JULY 31, 2022

EIGHTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

THE CENTER OF A MEANINGFUL LIFE

Today's readings invite us to reflect upon some of life's deepest questions, and to explore the meaning of faith. We hear of the universal human search for meaning in our lives in the book of Ecclesiastes. In Luke's Gospel, we hear Jesus' parable about one who foolishly seeks ultimate security through the accumulation of wealth. In Colossians, faith in the crucified and resurrected Christ is proclaimed as the path to a richly purposeful and meaningful life. The path of Christian faith places our work, our sufferings, and our limitations within the larger picture of God's purposes for all of us. In Jesus, God is revealed as our companion in human suffering and limitation. God's love is at the center of a meaningful life. We place our trust in this loving God, who created us to share in this love, and to share this love with others.

GOSPEL REFLECTION FOR NEXT SUNDAY

The Nineteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Luke 12: 32-48

Fearless is the quality of a disciple we shall learn about next weekend. The first fear deep in the human psyche is the fear of abandonment; the fear of being alone. This fear quickly causes other fears.

If I'm alone no one is going to take care of me.

If I'm alone, no one is going to feed me, give me shelter, protect me. Behavior then begins to address the fear. The next thought is: "Then I had better take care of myself." This triggers all sorts of things:

hoarding, possessiveness, all kinds of aggressive behavior and attitudes. Jesus speaks to this very directly: "Sell" and "Give" are the directives easy only for those with no fear. The confident assurance that even if we feel alone, the master will return calms the anxious disciple with the assurance that there is always plenty, and "inexhaustible treasure".

Jesus calls us to a life of discipleship that would certainly be frightening if we were to be in it alone.

But he never asks that. We are given the gift of freedom. It means we are free from fear. Embracing that gift, we can look ahead not for something bad to happen, but for the master to return and treat us as friends not as servants.

*-Fr. Tom BoyerEXTRAORDINARY MINISTERS OF THE EUCHARIST NEEDED

Please consider if God is calling you to use your gifts as an Extraordinary Minister of the Eucharist. Training for this important ministry will be held in the church on Saturday, August 27th from 10 a.m. until Noon. Call Gloria Carter, 239-592-1949 X 118 or email gloria@stagnesnaples.org.

PRAY FOR PEACE AND SAFETY:

If you have a family member serving overseas, please let us know. We will publish their names in the bulletin to remind everyone to ask God's blessings on them, that they may return safely to their families. Let us join our prayers for peace and safety with yours. Also, please let us know when they return home safely so that we may rejoice with you.

It's All How You Look at It

The great conversion in our life is to recognize and believe that the many unexpected events are not just disturbing interruptions in our projects, but the way in which God molds our hearts and prepares us for his return. Our great temptations are boredom and bitterness. When our good plans are interrupted by poor weather, our well-organized careers by illness or bad luck, our peace of mind by inner turmoil, our hope for peace by a new war, our desire for a stable government by a constant changing of the guards, and our desire for immortality by real death, we are tempted to give in to a paralyzing boredom or to strike back in destructive bitterness. But when we believe that patience can make our expectations grow, then fate can be converted into a vocation, wounds into a call for deeper understanding, and sadness into a birthplace of joy.

Henri Nouwen

“Stewardship is the grateful response of a Christian disciple who recognizes and receives God’s gifts and shares these gifts in love of God and neighbor.”

THE WEALTHY MAN’S FOOLISHNESS

The rich man who had a magnificent harvest. He faced a conundrum: “What shall I do with this fantastic harvest? My barns will never hold all of this since they still have last year’s harvest.” His solution makes sense and, in fact, helps him plan for what he anticipates will be big harvests for years to come. He builds bigger barns and thinks now he can rest, eat drink and be merry. (He could have fed the poor with his good harvest.)

Jesus calls him a “fool,” which is strange because Jesus said earlier in the Gospel, “Call no man a fool” (Mt 5:22). But, of course, in the parable, the man is just that—a fool. One definition of a fool is a person who cannot or does not see reality for what it is. And no one is more a fool than one who takes himself out of the ordinary circumstances

God is surely not condemning this man’s arduous work and dedication. God is not condemning wealth or riches that the man acquired. Sometimes we can get that impression from the Scriptures Jesus’ teaching is about the blind attitude of the rich man in assuming that his needs were covered for years to come. In a way, he was acting like God and presumed he knew the future. In fact, he predicted his future to be one in which he could eat, drink, and be merry. There is absolutely no guarantee to anyone about the future.

