JANUARY 28, 2024

4TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Today's Gospel finds Jesus teaching in the synagogue in Capernaum. The people were surprised that he taught with such authority. They were amazed when he confronted and cast out an evil spirit from a man who was among them. The evil spirit called Jesus "the Holy One of God." Those who witnessed this power and authority spread word of Jesus throughout Galilee. Today is a good day to consider how we use our power and authority as parents, as bosses or supervisors, as coaches, as captain of the team or class president. Do we use our power and authority for the good of others? Do we use our power and authority to bring about positive change? Do we use our power and authority to guide our children or others in the ways of holiness and righteousness? Our use of power and authority has the potential to lift people up or to tear them down. The words we choose, the tone of voice we use, and the actions we take reveal to our family members, to friends, and to others that it is Jesus Christ who has authority over our lives.

A note from Fr. Orsi

Dear St. Agnes Family,

Firstly, I want to thank you for your concern and kind words over these past two months.

During this time, which was necessary for health and family reasons, I decided that my full-time position as Parochial Vicar needed to be curtailed.

I asked Bishop Dewane to allow me to retire, and he graciously accepted my request. He also stated that I would maintain the full Faculties of the Diocese of Venice in Florida. This means I remain a priest in "good standing" and will continue to minister the sacraments.

This status will allow me to continue to serve at St. Agnes or other parishes when needed.

I want to thank Father Bob for all of his kindness and support.

St. Agnes Parish is a special place because of you, my dear friends.

So, think of me as retreaded not retired!

Please keep me in your prayers.

Sincerely yours,

Father Michael P. Orsi

GOSPEL REFLECTION FOR NEXT SUNDAY

The Fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Mark 1, 29-39

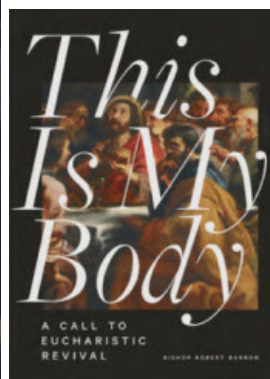

It's just the first chapter of Mark's Gospel, and already Jesus is making it clear that what matters is not power, but service. It is not about Jesus, but about what God can do. I think that is why he keeps telling the demons to keep quiet because they keep pointing to him, making him the focus of attention making it more difficult for Jesus to get his point across that we must go and do what he does. The crowds want to watch, but there can be no spectators when it comes to service. Excusing ourselves from doing what Jesus does because he was the "Son of God" is exactly what the demons are out to accomplish. It puts a stop to the work of God in this world. This story is not about power. It is about service. It is about seeing what needs to be done and doing it. Notice where this miracle happens. There is no one there to see it and no one to impress. Miracles are not a show of power to stir up the curious. They are moments when one human being sees the need of another and quietly responds to that need with the gifts they have. Nothing Jesus did was for crowds in spite of how impressed the apostles seem to be by their growing numbers. He knows the crowds will be gone one day. What Mark would have us see is what can happen when one person does whatever is in their power to ease the suffering of another. That is a miracle.

—Fr. Tom Boyer

FAMILY HOLY HOUR

We invite you to spend time as a family in adoration.

1st Saturday of the month
9-10 AM in the Church

Quotes from the Christmas Book

"...., only when we sit together at the meal hosted and made possible by God will we truly sit together in peace."

PRAY FOR PEACE AND SAFETY:

If you have a family member serving overseas, please let us know. We will publish their names in the bulletin to remind everyone to ask God's blessings on them, that they may return safely to their families. Let us join our prayers for peace and safety with yours. Also, please let us know when they return home safely so that we may rejoice with you.

You Are at Home While Still on the Way

When God has become our shepherd, our refuge, our fortress, then we can reach out to him in the midst of a broken world and feel at home while still on the way. When God dwells in us, we can enter into a wordless dialogue with him while still waiting on the day that he will lead us into the house where he has prepared a place for us (John 14:2). Then we can wait while we have already arrived and ask while we have already received. Then, indeed, we can comfort each other with the words of Paul (Philippians 4:6-7): There is no need to worry; but if there is anything you need, pray for it, asking God for it with prayer and thanksgiving, and that peace of God, which is so much greater than we can understand, will guard your hearts and your thoughts, in Christ Jesus.

Henri Nouwen

“Stewardship is the grateful response of a Christian disciple who recognizes and receives God’s gifts and shares these gifts in love of God and neighbor.”

BEGIN WITH THE END

What are your plans? We often hear that from co-workers, our boss, our family they want to know what we are doing and how we have planned to accomplish our goals. It is a road map for how and when to achieve what we have set out to do.

The management guru Stephen Covey in his best-selling book “The Seven Habits of Highly Successful People” lists the second habit as “begin with the end in mind.” Have a clear understanding of your destination and then take the steps that will move you in the right direction.

