NOVEMBER 2, 2025

THE COMMEMORATION OF ALL THE FAITHFUL DEPARTED

In today's Gospel reading, Jesus makes it clear he has come down from Heaven to do the will of God the Father. And the will of God the Father is that all people who believe in Jesus will have eternal life and will be raised up on the last day. Finish creating your family devotional area for the month of November. Invite other family members to bring pictures of those they love that have died and to add those pictures to the display already on your devotional table. Encourage your family to talk about those whose pictures they have added.

Place lighted tea lights or votive candles near the pictures, and pray for your loved ones and all who have died in the peace of Christ.

GOSPEL REFLECTION FOR NEXT SUNDAY

The Dedication of the Lateran Basilica

Luke 20: 27-38

We interrupt the counting of Sundays next week to remember something as we did last week. This time as the whole Western Church recalls the Dedication of the first Christian Church, a gift of Constantine on the Lateran Hill of Rome. It is not, however about Rome's Cathedral no matter how lovely it is. It has been in ruins more than once. The fact that the Pope now lives across the river on another Hill is a reminder that it was once uninhabitable. This feast is about Christ Jesus and his presence among us. The first name of that building, "Church of the Savior" gives the reason for this celebration every November 9. Every civilization has certain places that it sets apart as holy. We have done that with our churches. These are places of covenant, feasting and proclaiming. These are places of sacrifice and the meeting place where God is revealed in sacrament, song, and service. Our churches are a mirror that reminds us who we are. Churches remind us of our deepest identity as people of diversity who become one in Christ Jesus and in whom dwells the Spirit of the Living God. We are reminded by churches that we are not alone, but are surrounded by statues and icons to remind us as Paul says: that "we are fellow citizens with the saints."

—Fr. Tom Boyer

"Though I walk in the valley of darkness, I fear no evil, for you are with me."

—Psalm 23

Mentality of Abundance

If we are to be peacemakers, it is essential that we take on what I would like to call a mentality of abundance and put away from us the mentality of scarcity. This sense of scarcity makes us desperate, and we turn to competition, hoarding, and a kind of parody of self-preservation. This greed extends not only to material goods but also to knowledge, friendships, and ideas. We worry that everything we possess is threatened. This is especially true in a society that grows more affluent, experiences more opportunities for hoarding and more fears of losing what has been stored, and in the process creates enemies and war.

STEWARDSHIP

“Christ has no body but yours, no hands, no feet but yours.”

– St. Teresa of Avila

ST. AGNES CATHOLIC CHURCH

STEWARDSHIP AND THE FAMILY

We refer to the family as the “domestic Church.” This phrase, drawn from the writings of the early Church Fathers and emphasized by the Second Vatican Council, describes family life as the center of Catholic spirituality and faith. Yet those of us living in modern families know how challenging it can be to fully live up to that image—especially in the busy autumn months of the year.

Hectic schedules often make family members feel like ships passing in the night. Job demands, class schedules, school events, church groups, business trips, commutes, and sports—the list goes on. Experts note that the family dinner, once a nightly tradition, is becoming increasingly rare. Even when everyone is home, screens—smartphones, televisions, and tablets—can keep family members isolated from one another, even when they’re in the same room.

So, what can we do to make our homes truly reflect the sacredness of the “domestic Church”? How can we be better stewards of our families?

Start with the family meal. Try planning a big breakfast or brunch on Sunday after Mass. Make it a special occasion, featuring everyone’s favorite foods. Involve the whole family—from preparation through clean-up. Keep a large, visible calendar where everyone’s schedule is posted, and use it to plan and prioritize family dinners. These meals should be social events, not times for reprimands or academic reviews. No electronic devices allowed—just pleasant conversation. And don’t worry if it’s not a home-cooked roast; pizza and salad can be just as meaningful when shared with love.

