OCTOBER 30, 2022

THIRTY-FIRST SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

A COMPASSIONATE GOD

Today's reading from the book of Wisdom presents an image of a patient God who "rebuke[s] offenders little by little" (Wisdom 12:2), an image endorsed by the psalmist, singing of how the LORD is "slow to anger and of great kindness, and compassionate toward all his works" (Psalm 145:8, 9). The crowd with Jesus, however, grumbles when they see Jesus's kindness and compassion extended to Zacchaeus, who was not just a tax collector, but the "chief tax collector"—a title that surely emphasizes his standing as a sinner to be scorned. In the second reading, Saint Paul urges the Thessalonians to be "worthy" of God's calling, so that "the name of our Lord Jesus may be glorified in you" (2 Thessalonians 1:12); such people, unlike the crowd in the Gospel, would rejoice at Zacchaeus's determination to change his life after encountering Jesus.

Election Prayer

Almighty God, we ask you to look kindly upon our country and help us to wisely choose our new leaders. Inform our consciences and enlighten our judgement, that we may elect those who will mercifully uphold justice and strive to protect the least among us. Heal the divisions which wound our unity and help us overlook political tensions that keep us from becoming a united force for good. May our great land, built on both personal responsibility and charity towards the less fortunate, always balance prosperity with care for the elderly, the poor, the sick and abandoned.

Amen.

GOSPEL REFLECTION FOR NEXT SUNDAY

The Thirty-second Sunday in Ordinary Time

Luke 20: 27-38

While next week's Gospel is focused on the Sadducees, it is really for us and it leads us beyond trying to imagine what it is like on the other side of death to reflect on what matters on this side and what matters on the other side. We are not given the how, what, where, and when of resurrected life. What is revealed is that we are to anchor ourselves in a sure faith that we have a living and loving God who has accomplished our salvation by the death and resurrection of his Son. This faith gives hope provides meaning and purpose for our days and nights until we shall move beyond time. Nothing is revealed that should lead us to be swayed or confused by an unhealthy and unholy fascination with seances, mediums, psychic and advisors who claim contact with the dead. Out of body experiences have nothing to do with faith and life everlasting. They are distractions to a people who are urged by the Gospel to keep their feet on the ground and stick with what we know to be true, that God is a God of the living and our relationship with that God is all that matters.

Real Care

The great secret of the spiritual life, the life of the Beloved Sons and Daughters of God, is that everything we live, be it gladness or sadness, joy or pain, health or illness, can all be part of the journey toward the full realization of our humanity. It is not hard to say to one another: "All that is good and beautiful leads us to the glory of the children of God." But it is very hard to say: "But didn't you know that we all have to suffer and thus enter into our glory?" Nonetheless, real care means the willingness to help each other in making our brokenness into a gateway to joy.

Henri Nouwen

HOW TO LIVE BY FAITH

The Sycamore tree created a clear line of vision for Zaccheus. It helped him to rise above the crowd and see the Lord clearly. It placed him in the right position for the invitation that would follow. Jesus told him to come down for he was coming to his house! Imagine the thrill. For us, the Sycamore tree is a symbol of that place in our own lives which enables us to have a sharp vision of Jesus. Zaccheus did not hesitate. With the same lack of caution which he had demonstrated in climbing the tree, he came down to stand in the presence of God Incarnate. There he heard the call that would forever change his life. So may it be with all of us. When God calls, we have only one choice, to respond without reserve.

Zaccheus was not unlike some of us in our own day, separating “what we do” from “who we are.” “After all,” we may tell ourselves, “we are simply trying to make a living.” Yet Zaccheus wanted to see Jesus more than he wanted to maintain his economic comfort. Jesus knew that. He had come to Jericho that day seeking to save the lost. He knew Zaccheus like He knows each one of us. The “crowds” around Zaccheus may have deemed him as unworthy of the encounter that was about to occur, but God did not see him this way. Jesus saw Zaccheus’ heart and he drew him to Himself. Each one of us should find hope in this story because, literally or figuratively, we have compromised in our lives. In our work, by failing to live fully the implications of our faith. In our family, by failing to love in the way that we know we ought, sacrificially. The ‘Good News’ is that no matter what has happened in our past, Jesus walks into the dusty streets of our own lives this very day. We need to be in position to see Him and respond to His loving invitations.

