MARCH 10, 2024

4TH SUNDAY OF LENT

Jesus tells us in today's Gospel that he is the Good Shepherd. He makes a distinction between good shepherds and hired hands. Good shepherds truly care for, guard, and protect their sheep. Hired hands are more likely to run at the first sign of trouble. As a good shepherd, Jesus knows his sheep and his sheep know him. Jesus is so devoted to his sheep that he will lay down his life for them. Think of all the people who share in the task of teaching, guiding, and protecting your child. Who among those people is truly a good shepherd—a person who invests himself or herself in your child's life? Who are the "hired hands"—those who are less personally invested, but are still a part of your child's circle of formation and care? Think about your own role as a parent. How are you being a good shepherd to your child and to your family? Are there any "wolves" in your life, drawing your attention away from the flock God has placed in your care?

GOSPEL REFLECTION FOR NEXT SUNDAYThe Fifth Sunday of LentJohn 12, 20-33*

They want to see Jesus. They want to see this Rabbi who out talked the Pharisees and humbled the Scribes. Then he talks about falling to the ground and being lifted up. They know what that means. So, they just want to see Jesus not get mixed up in this service and forgiveness stuff, turning the other cheek, and losing one's life. This business of "seeing" Jesus means understanding much as when something has been explained to us and we say, "Oh, I see." With that understanding comes the decision to look and watch or follow and participate. One or the other. The question this Gospel will raise for us next week is whether we want to look or do we want to go further. This Gospel calls us to distinguish between admiring Jesus and following him. It looks at whether or not we just keep our distance or actually step in and become what we admire. In John's Gospel there are twenty-six references to "the hour" by which Jesus means not a time of day, but the beginning of the reason for which he has come among us, the redemption of sinners and his return of them to God. We have come now in Lent to the "hour," when we shall determine who is here to see and who is here to understand: who is here to look at Jesus and who is to become one with him. It is now our hour - Holy Week begins.

FROM FR. ORSI

I am deeply touched by your turnout for my Retirement Reception. I have been humbled but raised up by your love. No man can ask for more. I am trying to respond to you individually for your kind words and generosity. If you do not get a Thank You, please understand that all of your addresses are not available to me. So, Thank you!

To Father Bob and the staff I am deeply grateful. Know that I will always love you and serve you. As Bing Crosby said in the movie "Going My Way", "If you ever need a friend, just dial "O" for Orsi." Or, was it O'Malley?

*God is Good- Always! Father OrsiPRAY FOR PEACE AND SAFETY:

If you have a family member serving overseas, please let us know. We will publish their names in the bulletin to remind everyone to ask God's blessings on them, that they may return safely to their families. Let us join our prayers for peace and safety with yours. Also, please let us know when they return home safely so that we may rejoice with you.

You Belong to God

You are not what you do, although you do a lot. You are not what you have collected in terms of friendships and connections, although you might have many. You are not the popularity that you have received. You are not the success of your work. You are not what people say about you, whether they speak well or whether they speak poorly about you. All these things that keep you quite busy, quite occupied, and often quite preoccupied are not telling the truth about who you are. I am here to remind you in the name of God that you are the Beloved Daughters and Sons of God, and that God says to you, "I have called you from all eternity and you are engraved from all eternity in the palms of my hands. You are mine.

You belong to me, and I love you with an everlasting love."

Henri Nouwen

“Stewardship is the grateful response of a Christian disciple who recognizes and receives God’s gifts and shares these gifts in love of God and neighbor.”

THE JOURNEY OF FAITH

Do you believe in the Son of Man? That question of Jesus to the blind man whom He had cured is the climax of the Gospel we will hear this coming Sunday, the Fourth Sunday of Lent. Jesus had cured him of his physical blindness, but that was only the beginning of the story. Jesus was intent on doing infinitely more for him — to bring him to a greater light, the vision of faith in Him as the Light of the world. Jesus gave the man born blind physical sight so that he would come to see with the new eyes of faith the truth about Him, about life and about its destiny.

