AUGUST 7, 2022

NINETEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

FAITH

Our readings today explore how faith begins and how faith works. Faith begins with God's initiative of love, together with God's promise about the future. The passage from Hebrews urges readers to have an assured confidence in God, who promised and delivered a lasting legacy to Abraham. The book of Wisdom reminds readers of the God who promised and delivered freedom from slavery during the Exodus. In the Gospel passage from Luke, Jesus begins with the promise that "your Father is pleased to give you the Kingdom," before describing how to live faithfully during times when God seems absent. God's promises mean that God is fully invested in our future. Living in these promises, we can confidently let go of fear and insecurity. We can anticipate that when God intervenes in our lives, it will be for our benefit. And we can become God's partners in fulfilling these divine promises.

GOSPEL REFLECTION FOR NEXT SUNDAY

The Twentieth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Luke 12: 49-53

Next week's Gospel will present a challenge when it comes to sorting out the virtue Jesus is proposing for his disciples. At first glance, it would be easy to think that Jesus proposes disciples be trouble makers or ranting fanatics who wreck relationships and destroy families. Don't go there. Look deeper. It's about "ZEAL". It's about a person whose life has purpose, meaning, and a destiny. Someone who can say, "I have come to set the earth on fire" knows what they are about, who they are, and for what purpose they have life. These are not aimless drifters who go after one thing one day and then something else the next. They are not shopping around for a religion nor picking and choosing to avoid the challenge of doctrine, truth or the conversion of their lives. There is a vibrant quality about these disciples. They are eager and expectant, vigilant and ready for the Lord's coming that shows itself in a devotion to the tasks of prayer and service that are consistent with their relationship with the Lord. The zealous are focused on the direction of their lives, their future, their purpose and their goal.

God Stays With Us

I really don't know if our civilization will survive the century. Considering the growing threat of nuclear holocaust there certainly is a reason to wonder. But important for me is not if our civilization will survive or not but if we can continue to live with hope, and I really think we can because our Lord has given us his promise that he will stay with us at all times. He is the God of the living. He has overcome evil and death and his love is stronger than any form of death and destruction. That is why I feel that we should continually avoid the temptation of despair and deepen our awareness that God is present in the midst of all the chaos that surrounds us and that that presence allows us to live joyfully and peacefully in a world so filled with sorrow and conflict.

Henri Nouwen

“Stewardship is the grateful response of a Christian disciple who recognizes and receives God’s gifts and shares these gifts in love of God and neighbor.”

STEWARDSHIP OF TIME AND TALENT

Living a stewardship life means acknowledging that we are called to be stewards of the gifts that God has entrusted to us. We must receive these gifts with gratitude, cultivate them responsibly, and share them lovingly and unselfishly with others. In his first letter to Saint Timothy, Paul writes, “Tell them to do good, to be rich in good works, to be generous, and ready to share.” (1 Timothy 6:18)

Personal responsibility in the use of our God-given gifts is inseparable from genuine stewardship. It entails a full accountability for one’s life and one’s gifts, acknowledging that God is the true owner and the creator of all. It is a life-long journey of following in the steps of Jesus Christ who loved us so much that he laid down his life for us. How can we not return his love by sharing with others in his name all that we have?

Stewardship of Treasure

Stewardship of treasure starts with the understanding that we are not isolated individuals, but that we live in a community called the “Body of Christ.” Living in this community incurs a financial commitment in support of the community not unlike the financial commitment to support our families. It starts with one’s prayerful reflection about the contribution that will be allotted in support of the church and its activities. It involves an up-front budgeting decision to contribute this amount on a consistent basis—not simply to drop in the collection basket what is left over at the end of the week. Ask yourself, “Do I give to God first, or do I give to God what is left over?” Give until it feels good! Saint Luke advises,

“Much will be required of the person entrusted with much; and still more will be demanded of the person entrusted with more.”

(Luke 12:48)

-St. Elizabeth Parish, Pennsylvania

MAYORDOMÍA DE TIEMPO Y TALENTO

Vivir una vida de corresponsabilidad significa reconocer que estamos llamados a ser administradores de los dones que Dios nos ha confiado. Debemos recibir estos dones con gratitud, cultivarlos responsablemente y compartirlos con amor y desinterés con los demás. En su primera carta a San Timoteo, Pablo escribe: “Diles que hagan el bien, que sean ricos en buenas obras, que sean generosos y estén dispuestos a compartir.” (1 Timoteo 6:18)

La responsabilidad personal en el uso de nuestros dones dados por Dios es inseparable de una genuina mayordomía. Implica una plena responsabilidad por la propia vida y los propios dones, reconociendo que Dios es el verdadero dueño y creador de todo. Es un camino de toda la vida siguiendo los pasos de Jesucristo, quien nos amó tanto que dio su vida por nosotros. ¿Cómo no corresponder a su amor compartiendo con otros en su nombre todo lo que tenemos?

Mayordomía del tesoro

La mayordomía del tesoro comienza con la comprensión de que no somos individuos aislados, sino que vivimos en una comunidad llamada el “Cuerpo de Cristo”. Vivir en esta comunidad implica un compromiso financiero para apoyar a la comunidad, similar al compromiso financiero para apoyar a nuestras familias. Comienza con una reflexión en oración sobre la contribución que se asignará para apoyar a la iglesia y sus actividades. Se trata de una decisión presupuestaria inicial para contribuir con esta cantidad de manera constante, no simplemente dejar caer en la canasta de recolección lo que queda al final de la semana. Pregúntese: “¿Le doy a Dios primero, o le doy a Dios lo que sobra?” ¡Dé hasta que se sienta bien! San Lucas aconseja,

“Mucho se requerirá de la persona a quien se le ha confiado mucho; y aún más se demandará de la persona a quien se le haya confiado más.”

(Lucas 12:48)

OFFICE OF THE BISHOP

July 29, 2022

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ, In Africa, the Catholic Church has almost tripled in size in the past 30 years. This growth is in spite of the challenges of poverty, epidemic, political unrest and natural disaster. However, it is daunting to meet the immense pastoral needs of their people while the continent remains in a state of constant conflict.

The Solidarity Fund for the Church in Africa supports our brothers and sisters living in this region by providing grants to finance outreach programs, evangelization, education of clergy and lay ministers, as well as schools, which provide religious education for the children. Your donations also provide funds to host programs that foster tolerance and respect between neighbors, contributing to interreligious cooperation and more peaceful communities in a number of places across Africa.

The Collection for Solidarity with the Church in Africa will be the weekend of August 13 and 14, 2022. The Church in Africa needs your financial assistance to ensure the Faithful have access to resources to help them grow in faith. Further, please pray for our African sisters and brothers.

I take this opportunity to extend to you my continued consideration and my prayers! May God bless you abundantly.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

+ Frank J. Dewane
Bishop of the Diocese of Venice in Florida