Next, create a plan for family prayer time. In addition to attending Sunday Mass together, set aside a few moments in the evening when everyone pauses for prayer before bedtime. Use commute times—drives to school or practice—as opportunities for brief, heartfelt prayers with your children. Let your children see you pray with Scripture. Show them that prayer is a priority.

Saint John Paul II emphasized the power of prayer in family life: “Prayer makes the Son of God present among us,” he wrote.

What else can you do to elevate the sacredness of your domestic Church? Do your children see you honor special time with your spouse? Do you spend quality one-on-one time with each child? Are you fully present when they speak—or are you distracted by your phone?

Communicate clearly that family comes first, and your children will follow your example. As a steward, prioritize your own sense of family stewardship. If our children grow up understanding that “church” and “family” are intimately connected, their faith will be all the stronger for it.

CHILDREN'S LITURGY OF THE WORD

FOR CHILDREN
AGES 5-10*
DURING 11AM
MASS EVERY SUNDAY

What: CLOW is a special gathering in which children experience the Sunday readings at their own level and are able to respond to them. It is a Liturgy like Mass, not "playtime." Please have your child leave behind things that might distract (such as toys, dolls, books, cell phones.)

Why: The goal of Children's Liturgy of the Word is to help children engage meaningfully in the scriptures of the Sunday Mass, thus beginning a life-long practice of praying, learning, and celebrating at Mass.

Where: The children are dismissed from the main assembly to the chapel building with a leader before the First Reading and return during the Collection. All St. Agnes CLOW adult leaders are fingerprinted and background checked.

No registration or fees required.

Join us when father calls up the children after opening prayer!

If you would like to join CLOW as a leader or assistant, Contact Michael & Marianne Shahla at (239) 287-6798 or mar22one@hotmail.com

**If your children are younger, we invite you to come sit with them to help them stay focused.*

FIRST FRIDAY HOLY HOUR

We invite you to join us for Holy Hour every First Friday of the month from 4 - 5PM at St. Agnes Catholic Church—come and adore the Holy Sacrament, draw closer to the Heart of Jesus, and experience the grace and peace that come from spending time in His presence. The First Friday devotion, inspired by the Sacred Heart of Jesus, is a special opportunity to offer reparation, deepen your love for Christ, and begin each month rooted in prayer.

The Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick

Formerly called Last Rites or Extreme Unction, this Sacrament is for those experiencing a serious illness, facing an operation or dying. Anointing of the Sick should be performed before death is imminent, when a person is conscious and able to receive comfort from the sacrament.

We make every effort to provide pastoral care and the sacrament of anointing to all who request it; however, families are encouraged to call sooner rather than later. If a loved one is at home and needs the sacrament, please call the office at 592-1949 to arrange for a priest to visit.

In the Hospital?

Please ask the nurse to contact the parish that serves the Hospital you are in for the Sacrament of Anointing of the Sick.

This is the most efficient way to be sure you or your loved one will receive the sacrament. Be aware that because of HIPAA

Privacy regulations, hospitals do not necessarily notify the parish regarding your hospitalization unless requested by the patient.

The Catholic-Jewish Dialogue's Kristallnacht 2025 strives to commemorate and educate.

We endeavor to inform and raise awareness of the historical events that created the environment for the Holocaust to occur.

We remember and honor the 6,000,000 lives who perished and pledge to create a world where such atrocities can never happen again.

Why should I become a member of a Parish?

Registration is the official way we join a parish community. Many people think that because they attend a particular parish, they automatically belong. Membership requires formal enrollment in the parish, but it is more than just filling out some forms. Registration is a commitment to a community, a way to participate in the religious, social and ministerial activities of a parish.

Registration not only shows you belong, but it is also necessary for certain benefits, like scheduling sacraments, obtaining sponsor certificates, letters for Immigration, participating in Faith Formation and receiving donation statements for tax purposes.

Belonging to a parish is a commitment. Just as you want the parish to provide Masses, Sacraments, Faith Formation and ministries, the parish needs to be able to count on you to help and assist in their mission; to be an active member.

