TWENTY-THIRD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

LIMITS

Today's readings continue the theme of humility explored last Sunday. All three readings today encourage us to admit that we have limits, and God has none. The poignant poetry of Wisdom resonates with all of us who have ever struggled for peace in situations we cannot control: "For the corruptible body burdens the soul and the earthen shelter weighs down the mind that has many concerns." Saint Paul recognizes his own limitations, both physically (he is in prison) and spiritually: he cannot compel his friend to obey his wishes; he can only propose his request and respect Philemon's free will. In the Gospel, Jesus reminds us that God alone can complete the good we wish to do in the world. While we thank God for the gifts we receive—and the families we love—we acknowledge that they are temporary, and humbly cling to God.

GOSPEL REFLECTION FOR NEXT SUNDAY
 The Twenty-fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time
Luke 15: 1-32

Jesus reveals something of the Father next weekend, and in doing so, he reveals a virtue that must be found in disciples. That father in the story is Watchful. We see that virtue in the examples put before us. That man looking for a lost sheep is going to look no matter what anyone else might think. The woman is concerned about nothing except finding that coin. Then there is a father watchful for that son to return. He does not go back to business as usual. He never says or thinks “Forget about him. He’s always going to be that way.” He does not close the door or change the locks. He is simply watchful. It is the same for disciples. In them there is no blame or desire to punish. There is no demand for an apology. These disciples are always on the lookout for opportunities to extend the mercy of God not only to those who are deserving, but to those some insist will never change, never be worthy, nor ever find their way home. For the celebration to begin it takes two movements: one, the return; and then the welcome. In neither case can there be a heart hardened by disappointment, anger, or stubbornness. For this grace, let us pray.

–Fr. Tom Boyer

To Pray is to Live

Maybe someone will say to you, "You have to forgive yourself." But that isn't possible. What is possible is to open your hands without fear, so that the One who loves you can blow your sins away. Then the coins you considered indispensable for your life prove to be little more than light dust that a soft breeze will whirl away, leaving only a grin or a chuckle behind. Then you feel a bit of new freedom and praying becomes a joy, a spontaneous reaction to the world and the people around you. Praying then becomes effortless, inspired, and lively, or peaceful and quiet. When you recognize the festive and the still moments as moments of prayer, then you gradually realize that to pray is to live.

Henri Nouwen

“ Stewardship is the grateful response of a Christian disciple who recognizes and receives God’s gifts and shares these gifts in love of God and neighbor. ”

LABOR DAY

This Labor Day let us remember the power of prayer over our work. Whether you have a job you love, are facing difficulties in the workplace, or are experiencing job loss, God has a plan and purpose for this season in your life.

Prayer can significantly impact the work that we do and the way we see it. Yet in our day-to-day prayers, we often exclude the needs we encounter at work. For whatever reasons, our work and workplaces do not enter our minds as we pray. As a result, we may not experience the fullness of what God wants for us when we are at work. When we start praying for our work, we recognize that God is active in all we do, not just our “personal” or “spiritual” lives. And this is transformative. Yet prayer does not change God’s heart toward our work as much as it changes ours. And when we begin to see our work the way God sees it, we experience the power of prayer and of God’s grace.

Use this prayer on Labor Day and all days to remember that God designed work to be fulfilling and to bring Him honor!

A Labor Day Prayer

Lord, I first want to say thank you for this day of rest. Help me to turn off distractions and find true sabbath through my relationship with you. Show me how to live a life that is focused on your purpose in my work and in my rest.

Work is not always easy, but I know you gave it to us to honor you. God, help me to see work as your creation designed to give me purpose, fulfillment, and to be a light in the world. May my work matter not just to my business and company but to your Kingdom. Renew my strength in my workplace and help me to remember that I am to work with all my heart as for you! Amen. (CW)

DÍA LABORAL

Este Día del Trabajo recordemos el poder de la oración sobre nuestro trabajo. Ya sea que tenga un trabajo que ama, esté enfrentando dificultades en el lugar de trabajo o esté perdiendo su trabajo, Dios tiene un plan y un propósito para esta temporada en su vida.

La oración puede impactar significativamente el trabajo que hacemos y la forma en que lo vemos. Sin embargo, en nuestras oraciones diarias, a menudo excluimos las necesidades que encontramos en el trabajo. Por las razones que sean, nuestro trabajo y lugares de trabajo no entran en nuestras mentes mientras oramos. Como resultado, es posible que no experimentemos la plenitud de lo que Dios quiere para nosotros cuando estemos en el trabajo. Cuando comenzamos a orar por nuestro trabajo, reconocemos que Dios está activo en todo lo que hacemos, no solo en nuestra vida “personal” o “espiritual”. Y esto es transformador. Sin embargo, la oración no cambia el corazón de Dios hacia nuestro trabajo tanto como cambia el nuestro. Y cuando empezamos a ver nuestro trabajo como Dios lo ve, experimentamos el poder de la oración y de la gracia de Dios.

¡Use esta oración en el Día del Trabajo y todos los días para recordar que Dios diseñó el trabajo para que lo llene y lo honre a Él!

Oración del Día del Trabajo

Señor, primero quiero darte las gracias por este día de descanso. Ayúdame a apagar las distracciones y encontrar el verdadero sábado a través de mi relación contigo. Muéstrame cómo vivir una vida enfocada en tu propósito en mi trabajo y en mi descanso.

El trabajo no siempre es fácil, pero sé que nos lo diste para honrarte. Dios, ayúdame a ver el trabajo como tu creación diseñada para darme propósito, realización y ser una luz en el mundo. Que mi trabajo sea importante no solo para mi negocio y empresa, sino también para tu Reino. ¡Renueva mis fuerzas en mi lugar de trabajo y ayúdame a recordar que debo trabajar con todo mi corazón como para ti! Amén. (CW)