CÓMO VIVIR POR FE

El árbol de sicómoro creó una clara línea de visión para Zaqueo. Le ayudó a elevarse por encima de la multitud y ver claramente al Señor. Lo colocó en la posición correcta para la invitación que seguiría. ¡Jesús le dijo que bajara porque venía a su casa! Imagina la emoción. Para nosotros, el árbol de sicómoro es un símbolo de ese lugar en nuestras propias vidas que nos permite tener una visión nítida de Jesús. Zaqueo no dudó. Con la misma falta de cautela que había demostrado al subir al árbol, bajó para estar en la presencia de Dios Encarnado. Allí escuchó la llamada que cambiaría para siempre su vida. Que así sea con todos nosotros. Cuando Dios llama, solo tenemos una opción, responder sin reservas.

Zaqueo no era diferente a algunos de nosotros en nuestros días, separando “lo que hacemos” de “quiénes somos”. “Después de todo”, podemos decirnos a nosotros mismos, “simplemente estamos tratando de ganarnos la vida”. Sin embargo, Zaqueo quería ver a Jesús más de lo que quería mantener su comodidad económica. Jesús sabía eso. Él había venido a Jericó ese día buscando salvar a los perdidos. Conocía a Zaqueo como nos conoce a cada uno de nosotros. Las “muchedumbres” alrededor de Zaqueo pueden haberlo considerado indigno del encuentro que estaba a punto de ocurrir, pero Dios no lo vio así. Jesús vio el corazón de Zaqueo y lo atrajo hacia Sí mismo. Cada uno de nosotros debería encontrar esperanza en esta historia porque, literal o figurativamente, nos hemos comprometido en nuestras vidas. En nuestro trabajo, al no vivir plenamente las implicaciones de nuestra fe. En nuestra familia, al no amar de la manera que sabemos que debemos, sacrificialmente. La ‘buena noticia’ es que no importa lo que haya sucedido en nuestro pasado, Jesús camina por las calles polvorientas de nuestras propias vidas este mismo día. Necesitamos estar en condiciones de verlo y responder a sus amorosas invitaciones.

THANK YOU

Thank you to everyone who supported the St. Vincent De Paul food drive this weekend. Your generosity will ensure that our neighbors, many of whom are recovering from the effects of Hurricane Ian, will receive assistance feeding their families.

If you forgot your donation this weekend, filled bags may be left in the food bin in the narthex at any time or a monetary donation may be deposited in one of the poor boxes (Checks should be made payable to St. Vincent De Paul). Placing non-perishable food donations in this bin or monetary donations in the poor boxes throughout the year, enables the St. Agnes Conference of St. Vincent De Paul to continue their work providing assistance to the needy and those impacted by this terrible storm. Thank you again for your generosity.

UN DIOS COMPASIVO

La lectura de hoy del libro de la Sabiduría presenta la imagen de un Dios paciente que "reprende a los delincuentes poco a poco" (Sabiduría 12:2), una imagen apoyada por el salmista, cantando cómo el Señor es "lento para enojarse y generoso para perdonar, a todas sus obras se extiende su ternura" (Salmo 145: 8, 9). Sin embargo, la multitud que acompaña se queja cuando ven la bondad y compasión de Jesús dirigida a Zaqueo, quien no sólo era un recaudador de impuestos, sino el "jefe de los recaudadores", un trabajo que seguramente enfatiza su condición de pecador que hay que despreciar. En la segunda lectura, san Pablo exhorta a los tesalonicenses a ser "dignos" de la llamada de Dios, para que "el nombre de nuestro Señor Jesús sea glorificado en ustedes" (2 Tesalonicenses 1:12); esas personas, a diferencia de la multitud del Evangelio, se alegrarían de que Zaqueo tomó la decisión de cambiar su vida después del encuentro con Jesús.
