JANUARY 14, 2024

2ND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

In today's Gospel Jesus begins to call his disciples. The first two to be called were disciples of John, who pointed out to them that Jesus was the Lamb of God. Andrew, one of the two, then brought his brother Simon to Jesus, saying that Jesus was the Messiah. Those who responded to Jesus' call sensed that there was something different about this Teacher, though they did not yet understand what following him would require of them. We can sense the excitement of those first disciples when they saw Jesus and received Jesus' invitation to follow him. They literally stopped what they were doing and followed him, inviting others to join them along the way. Today is a good day to think about our own level of excitement when we hear the words of Jesus spoken in the Gospels or see him in others around us. Do we share enthusiasm for our faith in Jesus with our children? Do we, through our words and actions, lead them to him? How so?

GOSPEL REFLECTION FOR NEXT SUNDAY

The Third Sunday in Ordinary Time

Mark 1, 14-20

Mark's Gospel has few words. They all count. He wastes no words on unimportant details. Peter and Andrew were successful at their trade. We know that because they had extended family living in their home. Remember Peter's mother-in-law? There were boats and nets and men. Jesus was calling people with skills who were using them well. He did not call them to stop what they were doing exactly. He did not say: "Stop fishing." He asked them to do it all in a different way, for a different reason, with a different motive. What we hear today is an invitation to look at our skills, our gifts and pay attention to what we are doing and why we are doing it. God does not ask us to abandon what we do best, what we do well, what we know how to do. God asks us to use our gifts and skills for the right reason - for the glory of God and the building up of the Kingdom of God. He does not ask mothers and fathers to leave their children, doctors to leave their patients, teachers to abandon their class or students to leave their studies. He simply says that for the Kingdom of God to come we must nurture each other with a parent's love, encourage, and protect. We must heal broken spirits, learn wisdom and truth and help others discover their skills and gifts. This is discipleship. It is not something unusual. It is what we are doing and why.

—Fr. Tom Boyer

Anchor Yourself in God's Love

When Jesus was baptized in the Jordan, he heard a voice from heaven saying, "This is my beloved Son, with whom I am well pleased" (Matthew 3:17). These words revealed the true identity of Jesus as the beloved. Jesus truly heard that voice, and all of his thoughts, words, and actions came forth from his deep knowledge that he was infinitely loved by God. Jesus lived his life from that inner place of love. Although human rejections, jealousies, resentments, and hatred did hurt him deeply, he remained anchored in the love of the Father. At the end of his life, he said to his disciples, "Listen: the time will come—indeed has come already—when you are going to be scattered, each going his own way and leaving me alone. And yet I am not alone, because the Father is with me" (John 16:32).

Henri Nouwen

“Stewardship is the grateful response of a Christian disciple who recognizes and receives God's gifts and shares these gifts in love of God and neighbor.”

-DIOCESE OF WICHITA

LISTEN FOR JESUS TO SPEAK TO US

In the first reading, Eli, tells Samuel to say, “Speak Lord, for your servant is listening.”

Are we listening for the Lord to speak to us? We need to quiet our hearts and mind to listen to what the Lord wants us to do. What is Jesus asking us to do, in this beginning of the new year, are we listening? Do we give Jesus a chance to speak to us?

A Disciple of Christ responds to the call of Jesus, follows Him, and shapes one's life in imitation of Him. A personal encounter with Jesus is a journey of discovery. It invites us to approach Him with openness, to spend time with Him, and to share the transformative joy of His presence with others. Like Peter, our encounter with Christ can lead to a new identity and a purposeful life of discipleship.

Samuel's readiness to heed God's call sets an example for us today. In our daily lives, we might not encounter such direct divine communication, yet we often have opportunities to listen and respond to God's guidance.

In our modern world, noise and distractions can cloud our ability to hear God's call. Samuel's story reminds us to create moments of stillness, even in our busy lives, to discern God's voice. We need to say, “Speak, for your servant is listening.”

There are many opportunities here at St. Agnes to answer the call if you are listening.

Our goal is to create a welcoming and warm experience for our parishioners and guests as they arrive for Mass. You can become part of our team by answering a call to serve in one of the ministries we have.