The reason is simple: no one has control over the millions of circumstances that can and will affect his or her life. The most powerful man on earth can be laid low by a tiny blood clot that travels to his heart. The wealthiest man in the world can stumble, fall, and hit his head. An accident or an unforeseen disease can strike anyone at any time. The fool is one who sees himself as secure based on material things and therefore has a false sense of security.

Jesus says that our security, no matter the circumstances, comes from our faith in God and in our desire to live our lives as best we can in accordance with the will of God. In doing that, our future takes care of itself.

What is wonderful about the Gospel is that we are reminded of the realities of life and death. Our hope and peace of mind lie in our reliance on God. In the end it comes down to this little prayer, “Dear Lord, I am yours, and I am thankful that you are mine.”

LA LOCURA DEL HOMBRE RICO

El hombre rico que tuvo una cosecha magnífica. Se enfrentó a un dilema: “¿Qué haré con esta fantástica cosecha? Mis graneros nunca podrán contener todo esto ya que todavía tienen la cosecha del año pasado”. Su solución tiene sentido y, de hecho, lo ayuda a planificar lo que anticipa serán grandes cosechas en los próximos años. Él construye graneros más grandes y cree que ahora puede descansar, comer, beber y divertirse. (Él podría haber alimentado a los pobres con su buena cosecha.)

Jesús lo llama “necio”, lo cual es extraño porque Jesús dijo anteriormente en el Evangelio: “No llares tonto a nadie” (Mt 5:22). Pero, por supuesto, en la parábola, el hombre es solo eso: un tonto. Una definición de tonto es una persona que no puede o no ve la realidad tal como es. Y nadie es más tonto que el que se sale de las circunstancias ordinarias.

Seguramente Dios no está condenando el arduo trabajo y la dedicación de este hombre. Dios no está condenando la riqueza o las riquezas que el hombre adquirió. A veces podemos tener esa impresión de las Escrituras, la enseñanza de Jesús se trata de la actitud ciega del hombre rico al asumir que sus necesidades estaban cubiertas en los años venideros. En cierto modo, estaba actuando como Dios y suponía que conocía el futuro. De hecho, predijo que su futuro sería uno en el que podría comer, beber y divertirse. No hay absolutamente ninguna garantía para nadie sobre el futuro.

La razón es simple: nadie tiene control sobre los millones de circunstancias que pueden y afectarán su vida. El hombre más poderoso de la tierra puede ser derribado por un pequeño coágulo de sangre que viaja hasta su corazón. El hombre más rico del mundo puede tropezar, caer y golpearse la cabeza. Un accidente o una enfermedad imprevista puede afectar a cualquier persona en cualquier momento. El tonto es aquel que se ve a sí mismo como seguro en base a las cosas materiales y por lo tanto tiene una falsa sensación de seguridad.

Jesús dice que nuestra seguridad, sin importar las circunstancias, proviene de nuestra fe en Dios y de nuestro deseo de vivir nuestras vidas lo mejor que podamos de acuerdo con la voluntad de Dios. Al hacer eso, nuestro futuro se cuida solo.

Lo maravilloso del Evangelio es que nos recuerda las realidades de la vida y la muerte. Nuestra esperanza y paz mental radican en nuestra confianza en Dios. Al final todo se reduce a esta pequeña oración: “Querido Señor, soy tuyo y estoy agradecido de que seas mío”.

FRANCISCAN AT HOME

Online learning at your convenience

The Department of Education with the Diocese of Venice in Florida has partnered with the Franciscan University to offer online classes in scripture, prayer, ethics, sacraments and youth ministry plus many more courses on Catholicism are available. Each parish in the Diocese of Venice sponsors an annual subscription for these great courses. Many chose to complete a certificate in catechesis or take courses to learn more about the Catholic Faith. Courses are offered online in English or Spanish. To set up an account, go to the Franciscan at Home website and find the Diocese of Venice as a partnering Diocese. Sign up and begin learning the Catholic Faith for no cost!
