TWENTY-FIRST SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

GOD'S PEOPLE GATHER

Our readings today remind us of the larger story of the Bible, of God's purposes and promises for the world. Because of humanity's rejection of God, as told in Genesis, human communities were first dispersed. Isaiah proclaims that one day God will gather these communities to be healed and reconciled with God. In Luke's Gospel, Jesus echoes Isaiah and teaches that all peoples in God's promised future "will recline at table in the kingdom of God." Notice that in Isaiah, the nations coming to God do not lose their ethnicity or unique identity. They bring their own distinct cultural gifts to God's table. Each people has its unique history with God, has received distinct blessings from God, and each is accountable to God. Today, we live in a global and multi-cultural Church. When God's diverse peoples gather in worship today, may we honor and celebrate each other's gifts and blessings.

GOSPEL REFLECTION FOR NEXT SUNDAY
 The Twenty-second Sunday in Ordinary Time
Luke 14: 1, 7-14

Humble is the kind of disciple Jesus is forming on the way to Jerusalem, and the Jerusalem for us is the Kingdom of Heaven. The world in which Jesus lived thought that humility was about passivity, weakness, or feebleness. The Greek thought at the time held this in contempt. Jesus, schooled in the Wisdom of Ben Sira (first reading) saw it otherwise. He saw it as a way to come near to the truth. Jesus and his disciples know the truth about who they are and what they are. The humble find their identity in God not in what others think of them. Humility is not pretending that one is “not worthy”. It is facing the truth that all is a gift, and the only proper attitude is not pride or arrogance, but simply Gratitude. We who have set ourselves on the road to Jerusalem as disciples never forget the truth that all this stuff we have is not ours, and we are not better than anyone because of it. We cannot ever forget that what we have is there because we have been chosen by God to be instruments of God’s love, of God’s mercy, and God’s goodness. This is the truth that bears fruit in Humility. It is how disciples of Jesus will be known.
 –Fr. Tom Boyer

Compassion

Compassion asks us to go where it hurts, to enter into the places of pain, to share in brokenness, fear, confusion, and anguish. Compassion challenges us to cry out with those in misery, to mourn with those who are lonely, to weep with those in tears. Compassion requires us to be weak with the weak, vulnerable with the vulnerable, and powerless with the powerless. Compassion means full immersion in the condition of being human.

A SUNDAY OF PRAYER-FILLED TEARS

Do you have a loved one who has left the practice of the faith or rejects what we hold dear as Catholics?

As we celebrate the Feast Day of St. Monica, we will follow her example of unceasing prayer of these loved ones.

Together as a community we will pray for all our loved ones to return with a whole heart to Christ and his Church

Please write the name of a loved one who has left the church or is struggling with their faith in the prayer-filled tears book in the back of the Church. This book will be processed with the offertory at all Masses on the weekend of August 27 & 28.

ST. MONICA FEAST DAY AUGUST 27

For many years and shedding of many tears St. Monica prayed unceasingly to God for her son, St. Augustine's conversion. She shows us perseverance in prayer and confidence that our good efforts matter, even if the desired outcome is delayed or different than what we may have expected. Her prayers were answered after decades. Throughout, she had a deep and abiding faith in Christ.

St. Monica, pray for us.

“ Stewardship is the grateful response of a Christian disciple who recognizes and receives God’s gifts and shares these gifts in love of God and neighbor. ”

How can we not return his love by sharing with others in his name all that we have?

Take time to fill out and What are my Treasures and the Personal Time Analysis.

MIS REGALOS Y ANÁLISIS DE TIEMPO PERSONAL

La responsabilidad personal en el uso de nuestros dones dados por Dios es inseparable de una genuina mayordomía. Implica una plena responsabilidad por la propia vida y los propios dones, reconociendo que Dios es el verdadero dueño y creador de todo. Es un camino de toda la vida siguiendo los pasos de Jesucristo, quien nos amó tanto que dio su vida por nosotros. ¿Cómo no corresponder a su amor compartiendo con otros en su nombre todo lo que tenemos? Tómese el tiempo para completar Cuáles son mis Tesoros y el Análisis de Tiempo Personal. Estos son para que usted los guarde y reflexione sobre ellos. Puede que nos lleve tiempo comprender que todos tenemos dones especiales y únicos para compartir con los demás.

Some things just couldn't wait!

Although we have much bigger plans for an eventual Parish Center renovation, the carpet in the lobby and hallway desperately needed to go! Come check out our new vinyl plank flooring. We know you will appreciate the improvement!

It is my pleasure to welcome the second annual Together in Holiness conference to the Diocese of Venice on Saturday, October 22nd, the Feast of St. John Paul II. An invitation to all married and engaged couples to join me at this inspiring event is warmly extended. This day of prayer and presentations will enable each couple to reflect upon the great gift of the marriage vocation entrusted to them. I pray that through the intercession of St. John Paul II, the 'Pope of the family,' this day will be fruitful for all.