- Extraordinary Ministers of the Eucharist have the privilege of serving the Body and Blood of Jesus Christ to others.
- Usher welcome and assist parishioners in locating a place to sit and pray.
- Screen operators are very computer literate.

These are a few of the team of ministers that help our clergy and others as we prepare to celebrate Mass. Call or email, Gloria Carter for more information at gloria@stagnesnaples.org phone number 239-592-1949 X118.

Jesus and the Eucharist: A Small Group Series for Eucharistic Revival

Dear Parishioners,

As we continue this year of Eucharistic Revival, we would like to invite you to grow closer to Jesus alongside fellow parishioners through the Jesus and the Eucharist study. This study was specifically designed for this Year of Parish Revival, and we will be joining many other parishes throughout the United States in participating in this small group study as we journey together through this three-year National Eucharistic Revival.

Each session is full of rich theological content, powerful testimonies, and unique and timely messages from individual bishops across the country. This is a great opportunity to dive more deeply into the richness of our Eucharistic faith.

This study will be a special time to grow in community within our parish as we walk this sacred year together, and we really desire you to join us. St Agnes is hosting a Wednesday evening group and a Thursday afternoon group in the parish center.

Wednesdays, Jan 24 – March 13 at 6:30 – 8:30 p.m. AND Thursdays Feb 1 – March 14 at 2 – 4 p.m.

There's no homework, just conversations at tables of six following the video presentations on our Catholic faith. Online registration is easy and free at STAGNESNAPLES.ORG/SMALLGROUP. We hope to see you there!

HABLA, SEÑOR; TU SIERVO ESCUCHA.

¡Este mismo Dios quiere hablarnos a nosotros! No es tan difícil escucharlo, pero al igual que Samuel, necesitamos aprender a escuchar. La buena noticia es que Dios nos ama y quiere que escuchemos su voz. Así que apropiémonos de la palabra de Eli. Habla, Señor. Dios desea que lo conozcas. Siempre está hablando, siempre está manifestándose en tu vida. Cree que el tiene un mensaje para ti y con confianza exprésale tu deseo de escucharlo. Esto significa sentarse delante del Señor y centrar tu corazón solamente en él. "Habla, señor quiero conocerte más". Tu siervo, Todo lo que tenemos viene de Dios que es nuestro Señor, y nosotros somos sus siervos agradecidos y humildes, dispuestos a escuchar y obedecer su palabra. Esto significa que no debo sentarme a esperar un mensaje del cielo. Significa ofrecer mi vida al Señor con un corazón dispuesto, abierto a los planes de Dios aun cuando sean distintos a los míos. Estoy escuchando. No es fácil escuchar la voz de Dios cuando estamos rodeados de ruido. De manera que para escuchar al Señor, necesitamos encontrar un lugar tranquilo lejos del bullicio que puede ahogar la voz del Señor. También necesitamos silenciar el ruido provocado por la angustia y las dudas que se acumulan en nuestra mente. Pero con la ayuda de Dios, dejamos dejar a un lado estos pensamientos y en cambio escuchar su voz. Y poderle decir: "Aquí estoy, para hacer tu voluntad".

DIOCESE OF VENICE IN FLORIDA

OFFICE OF THE BISHOP

January 12, 2024

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Though blessed with an abundance of faithful and dedicated Catholics, the Church in Latin America faces a myriad of challenges and has many needs. For decades, the Collection for the Church in Latin America has helped meet these challenges and serves as a means for Catholics in the United States to unite more closely with our brothers and sisters in Christ throughout Latin America and the Caribbean.

Donations to this collection fund catechesis, marriage and family life programs, and seminarian formation, so that people can grow closer to Christ. Your support will truly make a difference in the lives of the faithful in Latin America.

Parishes throughout the Diocese of Venice will take up the annual Collection for the Church in Latin America during the weekend of January 20 & 21, 2024. Thank you for your kindness and generosity.

I take this opportunity to extend to each of you my blessings in this New Year. Thank you and may God bless you and your family for your support of the Church in Latin America.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

+ Frank J. Dewane
Bishop of the Diocese of Venice in Florida