As disciples of Jesus, if we genuinely want to get to heaven, then we need to start with the end (heaven) in mind and begin preparing for it daily. Our friendship with Jesus does not remain static. Every decision we make, even the tiny ones, either moves us closer to Jesus or moves us farther away. Because God loves us so much, He does not want us to move backwards.

Here are some ideas to help us prepare...

Become God-centered. What are those other “gods” that you place before God? Try giving some of them up and spend time in daily conversation with God. Fasting is not a punishment. Fasting allows us to gain power over physical desires, grow in gratitude, accept suffering, be more patient and ultimately “empty” ourselves to be “filled” by God.

Become others centered. Our relationship with Jesus is personal, but it is not meant to be private. Share your faith story with others. No one can argue with you about your relationship with Jesus! It is your story. That should give you the strength and courage to share it with others. It may be uncomfortable at first, but that is the cost of a great reward. Someone said, “Isn’t a little awkwardness on earth worth eternal life with God in heaven?”

Focus on children, youth, and young adults. As kids, we were asked, “What do you want to be when you grow up?” We should change the question to, “What do you think God wants you to become.” Unfortunately, too many children and young adults do not see God as an option in their lives because no one talks to them about it.

Start with the end in mind. Prepare for the coming of Jesus. Encourage others to do the same.

David Baranowski, edited by G. Carter

EMPEZAR CON EL FINAL

¿Cuáles son tus planes? A menudo escuchamos que nuestros compañeros de trabajo, nuestro jefe, nuestra familia quieren saber qué estamos haciendo y cómo hemos planeado lograr nuestras metas. Es una hoja de ruta sobre cómo y cuándo lograr lo que nos hemos propuesto.

El ejecutivo gurú Stephen Covey, en su libro más vendido “Los siete hábitos de las personas altamente exitosas”, enumera el segundo hábito como “comenzar con el fin en mente”. Tenga una comprensión clara de su destino y luego tome los pasos que lo llevarán en la dirección correcta.

Como discípulos de Jesús, si realmente queremos llegar al cielo, entonces debemos comenzar con el fin (el cielo) en mente y comenzar a prepararnos para ello diariamente. Nuestra amistad con Jesús no permanece estática. Cada decisión que tomamos, incluso las más pequeñas, nos acerca a Jesús o nos aleja. Debido a que Dios nos ama tanto, no quiere que retrocedamos.

Aquí hay algunas ideas que nos ayudarán a prepararnos...

Centrarse en Dios. ¿Cuáles son esos otros “dioses” que colocas ante Dios? Intente renunciar a algunos de ellos y dedique tiempo a una conversación diaria con Dios. El ayuno no es un castigo. El ayuno nos permite ganar poder sobre los deseos físicos, crecer en gratitud, aceptar el sufrimiento, ser más pacientes y, en última instancia, “vaciarlos” para ser “llenos” de Dios.

Centrarse en los demás. Nuestra relación con Jesús es personal, pero no debe ser privada. Comparte tu historia de fe con otros. ¡Nadie puede discutir contigo sobre tu relación con Jesús! Es tu historia. Eso debería darte la fuerza y el coraje para compartirlo con los demás. Puede resultar incómodo al principio, pero ese es el costo de una gran recompensa. Alguien dijo: “¿No vale la pena una pequeña incomodidad en la tierra para ganar la vida eterna con Dios en el cielo?”

Enfocarnos en niños, jóvenes y adultos jóvenes. Cuando éramos niños, nos preguntaban: “¿Qué quieres ser cuando seas grande?” Deberíamos cambiar la pregunta a: “¿Qué crees que Dios quiere que llegues a ser?” Desafortunadamente, muchos niños y jóvenes no ven a Dios como una opción en sus vidas porque nadie les habla de ello.

Comenzar con el fin en mente. Prepárate para la venida de Jesús. Anima a otros a hacer lo mismo.

A Bible Study on the Joyful Mysteries: The Presentation

What is the importance of the Presentation of Jesus in the Temple? Join Dr. James Protho and Dr. Ben Akers as they unpack this great mystery and how it can apply to your spiritual life.

Exorcisms: What Catholics Need to Know | Chris Stefanick Show

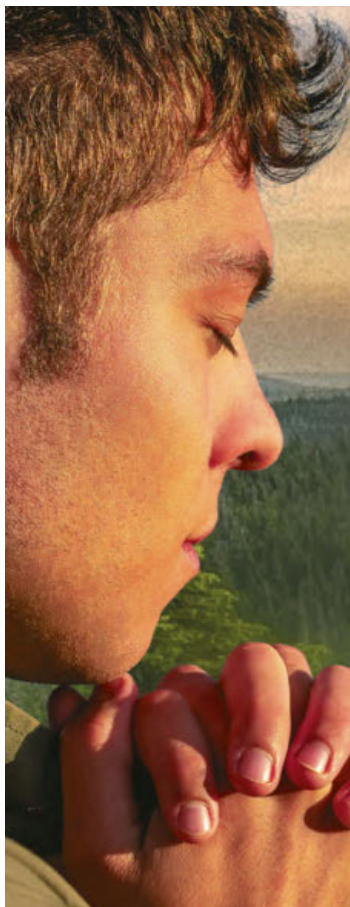

Scripture says, "Be sober and alert. Your opponent the devil is prowling like a roaring lion looking for someone to devour. Resist him, solid in your faith." In other words, the Christian life involves spiritual combat. But a lot of Catholics aren't really familiar with this idea. So to start unpacking it, we're talking to Fr. Chad Ripperger, an exorcist priest.

