TWENTIETH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

PROPHETS

We reflect upon the voice of the prophet in this Sunday's readings. We hear of the suffering and the rescue of Jeremiah.

We hear how Jesus anticipates his suffering and death. As with Jeremiah and Jesus, the prophets were sent by God to the leaders and people of Israel. A prophet is one who speaks truth to the powerful, exposing their darker hidden motives and injustices. The prophet presents a way forward that aligns with God's purposes. A prophet can force people away from a comfortable neutrality or indifference. The prophet creates an urgency to make a choice: Are we content with the status quo, or are we to change our ways and pursue a new and better path? Today, we may also ask, how do we identify and respond to prophets of our time? How might we provide a prophetic voice in our Church and in our world?

In the Hospital?

Please ask the nurse to contact the parish that serves the Hospital you are in for the Sacrament of Anointing of the Sick, and/or Communion.

This is the most efficient way to be sure you or your loved one will receive the sacrament. Be aware that because of HIPAA Privacy regulations, hospitals do not necessarily notify the parish regarding your hospitalization unless requested by the patient.

GOSPEL REFLECTION FOR NEXT SUNDAY

The Twenty-first Sunday in Ordinary Time

Luke 13: 22-30

Disciples of Jesus are saved. That's the virtue and life-style explored next weekend. Jesus never answers the question put to him in next week's Gospel. He simply makes it clear that it is not enough to be baptized, not enough to receive communion if we do not try to achieve it. It is not enough to take the bread which is Christ's body if we do not break bread to feed the hungry members of Christ's body. It is not enough to seek comfort, forgiveness and love if we have not given comfort, forgiveness and love. The whole idea of a "few" being saved come from a world that saw everything as limited. There was only so much to go around including salvation. Competition was endemic to religion and economic life. This is exactly what Jesus confronts. He does not reveal a God who has only so much to go around, but a God who is very inclusive. Remember that the word "Save" is linked to the word, "Salve", a healing ointment. Saved disciples are healed from all that keeps them from the holy. They know that there are no reserved tables in the Kingdom of heaven and while always open, the door is narrow and all guests will welcome others.

EXTRAORDINARY MINISTERS OF THE EUCHARIST NEEDED

Please consider if God is calling you to use your gifts as an Extraordinary Minister of the Eucharist. Training for this important ministry will be held in the church on Saturday, August 27th from 10 a.m. until Noon. Call Gloria Carter, 239-592-1949 X 118 or email gloria@stagnesnaples.org.

PRAY FOR PEACE AND SAFETY:

If you have a family member serving overseas, please let us know. We will publish their names in the bulletin to remind everyone to ask God's blessings on them, that they may return safely to their families. Let us join our prayers for peace and safety with yours. Also, please let us know when they return home safely so that we may rejoice with you.

TWENTIETH SUNDAY OF ORDINARY TIME

First Reading: Jeremiah 38:4-6, 8-10

Second Reading: Hebrews 12:1-4

Gospel: Luke 12:49-53

Adults: When has your taking a strong stand on a moral issue created division rather than healing in the short term?

¿Cuándo el hecho de tomar una posición firme sobre un tema moral ha creado división en lugar de curación a corto plazo?

Children: Is it important to do the right thing even if others are angry as a result? Why or why not?

¿Es importante hacer lo correcto incluso si los demás están enojados como resultado? ¿Por qué o por qué no?

Your Inner Hermitage

Try to keep a little hermitage in the center of your being, where you can continue your prayer even during a busy day. A simple prayer such as "Lord Jesus Christ, Son of the living God, have mercy on me a sinner" can give you much consolation and strength when you allow it to remain present in your inner hermitage.

It is the way to let the Spirit of God pray in you.

Henri Nouwen

“ Stewardship is the grateful response of a Christian disciple who recognizes and receives God's gifts and shares these gifts in love of God and neighbor. ”

PRACTICING GOOD STEWARDSHIP IN OUR PARISHES

We are still in the grip of a hot and sunny summer, but August brings a wake-up call. By August's end, visiting relatives have gone home, schools will be open, swimming pools will be closed, and college kids have packed up and left for the halls of academia. What is all that mean for the Christian steward? As we journey through August, parishes begin to teem with plans and new vitality.

The parish is where the Church lives, and stewards are the lifeblood of a successful parish. In the parish, we find community and support, liturgy and ritual, sacrament, and healing. In the parish, we find a way to give and a way to receive. On a practical level, fall is the time when parish planning gears up for the seasons ahead. Now, for a Christian steward, is the time to prayerfully consider your own involvement in the life of the parish in the coming year. How might we serve – and be served? The Christian steward knows participation in the parish is a solution where everyone benefits, feeding us as we feed others.

Where to begin? Your parish website or office may provide a list of ministries in the parish. What calls to you? Respond to your deep desire. You are the party planner who would love to serve on the social committee. Or you have a heart for helping the bereaved. Are you called to lector, or to take the Eucharist to the homebound? Maybe this is the year you need to soak in the fruits of adult education. You see a ministry missing and want to propose it. August is a perfect time to reflect on where – not “if” -- you are called. August provides time to decompress from a busy, fun summer and pray about where your own road to discipleship leads you next.

PRACTICANDO LA BUENA CORRESPONSABILIDAD EN NUESTRAS PARROQUIAS

Todavía estamos en las garras de un verano caluroso y soleado, pero agosto trae una llamada de atención. Para fines de agosto, los familiares visitantes se habrán ido a casa, las escuelas estarán abiertas, las piscinas estarán cerradas y los universitarios habrán empacado y se habrán ido a los pasillos de la academia. ¿Qué significa todo eso para el mayordomo cristiano? A medida que avanzamos en agosto, las parroquias comienzan a rebosar de planes y nueva vitalidad.

La parroquia es donde vive la Iglesia, y los delegados son el alma de una parroquia exitosa. En la parroquia encontramos comunidad y apoyo, liturgia y ritual, sacramento y sanación. En la parroquia encontramos una manera de dar y una manera de recibir. En un nivel práctico, el otoño es el momento en que la planificación parroquial se prepara para las próximas estaciones. Ahora, para un corresponsable cristiano, es el momento de considerar en oración su propia participación en la vida de la parroquia en el próximo año. ¿Cómo podemos servir y ser servidos? El corresponsable cristiano sabe que la participación en la parroquia es una solución donde todos se benefician, alimentándonos como alimentamos a los demás.

¿Dónde empezar? El sitio web u oficina de su parroquia puede proporcionar una lista de ministerios en la parroquia. ¿Qué te llama? Responde a tu profundo deseo. Usted es el planificador de fiestas al que le encantaría servir en el comité social. O tienes un corazón para ayudar a los afligidos. ¿Estás llamado a ser lector, oa llevar la Eucaristía a los confinados en casa? Tal vez este sea el año en el que necesite empaparse de los frutos de la educación de adultos. Ves que falta un ministerio y quieres proponerlo. Agosto es un momento perfecto para reflexionar sobre dónde, no “si”, eres llamado. Agosto brinda tiempo para descomprimirse de un verano ocupado y divertido y orar acerca de hacia dónde lo llevará su propio camino hacia el discipulado.
