PENTECOST SUNDAY

Because they still did not understand all that Jesus had told them, the disciples were huddled together, frightened, in a room. The doors locked, notwithstanding, Jesus entered the room and greeted the disciples with a sign of peace. Some have interpreted this sign of peace as more than the all be well with you, variety but more of the shalom type which entails a perfect harmony with God. In any case, the disciples received the Holy Spirit and came to understand the peace Jesus intended. The authority and power to forgive sins was also given to the Church at that time. Since this Gospel passage reminds us that the Church received the power to forgive our sins, this might be a good time to talk about reconciliation as a family and how receiving forgiveness from one another or through the Sacrament of Reconciliation, helps us heal and grow. If you family did not receive the sacrament during Lent, this might be a good time to go as a family.

WELCOME SEMINARIAN ALAIN VALDIVIA!

Hey everyone! My name is Alain (pronounced "align") Valdivia. I will be here at St. Agnes for the next two months to learn more about parish life! I was brought to Cape Coral, Florida, as a two-year-old from Cuba.

I have two siblings, an older brother, and a younger sister. After about a decade of living in the States I entered quickly upon a discovery of the Catholic Church around the age of twelve. I then began to search and seek out answers to questions I had for the next five years, which ended ultimately in the decision to devote myself entirely to ministry as a future priest.

I have been these last two years in St. John Vianney College Seminary, studying there topics ranging from history, philosophy, to even languages such as Latin and Greek. It has been a great joy of mine to have the privilege to study as a seminarian in hopes of being of service to the people of God, for his greater glory and for the salvation of souls. Please continue to pray for me as I walk about in this journey of mine to the priesthood. Thank you for making me a part of your parish family and I am looking forward to spending time and working with all of you.

GOSPEL REFLECTION FOR NEXT SUNDAY

The Most Holy Trinity

John 16: 12-15

I enjoy reading mystery novels, but not to figure out before the end who did it. I enjoy them because they are involving, and they draw me into the adventure and the relationships, the details, and the risk of wondering and imagining. The pursuit of the bad guy is consuming and involving. There is no rest until the bad guy is brought to justice. Next week we are presented with a mystery we have called, The Holy Trinity." It is a Christian "mystery" that can tease our curiosity, draw us into a relationship, and stir our wonder and imaginations. What is the point of faith, of believing and trusting, if we already know everything there is to know and have it all figured out. Happily, we never get to the bottom of this mystery. If we did, our faith and the religion in which we express it would be over. Living without any sense of mystery creates an artificial sense of mastery which inevitably leads us to look around and say, "Is that all there is?" Our Baptism brought us into mystery, and the beauty of the earth, a sunset, the beauty of a child's smile. These are all mysteries that require no explanation, only a response of awe and love. I think that is what the Holy Trinity does, draw us into a relationship, and leave us wondering.

—Fr. Tom Boyer

"The great wisdom of Pentecost is the recognition through the Spirit of an underlying unity amidst the many differences!"

— Richard Rohr

Let Nothing Disturb You

I have found that Saint Teresa's call to focus on the goodness of God when I need to discern helps me fight the demons of despair, self-rejection, and fear, and has overcome the powers of darkness with the power of God many times. I have often prayed the prayer of Saint Teresa, "Solo Dios basta, God alone is enough," when I have needed to discern whether what I was hearing and experiencing was of God or not. Praying these words slowly and out loud can help me enter into God's presence, where there is peace and certainty that God is always with me and loves me.

Henri Nouwen

STEWARDSHIP

“Christ has no body but yours, no hands, no feet but yours.”

– St. Teresa of Avila

ST. AGNES CATHOLIC CHURCH

PENTECOST AND STEWARDSHIP

“As each one has received a gift, use it to serve one another as good stewards of God’s varied grace”
(1 Pt 4:10)

What identifies a steward? Safeguarding material and human resources and using them responsibly are one answer; so is generous giving of time, talent, and treasure. As Christian stewards, we receive God’s gifts gratefully, cultivate them responsibly, share them lovingly in justice with others, and return them with increase to the Lord.

