SEPTEMBER 25, 2022

TWENTY-SIXTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

CARE FOR EACH OTHER

Don't delude yourselves, Jesus says through the parable of the rich man and Lazarus. We really are supposed to care for others. It is not enough to go to Mass and occasionally serve at a parish or outreach function. We cannot remain complacent and consider ourselves followers of Jesus. No matter how much or how little material wealth we have, we always have something to give—our time and attention, care, and, when possible, our money. The way we treat and care for others, especially the poor and vulnerable, is the manner in which we show our love of God. As disciples, we must "pursue righteousness, devotion, faith, love, patience, and gentleness." Jesus calls us to see and respond to the least among us, because, as God's children, we are all part of one another.

GOSPEL REFLECTION FOR NEXT SUNDAY

The Twenty-seventh Sunday in Ordinary Time

Luke 17: 5-10

Be alert next week. It will be easy to hear the parable from the view point of the master. That's a mistake. The real issue is not how the boss treats the servant but how the servant understands their role. It reveals another virtue that is not popular these days, especially among younger people and the highly privileged: Duty. In the disciple of Jesus, there is no room for the "Look what I have done" attitude. In fact, there is no time for such vainglory at all, because there is always more to do. Created and sustained in every breath by God, we know that we owe everything to God. The apostles cry out: "Increase our faith" at the beginning of this section aware of what task lies ahead. Jesus suggests that it is not a matter of quantity, but simply a matter of trusting the faith that God has given and then fulfilling their duty as disciples. For us as well, it will never be a matter of how much or more faith, but of a life consistent with the faith we already have in fulfilling our duty as servants. That is what it will take to bring the fulfillment of God's saving plan: servants who know and fulfill their duty.

BLESSING

In honor of the Feast of St. Francis of Assisi (October 4), a Blessing of pets will take place on Saturday, October 1 at 11:30 a.m. under the Canopy.

PRAY FOR PEACE AND SAFETY:

If you have a family member serving overseas, please let us know. We will publish their names in the bulletin to remind everyone to ask God's blessings on them, that they may return safely to their families. Let us join our prayers for peace and safety with yours. Also, please let us know when they return home safely so that we may rejoice with you.

The Pressure of Competition

One of the saddest aspects of the lives of many students is that they always feel pressured. . . . The word school, which comes from schola (meaning "free time"), reminds us that schools were originally meant to interrupt a busy existence and create some space to contemplate the mysteries of life. Today they have become the arena for a hectic race to accomplish as much as possible, and to acquire in a short period the necessary things to survive the great battle of human life. Books written to be savored slowly are read hastily to fulfill a requirement, paintings made to be seen with a contemplative eye are taken in as part of a necessary art appreciation course, and music composed to be enjoyed at leisure is listened to in order to identify a period or style. Thus, colleges and universities meant to be places for quiet learning have become places of fierce competition, in which the rewards go to those who produce the most and the best.

Henri Nouwen

“Stewardship is the grateful response of a Christian disciple who recognizes and receives God’s gifts and shares these gifts in love of God and neighbor.”

SEPTEMBER: A RECOMMITMENT TO STEWARDSHIP

The Gospel reading seems confusing until we concentrate on the details, are we praising a dishonest steward? Why is he being praised for being dishonest? In understanding this passage, it helps to remember that at this time in history, agents acted on behalf of their master. The steward was praised because he collected the full amount of the debt owed to his master. The debt that was reduced or eliminated was his commission. So even though he was guilty of squandering the rich man’s property, he was honest in collecting the master’s debt payments.

He was also praised for being prudent. By eliminating his commission, he charged the debtors less and made friends with them. They became obligated to him. Instead of being a victim of circumstance, he turns a tough situation around to benefit himself by making friends with the debtors. The parable does not praise dishonesty, it praises the ability to use our material resources wisely in a time of crisis. The steward knew he needed friends more than he needed the commission money.

The true riches in this gospel passage have nothing to do with money and everything to do with spiritual blessings, such as the seven fruits of the Holy Spirit: love, joy, peace, forbearance, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, and self-control, and most importantly a relationship with God. These true riches cannot be bought with any amount of money, no matter how wealthy you are.

SEPTIEMBRE: UN NUEVO COMPROMISO CON LA MAYORDOMÍA

El final del verano trae consigo la nostalgia de los días sin preocupaciones, las largas noches, las perezosas tardes de fin de semana, las reuniones familiares y los viajes de verano por carretera. Pero en nuestras parroquias, el otoño trae un estallido de nueva vida que hace que septiembre se sienta como primavera. ¿Por qué? Para el mayordomo cristiano, el otoño trae un renovado sentido de compromiso. Literalmente, muchos de nosotros hacemos nuestro compromiso de tiempo y recursos para nuestra parroquia durante septiembre. Las ferias de mayordomía y ministerios traen una sensación de entusiasmo a los fines de semana parroquiales, las charlas de testigos nos recuerdan el buen trabajo que se debe hacer, se emiten nuevas convocatorias para inscribirse en la Adoración Eucarística. Este es el momento en que reexaminamos y reconfirmamos nuestra mayordomía. Si se encontró lejos de su parroquia este verano, ya sea por negligencia o por viajes y visitas a otras parroquias, ahora es el momento de reencontrarse. Nuestra parroquia es nuestra principal comunidad de fe, donde construimos relaciones basadas en nuestros valores compartidos y la vida sacramental, y septiembre es una manera maravillosa de volver a “casa” en esa comunidad. Algunas ideas a considerar ahora:

