OCTOBER 9, 2022

TWENTY-EIGHTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

THE GIFT OF SALVATION

Naaman and the leper who returned to Jesus saw God's hand in their healing. Only through God's intervention could they have been cured. Through this recognition of God's presence and action in their lives, they grew in faith. For what are you grateful? Pause for a moment to reflect on all of the blessings in your life. God is the source of these many blessings—life, love, gifts, and so much more. Of all the gifts for which we must be grateful, none is as great, or as astounding, as the gift of salvation offered to us through Jesus Christ. Let this sink in, not only in your mind but in your heart. Like Naaman and the leper who returned, allow yourself to be touched by the immense love of God for you.

GOSPEL REFLECTION FOR NEXT SUNDAY

The Twenty-ninth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Luke 18: 1-8

It will be hard to tell which person is the point of the story next week: the judge or the woman. Usually the stories of Jesus reveal something about the father, but maybe not this time. Now we have this woman giving us a reflection on discipleship not because she is a widow, alone, uneducated without wealth or power, but because she is persistent, constant, steady, and unbending in the face of any obstacle. She gives us an example of this virtue of Persistence in prayer. It's not really something you do. It is a way of doing things. Prayer for a disciple is not occasional or convenient. It does not happen in times of trouble. It is constant, steady, and persistently a part of every day and every moment. It is not about the "right" prayer about the right devotion. It is about a life-style that is lived in the presence of God. This prayer is possible because God is utterly reliable having promised to hear prayers. Prayer in the style of this woman sustains our hope and renews the courage of all who cry for justice. If a corrupt and self-preserving judge will finally give way, how much easier will it be with a God of Mercy and Compassion?.

We Are Free to Choose

Is aging a way to the darkness or a way to the light? It is not given to anyone to make a final judgment, since the answer can only be brought forth from the center of our being. No one can decide for anyone else how his or her aging shall or should be. It belongs to the greatness of men and women that the meaning of their existence escapes the power of calculations and predictions. Ultimately, it can only be discovered and affirmed in the freedom of the heart. There we are able to decide between segregation and unity, between desolation and hope, between loss of self and a new, re-creating vision. Everyone will age and die, but this knowledge has no inherent direction. It can be destructive as well as creative, oppressive as well as liberating.

Henri Nouwen

“ Stewardship is the grateful response of a Christian disciple who recognizes and receives God’s gifts and shares these gifts in love of God and neighbor. ”

THANKING GOD

The Gospel this weekend, Luke 17:15-19: ends, “One of them, when he saw he was healed, came back, praising God in a loud voice. He threw himself at Jesus’ feet and thanked him — and he was a Samaritan. Jesus asked, “Were not all 10 cleansed? Where are the other nine? Has no one returned to give praise to God except this foreigner?” Then he said to him, “Rise and go; your faith has made you well.”

Only one out of the 10 healed men returned to thank Jesus — and he was the one that society would have least expected to do so: a Samaritan (an ethnicity that Jews despised, because the Samaritan race resulted from Jews marrying Gentiles, which was seen as corrupting their religious heritage). Jesus was willing to heal all 10 without discriminating against the Samaritan, showing that his grace was for everyone. The man who chose to return to thank Jesus received an extra gift: a spiritual blessing in addition to his physical healing. When Jesus said, “Your faith has made you well,” he let the man know that he had experienced more than just restoration for his body; he had also received restoration for his soul. The other men who did not bother to thank Jesus did not receive that knowledge.

AGRADECIENDO A DIOS

El Evangelio de este fin de semana, Lucas 17:15-19: termina, “Uno de ellos, cuando vio que estaba sano, volvió, alabando a Dios en alta voz. Se arrojó a los pies de Jesús y le dio las gracias, y era samaritano. Jesús preguntó: “¿No fueron todos 10 limpios? donde estan los otros nueve? ¿Nadie ha vuelto a alabar a Dios sino este extranjero? Entonces le dijo: “Levántate y vete; tu fe te ha sanado.”

Solo uno de los 10 hombres sanados regresó para agradecer a Jesús, y él era el que la sociedad menos esperaba que lo hiciera: un samaritano (una etnia que los judíos despreciaban, porque la raza samaritana resultó de judíos que se casaron con gentiles, lo cual se vio como corrompiendo su herencia religiosa). Jesús estuvo dispuesto a sanar a los 10 sin discriminar al samaritano, mostrando que su gracia era para todos. El hombre que eligió regresar para agradecer a Jesús recibió un regalo adicional: una bendición espiritual además de su sanidad física. Cuando Jesús dijo: “Tu fe te ha sanado”, le hizo saber al hombre que había experimentado más que solo la restauración de su cuerpo; también había recibido restauración para su alma. Los otros hombres que no se molestaron en agradecer a Jesús no recibieron ese conocimiento.