Being an active member at St. Agnes involves several key aspects:

- Registration: Active members are formally registered in the parish
- Worship: Active members attend Mass on Sundays and Holy Days of Obligation (except for illness or emergency)
- Stewardship: Active members serve the community in various ways by sharing their time and talent
- Financial Support: Active members support the parish financially, using offertory envelopes or online giving (WeShare)

Are you registered with us? One way to know is if you receive regular communications from us, such as offertory envelopes, or occasional emails. If you do not, then perhaps you are not officially registered, or you have been marked as inactive. If you are unsure, please call the parish office.

Registering at St. Agnes is a statement of faith and support in the life and work of our parish. As a faith community, we are here to help each other on our journey of discipleship. Registration forms are found in the Parish Office, at each entrance of the Church, and on our website, stagnesnaples.org.

LA CORRESPONSABILIDAD Y LA FAMILIA

Nos referimos a la familia como la “Iglesia doméstica”. Esta expresión, tomada de los escritos de los Padres de la Iglesia y resaltada por el Concilio Vaticano II, describe la vida familiar como el centro de la espiritualidad y la fe católicas. Sin embargo, quienes vivimos en familias modernas sabemos lo difícil que puede ser vivir plenamente esa imagen, especialmente durante los ocupados meses de otoño.

Los horarios agitados hacen que los miembros de la familia se sientan como barcos que se cruzan en la noche. Las exigencias del trabajo, los horarios de clases, los eventos escolares, los grupos parroquiales, los viajes de negocios, los traslados y los deportes... la lista es interminable. Los expertos señalan que la cena familiar, que antes era una tradición diaria, es cada vez más rara. Incluso cuando todos están en casa, las pantallas—teléfonos inteligentes, televisores, tabletas— pueden mantener a los miembros de la familia aislados, aunque estén en la misma habitación.

Entonces, ¿qué podemos hacer para que nuestro hogar refleje verdaderamente lo sagrado de la “Iglesia doméstica”? ¿Cómo podemos ejercer una mejor corresponsabilidad con nuestra familia?

Empecemos con la comida familiar. Intenta planificar un desayuno o brunch especial los domingos después de la Misa. Haz que sea una ocasión especial, con los platillos favoritos de cada uno. Involucra a toda la familia, desde la preparación hasta la limpieza. Coloca un calendario grande y visible donde se anoten los horarios de todos, y úsalo para planificar y priorizar las cenas familiares. Estas comidas deben ser momentos sociales, no ocasiones para regañar ni revisar tareas escolares. Nada de dispositivos electrónicos—solo una conversación amena. Y no te preocupes si no hay carne asada; una pizza con ensalada puede ser igual de significativa cuando se comparte con amor.

Después, crea un plan para el tiempo de oración en familia. Además de asistir juntos a la Misa dominical, reserva unos minutos por la noche para que todos se reúnan y recen antes de dormir. Aprovecha los traslados—el camino a la escuela o al entrenamiento—para compartir una breve pero sincera oración con tus hijos. Deja que tus hijos te vean orar con la Sagrada Escritura. Muéstrales que la oración es una prioridad.

San Juan Pablo II destacó el poder de la oración en la vida familiar: “La oración hace presente entre nosotros al Hijo de Dios”, escribió.

¿Qué más puedes hacer para elevar lo sagrado de tu Iglesia doméstica? ¿Tus hijos te ven dedicar tiempo especial a tu cónyuge? ¿Dedicas tiempo de calidad con cada hijo individualmente? ¿Los escuchas con atención cuando hablan, o estás revisando el móvil mientras te hablan?

Comunica claramente que la familia es lo primero, y tus hijos seguirán tu ejemplo. Como corresponsable, prioriza tu propio sentido de corresponsabilidad familiar. Si nuestros hijos crecen entendiendo que “Iglesia” y “familia” están profundamente conectadas, su fe será mucho más fuerte.