I invite you to meditate on the journey of faith of the man born blind. At first, he did not know who Jesus was. Gradually, he came to recognize Jesus as a man of God, a prophet, then he came to believe that Jesus is the Son of Man, the Son of God. Jesus asked him: Do you believe in the Son of Man? Very honestly, the blind man asked in reply: Who is he, sir, that I may believe in him? Jesus told him that it was He. The man then said: I do believe, Lord. And then he worshipped Jesus.

We are all on this journey of faith. We can call it “a baptismal journey.” That is how Lent began — a journey of catechumens, a journey to baptism, to illumination by the light of Christ. Through Baptism, we received the light of Christ. We will remember this in a dramatic way in the liturgy of the Easter Vigil. But after Baptism, we can fall back into darkness because of our sins. That is why we have this season of Lent, a time of conversion and spiritual renewal, to live our identity as those St. Paul calls “children of light.”

A whole new world opened for the blind man when he professed his faith in Jesus and worshipped Him. He entered a new relationship with God by following Christ. The same happens to us. We learn to adapt our life to the will of God and to bring Christ’s light to our neighbors.

EL VIAJE DE LA FE

¿Crees en el Hijo del Hombre? Esa pregunta de Jesús al ciego a quien había curado es el clímax del Evangelio que escucharemos el próximo domingo, el Cuarto Domingo de Cuaresma. Jesús lo había curado de su ceguera física, pero eso fue sólo el comienzo de la historia. Jesús tenía la intención de hacer infinitamente más por él: llevarlo a una luz mayor, la visión de la fe en Él como la Luz del mundo. Jesús le dio la vista física al hombre nacido ciego para que pudiera ver con los nuevos ojos de la fe la verdad sobre Él, sobre la vida y sobre su destino.

Los invito a meditar sobre el camino de fe del ciego de nacimiento. Al principio no sabía quién era Jesús. Poco a poco llegó a reconocer a Jesús como un hombre de Dios, un profeta, luego llegó a creer que Jesús es el Hijo del Hombre, el Hijo de Dios. Jesús le preguntó: ¿Crees en el Hijo del Hombre? Muy sinceramente, el ciego preguntó en respuesta: ¿Quién es, señor, para que yo crea en él? Jesús le dijo que era Él. Entonces el hombre dijo: Yo sí creo, Señor. Y luego adoró a Jesús.

Todos estamos en este camino de fe. Podemos llamarlo “un viaje bautismal”. Así comenzó la Cuaresma: un camino de catecúmenos, un camino hacia el bautismo, hacia la iluminación por la luz de Cristo. Por el bautismo recibimos la luz de Cristo. Lo recordaremos de manera dramática en la liturgia de la Vigilia Pascual. Pero después del bautismo, podemos volver a caer en las tinieblas a causa de nuestros pecados. Por eso tenemos este tiempo de Cuaresma, un tiempo de conversión y renovación espiritual, para vivir nuestra identidad como aquellos que San Pablo llama “hijos de la luz”.

Un mundo completamente nuevo se abrió para el ciego cuando profesó su fe en Jesús y lo adoró. Entró en una nueva relación con Dios al seguir a Cristo. A nosotros nos pasa lo mismo. Aprendemos a adaptar nuestra vida a la voluntad de Dios y a llevar la luz de Cristo a nuestro prójimo.

A letter from Paul Todd

Dear St Agnes church family,

It has been a privilege to have served as your Music Director for the past 18 years. I also served as Music Director of St. John the Evangelist Catholic Church here in Naples for eight years before that. Twenty-five amazing years of making music and serving our Lord in Naples, FL.

I am announcing to you now that I have decided to retire from my position as St. Agnes Church Music Director effective April 1.

I love you all so very much. We have been through so much together.

In addition to all the years of Masses, weddings, funerals, baptisms etc., who could forget all the concerts. Gospel, Christmas, Show biz legends, Celtic Irish, Piano, and Broadway!

I have enjoyed every minute of our time together and I will miss you all so much. St Agnes will always hold a special place in my heart. We are more than friends. We are FAMILY!

I want to thank our Pastor Fr. Bob, all our priests, deacons and of course our staff for supporting me all these years. They are all amazing!

