gifts as an Extraordinary Minister of the Eucharist. Training for this important ministry will be held in the church on Saturday, August 27th from 10 a.m. until Noon. Call Gloria Carter, 239-592-1949 X 118 or email gloria@stagnesnaples.org.

¿CÓMO ORAMOS?

Hace muchos años, se reunió un grupo de seminaristas y su maestro de novicios les dijo: “Ahora recuerden, no se les permite mascar chicle mientras oran”. Uno de los seminaristas preguntó: “Pero, padre, ¿está bien orar mientras masticamos chicle?”. “Por supuesto”, respondió el maestro de novicios, dejándolos preguntándose cómo seguir estas instrucciones contradictorias.

Esta historia ilustra que la oración es tanto una actividad en sí misma como una forma de vivir toda la vida. La oración puede ser formal o informal, verbal o no verbal, activa o contemplativa. La oración es comunicarse con Dios. Así como hablamos y compartimos con nuestros mejores amigos lo que está pasando en nuestras vidas, así hablamos y compartimos con Dios. Así como escuchamos a nuestros amigos, así escuchamos a Dios.

Al igual que en la comunicación humana, nuestra comunicación con Dios puede expresarse de diversas maneras. Nos comunicamos con Dios usando palabras y canciones, en la imaginación y el silencio, y ritual o espontáneamente. Podemos orar en la iglesia, en nuestros jardines, en nuestros autos o mientras nos duchamos. También podemos orar acostados en la cama, como lo primero que hacemos cuando nos despertamos y como lo último que hacemos cuando nos quedamos dormidos. Una de las características de la oración que creemos como católicos es que con la intención correcta, cada momento del día, todas nuestras esperanzas, trabajos, alegrías y sufrimientos, pueden convertirse en nuestra oración.

–Prensa Loyola

Ahora que sabemos cómo orar, considere si Dios lo está llamando a usar sus dones como Ministro Extraordinario de la Eucaristía. La capacitación para este importante ministerio se llevará a cabo en la iglesia el sábado 27 de agosto de 10 a. m. al mediodía. Llame a Gloria Carter, 239-592-1949 X 118 o envíe un correo electrónico a gloria@stagnesnaples.org.