Disciples as Stewards

- Let us begin with being a disciple—a follower of our Lord Jesus Christ.
- Mature disciples make a conscious decision to follow Jesus, no matter what the cost.
- Christian disciples experience conversion—life shaping changes of mind and heart—and commit their very selves to the Lord.
- Christian stewards respond in a particular way to the call to be a disciple.. We are grateful for the gifts we have received and are eager to use them to show our love for God and for one another

We can be Stewards of Creation

- God created the world but entrusts it to human beings. Caring for and cultivating the world as a good steward.

Stewards of Vocation

- Jesus calls us, as his disciples, to a new way of life—the Christian way of life—of which stewardship is part.
- But Jesus does not call us as nameless people in a faceless crowd. He calls us individually by name.
- God intends each one of us to play a unique role in carrying out the divine plan.
- The challenge, then, is to understand our role—our vocation—and to respond generously to this call from God

Stewards of the Church

- Stewards of God’s gifts are not passive beneficiaries.
- We cooperate with God in our own redemption and in the redemption of others.

Obstacles to Stewardship

- A dominant secular culture often contradicts religious convictions about the meaning of life.
- This culture frequently encourages us to focus on ourselves and our pleasures.
- At times, we can find it far too easy to ignore spiritual realities and to deny religion a role in shaping human and social values.

A Steward’s Way

- The life of a Christian steward models the life of Jesus.
- It is challenging and even difficult, in many respects, yet intense joy comes to those who take the risk to live as Christian stewards.
- The Spirit shows us the way.
- Stewardship is a part of that journey.

"Most Christians know that the life of Jesus is foreshadowed through the Old Testament. BOOK OF THE MONTH

THE DEVOTION TO THE SACRED HEART

by Fr. John Croiset, SJ

Author, Fr. John Croiset, SJ was the spiritual director of St. Margaret Mary (1647-1690), a man who was intimately familiar with every aspect of the revelations given by Our Lord to this famous Saint; thus, the book is actually the “key” to understanding the importance and centrality of the Sacred Heart devotion for our lives as Catholics.

- DOMINGO, DESPUES DE MISA DE 1PM EN EL NÁRTREX

DOMINGO DE PENTECOSTÉS

[Jesús dijo a sus discípulos:] "El que me ama, cumplirá mi palabra y mi Padre lo amará y vendremos a él y haremos en él nuestra morada".
- Jn 14, 23

Domingo de Pentecostés

Como aún no entendían todo lo que Jesús les había dicho, los discípulos se apiñaron, asustados, en una habitación. A pesar de que las puertas estaban cerradas, Jesús entró y saludó a los discípulos con un gesto de paz. Algunos han interpretado este gesto de paz como algo más que un simple «que todo te vaya bien», más bien como un gesto de shalom, que implica una perfecta armonía con Dios. En cualquier caso, los discípulos recibieron el Espíritu Santo y comprendieron la paz que Jesús pretendía. La autoridad y el poder de perdonar pecados también le fueron otorgados a la Iglesia en ese momento. Dado que este pasaje del Evangelio nos recuerda que la Iglesia recibió el poder de perdonar nuestros pecados, este podría ser un buen momento para hablar sobre la reconciliación en familia y cómo recibir el perdón, ya sea de los demás o a través del Sacramento de la Reconciliación, nos ayuda a sanar y crecer. Si su familia no recibió el sacramento durante la Cuaresma, este podría ser un buen momento para ir en familia.

BAUTIZOS

St. Agnes da la bienvenida a su hijo(a) a nuestra comunidad de fé. Para realizar el bautizo tenemos un proceso de preparación para padres y padrinos, es necesario estar registrado en la parroquia y acercarse a la oficina, reunir los requisitos para hacer la inscripción oficial. Lo felicitamos por querer darle a su hijo(a) este gran regalo de recibir la Gracia de Dios por medio del Sacramento del Bautismo.