Saint John Bosco: Mission to Love

Flavio Insinna gives a winning performance as John Bosco, the great priest and educator of youth. Beautifully filmed in Italy, this epic movie dramatizes the many challenges that he had to overcome from his childhood all the way to founding his religious order.

What is Eucharistic Adoration?

The Eucharist is the True Presence of Jesus, the son of God who died so that humankind could have eternal hope. Catholics believe that, in Holy Communion, we receive the actual body of Jesus. In that moment, you share in Christ's suffering on the cross. It's a sobering, beautiful concept to meditate on, one that can leave you overwhelmed with love and adoration for Jesus and His salvation by His cross and resurrection.

What to Expect. The symbol of the cross is front and center during Eucharistic Adoration. A consecrated Host is displayed in a monstrance and respectfully placed in a special place to be worshiped and adored, usually on the altar or a smaller room nearby. At St Agnes, the Adoration chapel is in the Narthex of the main church. As you enter through the front doors, the chapel will be on the right, near the bookstand and the Blessings store.

When you enter a time of adoring the Eucharist, you can have faith that you're entering into the true, substantial presence of Jesus. As you contemplate drawing near the blood, body, divinity, and soul of Jesus Christ, you can experience a rejuvenation of spiritual nourishment and strength in a more unique, powerful way than you might experience in your daily prayers.

What do I do? There are no specific rules about what you should do during Eucharistic Adoration. Just "be there" in Jesus' presence. Reflect on His work on the cross and adore Him for all He has done for you and humankind. That would be a time of Eucharistic Adoration well-spent. Traditional things to do during Adoration are: pray the rosary, journal, read scripture, daily devotional or a religious book, listen to music on your headphones, pray on your own.

Etiquette. Dress modestly and respectfully, your attire reflects the sanctity of the occasion. Turn off or silence your electronic devices to maintain the tranquility of the space. Genuflect or bow as you approach and leave the Blessed Sacrament to express your reverence. Keep conversations to a minimum, allowing others to immerse themselves in the sacred silence. Be mindful of your movements, minimizing distractions to ensure a focused atmosphere.

¡AQUÍ ESTOY, SEÑOR! ¡DESEO ESCUCHAR HOY TU VOZ!

Domingo, Enero 28/ 2024
Como te llamó Jesús?

En el Antiguo testamento encontramos que Dios hizo surgir profetas para su pueblo, que escucharan su voz y la transmitieran al pueblo. Ahora, a través de Jesús, la Palabra viva de Dios, todo cambió. Al destruir la muerte y el pecado, él abrió el camino para que los pecadores nos presentemos delante del Dios santo. Ahora, cada uno de nosotros puede conocer a Dios personalmente. Cada uno puede escuchar su voz: En la escritura, a través de la Iglesia y, lo que es mas importante, en la profundidad de su corazón. Dios esta presente en nuestro corazón por medio del Espíritu Santo. El siempre nos espera con sus brazos abiertos para purificarnos con su misericordia y llenar nuestros corazones con su alegría y consuelo. Y con el salmo oremos: Ojalá escuchéis hoy la voz del Señor, no endurezcáis vuestro corazón.

AMEN.

El 31 de Enero la Iglesia celebra la vida de el Gran San Juan Bosco, sacerdote que entregó su vida a servir, cuidar y educar niños y jóvenes. Hoy vemos su obra esparcida por todo el mundo en centro educativos .

El pequeño San Juan Bosco recibió a través de sueños la misión que Dios tenía para EL. A los 9 años vió una multitud de niños peleando y blasfemando, El se lanzó contra ellos tratando de hacerlos callar por medio de golpes, y de pronto en su sueño se le aparece Jesús diciéndole que con golpes no era el camino para ganarse la confianza y el respeto de ellos, que era por medio de la mansedumbre y caridad que lo conseguiría y le mostro quien sería la maestra y guía para esta misión: La Virgen Maria con la advocación Maria Auxiliadora y le mostro nuevamente los niños ahora convertidos en un grupo de animales salvajes que paulatinamente se convertían en mansos corderitos, en ese momento la Virgen le dijo al oído: “a su tiempo lo comprenderás todo”. San Juan Bosco tuvo más de 159 sueños proféticos. Fundo la comunidad de Salesianos bandera de la educación y evangelización a la juventud y al mundo entero.