I also want to thank all my wonderful musicians and our amazing choir for making such beautiful music all these years! You made me so proud!

I will also never forget the incredible outpouring of love and support you showed to me and my entire family. My family and I thank you from the bottom of our hearts.

May God continue to richly bless all of you now and in the future. Our journey of Faith has only just begun.

Thanks for letting me be part of that journey and to have shared the gifts God has given me with all of you.

With much love always, in His service,
Paul Todd

ST. AGNES ANNUAL

EASTER FOOD BLESSING & EASTER EGG HUNT

SATURDAY, MARCH 30 | STARTS AT 2 P.M.
CHURCH & CANOPY

A tradition of those with Polish and Eastern European ancestry is the traditional blessing of Easter Food Baskets on Holy Saturday. In earlier times, the priest came to people's homes to bless the food, but today, the people go to church for these blessings and prayers. It has been a tradition at St. Agnes for people to bring baskets of food that they will serve on Easter to be blessed in the church in English and Polish at 2 p.m. on Holy Saturday.

There is a symbolic meaning to some of the foods included in the baskets; Bread for new life with Jesus seen as the "Bread of Life;" Sausage or ham for health, prosperity and the belief in the Resurrection; horseradish/vinegar to ensure physical strength and remind us of the agony suffered by Christ on the cross; and salt for wisdom, justice and purification. Candles also signify Jesus as the Light of the world and finally, eggs indicate hope, new life and Jesus' Resurrection which may or may not be colored. These are just a few! We invite you to join us and find meaning in this beautiful tradition!

The Easter Egg Hunt takes place immediately following the Food Blessing for ages 1-10 (older children are welcome to help).

Each participant is asked to bring 12 filled plastic eggs (no chocolate) & one non-perishable item for St. Vincent DePaul food bank.

Please RSVP for the egg Hunt to the Parish Office by Tuesday, March 26. Volunteers are welcome to assist. The Easter Egg Hunt is sponsored by our St. Agnes Youth Group!

ST. AGNES EASTER FLOWERS

Help us beautify our church on Easter with flowers. This is a way to remember those who could not be with us at this special time of the year and it also gives us an opportunity to honor someone very special in our lives. Fill out the form below and enclose a check in the amount selected. Please return both the form and check to the parish office or put in the collection basket. A special listing of the memorials and those honoring someone special will be in the bulletin after Easter. Thank you for your support in making our church look special during this blessed season.

The Eucharist as the Embodiment of Love

WITH REV. MICHAEL S. DRISCOLL

"God's word, listened to and celebrated, above all in the Eucharist, nourishes and inwardly strengthens Christians, enabling them to offer an authentic witness to the Gospel in daily life." - Pope Francis, The Joy of the Gospel

March 18-20 | 7-8:30 p.m.

Eucharist as a mystery to be celebrated,
to be believed, and to be lived.

Monday, March 18

Cult: Good liturgy fosters deep faith and noble ethical practice

Tuesday, March 19

Creed: The beauty and truth of the Eucharistic prayers of the Roman Missal

Wednesday, March 20

Culture: Each Eucharist celebration translates into our lived experience, most notably social justice.

Rev. Michael S. Driscoll is a priest of the Diocese of Helena in Montana and since 2017 professor emeritus in theology at the University of Notre Dame where he has taught sacramental theology and liturgy since 1994. He is the founding director of the graduate program in Sacred Music (MSM) and the Interdisciplinary Minor in Liturgical Music Ministry at Notre Dame. He is an active member of several professional groups having served in the leadership of each: North American Academy of Liturgy (NAAL), the Societas Liturgica, and the Catholic Academy of Liturgy (CAL). He has published two books, many book chapters, and numerous articles in journals such as Worship, Ecclesia Orans and Traditio.

BREAKING OPEN THE GOSPEL OF MARK

WITH FR. TOM BOYER

TUESDAY, MARCH 12 - "THE PASSION"

at 9:30 am in the parish center (Immediately following 8:30 a.m. Mass and 9 a.m. Breakfast with Fr Bob.)

