SEPTEMBER 18, 2022

TWENTY-FIFTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

PRIORITIES

Make a choice. God or money, material things, earthly pleasure. This is what Jesus asks us to do in today's Gospel. The Pharisees and scribes, and many people, want it both ways. God and wealth. But Jesus knows that "no servant can serve two masters." It is not that wealth is inherently bad, but the pursuit of it to the exclusion of what is good and righteous is. Our faith is meant to guide and shape the way we live. If we are followers of Jesus Christ, we will treat others, especially the poor and vulnerable, fairly and justly. We will live with devotion to God and let our lives speak the truth of God's love for all. We will put first things first, or more precisely, put God and God's ways first, assured that when we do, everything else will fall into place.

GOSPEL REFLECTION FOR NEXT SUNDAY

The Twenty-sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Luke 16: 19-31

A sad parable is put before us next weekend. I have always suspected that the man in torment was a good man. He is at least thoughtful enough to care about his brothers so that they can avoid his torment. It could be easy to be like him, insulated by our security gates, walls, and fences. Burdened by our own day to day responsibilities, the desperate needs of others hardly figure into our own thoughts. If they do, we usually think, "Someone should do something." We justify ourselves too often by thinking we have done nothing wrong without asking what we could have done right. The problem is that the man in torment was unaware., and that proposes the virtue a disciple must cultivate: Awareness. "The poor you will always have with you." Is no excuse for saying: "That's just the way it is." That thinking becomes the reason for never being aware.

The man in the story never listened to the prophets. Never listening to Jesus runs the same risk. Aware is the disciple of Jesus. Aware of the presence of Jesus Christ in every single person. Disciples are always aware of the gifts of God's love and mercy they are given to dispense.

PRAY FOR PEACE AND SAFETY:

If you have a family member serving overseas, please let us know. We will publish their names in the bulletin to remind everyone to ask God's blessings on them, that they may return safely to their families. Let us join our prayers for peace and safety with yours. Also, please let us know when they return home safely so that we may rejoice with you.

Your Inner Community

Those you have deeply loved become part of you. The longer you live, there will always be more people to be loved by you and to become part of your inner community. The wider your inner community becomes, the more easily you will recognize your own brothers and sisters in the strangers around you. . . .

The wider the community of your heart, the wider the community around you.

Henri Nouwen

“ Stewardship is the grateful response of a Christian disciple who recognizes and receives God’s gifts and shares these gifts in love of God and neighbor. ”

THE DISHONEST STEWARD?

The Gospel reading seems confusing until we concentrate on the details, are we praising a dishonest steward? Why is he being praised for being dishonest? In understanding this passage, it helps to remember that at this time in history, agents acted on behalf of their master. The steward was praised because he collected the full amount of the debt owed to his master. The debt that was reduced or eliminated was his commission. So even though he was guilty of squandering the rich man’s property, he was honest in collecting the master’s debt payments.

He was also praised for being prudent. By eliminating his commission, he charged the debtors less and made friends with them. They became obligated to him. Instead of being a victim of circumstance, he turns a tough situation around to benefit himself by making friends with the debtors. The parable does not praise dishonesty, it praises the ability to use our material resources wisely in a time of crisis. The steward knew he needed friends more than he needed the commission money.

The true riches in this gospel passage have nothing to do with money and everything to do with spiritual blessings, such as the seven fruits of the Holy Spirit: love, joy, peace, forbearance, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, and self-control, and most importantly a relationship with God. These true riches cannot be bought with any amount of money, no matter how wealthy you are.

¿EL MAYORDOMO DESHONESTO?

La lectura del Evangelio parece confusa hasta que nos concentramos en los detalles, ¿estamos alabando a un mayordomo deshonesto? ¿Por qué está siendo elogiado por ser deshonesto? Para comprender este pasaje, es útil recordar que, en este momento de la historia, los agentes actuaron en nombre de su amo. El mayordomo fue elogiado porque cobró el monto total de la deuda con su amo. La deuda que se redujo o eliminó fue su comisión. Entonces, aunque fue culpable de despilfarrar la propiedad del hombre rico, fue honesto al cobrar los pagos de la deuda del amo.

También fue elogiado por ser prudente. Al eliminar su comisión, cobró menos a los deudores y se hizo amigo de ellos. Se comprometieron con él. En lugar de ser una víctima de las circunstancias, le da la vuelta a una situación difícil para beneficiarse a sí mismo haciéndose amigo de los deudores. La parábola no alaba la deshonestidad, alaba la capacidad de usar sabiamente nuestros recursos materiales en tiempos de crisis. El mayordomo sabía que necesitaba más amigos de lo que necesitaba el dinero de la comisión.

Las verdaderas riquezas en este pasaje del evangelio no tienen nada que ver con el dinero y todo que ver con las bendiciones espirituales, tales como los siete frutos del Espíritu Santo: amor, gozo, paz, paciencia, amabilidad, bondad, fe, mansedumbre y autosuficiencia, control y lo más importante una relación con Dios. Estas verdaderas riquezas no se pueden comprar con ninguna cantidad de dinero, no importa lo rico que seas.

LAS PRIORIDADES

Elige una opción. Dios o el dinero, cosas materiales, placeres mundanos. Esto es lo que Jesús nos pide hacer en el Evangelio de hoy. Los fariseos y escribas, y muchas personas, quieren ambas cosas. Dios y la riqueza. Pero Jesús sabe que "nadie puede servir a dos amos". No es que la riqueza sea propiamente mala, sino el hecho de buscarla excluyendo lo que es bueno y justo. Nuestra fe debe guiar y dar forma a nuestra forma de vivir. Si somos seguidores de Jesucristo, trataremos a los demás, especialmente a los pobres y vulnerables, con justicia y equidad. Viviremos con devoción a Dios y dejaremos que nuestras vidas hablen de la verdad del amor de Dios por todos. Pondremos lo primero, o más exactamente, pondremos a Dios y sus caminos en primer lugar, con la seguridad de que cuando lo hacemos, todo lo demás tendrá sentido.

¿QUÉ ES EL MINISTERIO DE PADRES Y MADRES ORANTES ?

Son grupos parroquiales de padres y madres llenos de amor por Dios y por su familia. Nos reunimos en una Hora Santa mensual para alabar, adorar y hacer oración de reparación y petición a Jesús Eucaristía, por la salvación de los hijos. Pedimos también por la unión de las familias, por el Papa, la jerarquía de la Iglesia y en especial por los Sacerdotes de la parroquia.

Reuniones: 4 to viernes de mes. Te invitamos a compartir la Hora Santa del Ministerio PMO

Lugar: Capilla

Hora: Comenzando a las 7:00pm.

Coordinadores PMO: Maria Guadalupe y Ángel Carrasco