- Visite, o mejor aún, ayude con la feria de ministerios.
- Considere un nuevo ministerio este año.
- Averigüe qué clases o presentaciones de formación en la fe para adultos se ofrecen para el otoño y comprométase con al menos una.
- Haga un inventario de sus donaciones financieras y considere las donaciones en línea,
- Haga de la misa dominical su máxima prioridad para el fin de semana, antes que los deportes, las actividades escolares u otras tentaciones.

"This extraordinary film reveals not just who Mother Teresa was, but how her singular vision to serve Christ in the poor continues to be realized through the Missionaries of Charity today. This is far more than a documentary film. It is at once a soaring tribute to a spiritual icon, a powerful witness of authentic Christian charity, and a guidepost for all who seek hope in our turbulent times."

It is my pleasure to welcome the second annual Together in Holiness conference to the Diocese of Venice on Saturday, October 22nd, the Feast of St. John Paul II. An invitation to all married and engaged couples to join me at this inspiring event is warmly extended. This day of prayer and presentations will enable each couple to reflect upon the great gift of the marriage vocation entrusted to them. I pray that through the intercession of St. John Paul II, the 'Pope of the family,' this day will be fruitful for all.

CUIDARSE MUTUAMENTE

En la parábola del hombre rico y Lázaro, Jesús nos dice que no nos engañemos. En realidad, debemos preocuparnos por los demás. No es suficiente con ir a Misa y de vez en cuando ayudar con una obra a la parroquia. No podemos permanecer satisfechos y considerarnos seguidores de Jesús. No importa cuánto o poca riqueza material tengamos, siempre tenemos algo que ofrecer, nuestro tiempo y atención, cuidado y, cuando es posible, nuestro dinero. El modo en que tratamos y cuidamos a los demás, especialmente los pobres y vulnerables, es la manera en que mostramos nuestro amor a Dios. Como discípulos, debemos llevar una vida de "rectitud, piedad, fe, amor, paciencia y mansedumbre". Jesús nos llama a ver y responder a los más pequeños entre nosotros, porque, como hijos de Dios, todos somos parte de los demás.

¿QUÉ ES EL MINISTERIO DE PADRES Y MADRES ORANTES ?

Son grupos parroquiales de padres y madres llenos de amor por Dios y por su familia. Nos reunimos en una Hora Santa mensual para alabar, adorar y hacer oración de reparación y petición a Jesús Eucaristía, por la salvación de los hijos. Pedimos también por la unión de las familias, por el Papa, la jerarquía de la Iglesia y en especial por los Sacerdotes de la parroquia.

Reuniones: 4 to viernes de mes. Te invitamos a compartir la Hora Santa del Ministerio PMO

Lugar: Capilla

Hora: Comenzando a las 7:00pm.

OFFICE OF THE BISHOP

September 12, 2022

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

The weekend of October 1-2 this year will be for World Mission Sunday. We join Catholics worldwide in this annual Eucharistic celebration for the Missions of the Church.

Pope Francis reflects on this year's theme: "You shall be My witnesses" (Acts 1 :8). He emphasizes the call to every Christian to bear witness to Christ, to participate in a mission of universal evangelization, and to seek strength and guidance from the Holy Spirit.

Beginning in 1822, the universal fund of the Society for the Propagation of the Faith provided some $7 million in help to the new and growing Churches in the United States.

Your prayers and generous support today sustain priests, religious and lay pastoral leaders in more than 1,100 mission dioceses in Asia, Africa, the Pacific Islands and parts of Latin America and Europe as they proclaim the Gospel, build the Church, and serve the poor.

Blessed Pauline Jaricot began this work 200 years ago. As Pope Francis reminds us,

"She accepted God's inspiration to establish a network of prayer and collection for missionaries so that the faithful could actively participate in the mission 'to the ends of the earth.'" Her vision would lead to World Mission Sunday, which helps the Pope support missionary activity.

When you contribute to the World Mission Sunday collection, you make it possible for the Holy Father to provide for the formation of our seminarians and religious. You assist in building the schools and orphanages that care for children in places few visit. Missionaries can build churches in areas with scarce resources. Priests and Religious can buy the essentials that make it possible to proclaim the Gospel and celebrate the Sacraments.

I encourage your generosity on World Mission Sunday, especially in this bicentennial anniversary year. While your prayers remain your greatest gift, your financial support is lifegiving to our brothers and sisters in the world's most vulnerable communities.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

+ Frank J. Dewane
Bishop of the Diocese of Venice in Florida