The Gospel of St Mark as we have it, is more a sermon than a piece of Biblical Literature. It could easily be called a "Handbook for Discipleship." It serves to motivate and challenge faithful disciples. It is a call to action. Careful to leave nothing out, it is simple, direct, short and to the point. What Mark gives us are the memories of the aging Peter, a direct record of what he remembered that Jesus said and did.

OFFICE OF THE BISHOP

February 23, 2024

My Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Currently, we are in the second year, the Parish Year, of a three-year National Eucharistic Revival initiated by the Bishops of the United States. The purpose of the Eucharistic Revival is to reinvigorate love and reverence for the Holy Eucharist in our Diocese, in our parishes, our families, and in our own individual lives! With that in mind, I heartily encourage you to participate in, the 2024 Diocese of Venice Eucharistic Conference, being held Saturday, March 16, at Bishop Verot High School (5598 Sunrise Dr., Fort Myers, FL 33919).

The theme of this Conference is "The Holy Eucharist: Center of Our Parishes, Our Families, Our Lives". Inspirational talks will be presented by nationally renowned Catholic speakers, highlighted by the Keynote Speaker, Steven Ray. There will be presentations in Spanish and English.

The "bookends" of the day will be adoration and the celebration of the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass. There will also be opportunities for Confession, space set aside for private Adoration, as well as time to visit Catholic vendors, and to eat and visit with brothers and sisters in Christ from parishes throughout our Diocese. For more information, or to register, please see the Eucharistic Conference page at <https://dioceseofvenice.org/eucharistic-conference-2024/>

Won't you join us for this important celebration of the Presence of Christ in the Holy Eucharist? I look forward to seeing you!

This opportunity is taken to extend to you the assurances of my continued consideration and prayers for you and for your work in the Lord's vineyard.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

+ Frank J. Dewane
Bishop of the Diocese of
Venice in Florida

LIVE LENT!

Meet Gloriose, our neighbor in Rwanda

Living in Kigali, Rwanda, Gloriose Uwamahoro and her husband Karekezi Jean Pierre are no strangers to hardship and hard work. Driven by a dream to send their three children to a good school, Gloriose sells vegetables and water in a kiosk and Karekezi sells vegetables at a market. They faced many challenges. Their daughter was malnourished—like many other children in their village. In Gikuriro, a project led by CRS, Gloriose learned how to prepare balanced meals for her children, about the importance of good hygiene, and how to grow a kitchen garden. She later joined a CRS-led micro-savings group and learned how loans could help her grow her business and make more money. Now she earns enough to support her family. She and Karekezi can now afford to fulfill their dream of sending their kids to school.

Gloriose says that by participating in the program, “a woman has been given a voice...It wasn’t a thing before for a woman to speak up...or borrow a certain amount of money and use it to make profit and pay it back,” she says. “That is something to be thankful for.”

Each person is made by God and therefore each life is sacred and valuable.

What is one thing you can do today to treat others with respect?

OFFICE OF THE BISHOP

February 23, 2024

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

The Diocese of Venice will soon take up the yearly collection in support of Catholic Relief Services (CRS). During the Season of Lent, it is time to consider the Gospel's call to serve the poor and vulnerable.

The Catholic Relief Services Collection funds Catholic agencies whose programs help families suffering from war, famine, extreme poverty, and environmental destruction. CRS programs that focus on environmental destruction include rehabilitating water systems, building water access points, and delivering feed supplements for livestock affected by lack of water and pasture. In addition, families are taught how food hygiene and gardening skills will grow nutrient-rich foods year-round and lower the risk of food borne diseases. Millions of people living in places affected by soil depletion and drought have benefited from these lifegiving programs.

The CRS Collection in the Diocese of Venice will take place the weekend of March 9 and 10, 2024. Please consider generously supporting this meaningful and vital collection.

Your contribution can have a lifesaving, positive impact on the lives of people affected by natural disaster and poverty throughout the world. Won't you help?

I take this opportunity to assure you and your family of my continued consideration as well as my prayers during this Lenten Season. Thank you for the good that you do for others!

Sincerely yours in Christ,

+ Frank J. Dewane
Bishop of the Diocese of
Venice in Florida
